REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

We are living in a day when we need to emphasize and revitalize Christian Education. Materialism and modernistic thought has been greatly promoted by the world wide economic depression. Many of our best thinkers, especially among our young people have let themselves be caught in the rising tide of propaganda that is sent out by Socialistic and Atheistic Organizations.

The disturbed religious world and the chaotic educational world offer the greatest challenge to constructive leadership. In every crisis of the past, constructive leadership was never lacking. We as Christions must not lose interest and hope now. We need faith, we must have faith, faith that is based on the knowledge of Christ, faith in our Christian Institutions that have never betrayed their trust, faith that is adjusted to the needs of a new age, with restored faith, we will produce leadership that will meet the needs of the church and society for tomorrow.

The work of Christian Education has rightly become the work of development of Christian character. That Christian culture is the greatest need of modern times has been said so many times by so many people on so many occasions that the saying is thread bare and trite. That no improvement can be made in the principles set forth in the Sermon on the Mount has been preached from a million pulpits. That democracy as a form of government provides unlimited opportunity for the highest reach of the human spirit in science or philosophy, religion or art, we will agree. Then since we have democracy, since we have the Sermon on the Mount, as the accepted law of life by faculties and students in all Christian schools, the practical matter of Christian Education is the undeveloped area in personality. It is this area that the Christian School must cultivate. The soul is always virgin because each mind and spirit must gain its own culture; there can be no borrowing; no paying back; no exchange in acquiring Christian Education. Plowing in one field will not produce furrows in another; fissures in one brain are not impressioned in another, but Christian ideals through the power of suggestion; Christion practice among faculty men and women with students and Christion faith in sun or shadow will make the tools of learning, whether language or mathematics, science or literature, religion or art capable of fashioning a human structure of genuine Christian character.

In our Baptist Colleges today are the young men and women who are being trained in this Christian atmosphere for Professorships, and Presidencies, Pastors and Missionaries, Secretaries and all other places of Christian leadership of tomorrow. They are getting their education, plus Christian culture which is not to be had in non-Christian schools.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. HARRIS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OBITUARIES

L. L. Leary

On the home going of Brother L. L. Leary, this Association, the Baptist State Convention, and all Kingdom agencies lost a loyal worker and one of its best friends.

Brother Leary filled important places in the civic life of Morehead City and surrounding communities. For a number of years he served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Morehead City High School, as a member of the Board of Town Commissioners, a director and President of the Bank of Morehead City.

It can be truly said, however, that Brother Leary's greatest interest was not in civic matters, but in the things relating to the Kingdom of his Lord and Master. He loved everything dear to the hearts of his fellow Bapists. For several years he was a member of the General Board of the North Carolina Convention. For a longer period and until his death he was a loyal member of the Board of Trustees of the Mills Home. In this latter work this honored layman found his greatest joy and rendered his most distinguished service. There is doubt that any man in the State loved orphan children more than he loved them. Now, we believe, he is at home with little children.

Brother Leary for many years was a leader in the associational work. He gave his time, his energy, his prayers and his life for the spiritual welfare of the Atlantic Association. At the time he left us for heaven, he was the honored Moderator of the Association.

His work in his local church at Morehead City was almost indispensable. For the greater part of his life he was Superintendent of the Morehead City Baptist Sunday School. Practically all of his life he taught a Sunday School class, and what a teacher! He sat at the feet of the Master Teacher. Few laymen had the insight into the Word of God that he had. He served as Chairman of the Board of Deacons of his local church for many years. He was, indeed, one of God's most versatile and useful men in his local church and everywhere a Kingdom interest was found.

Even though denied the privilege of a college education, Brother Leary, through contact with the best minds of the State, through constant reading and study, took his place among the foremost teachers and denominational leaders in this State. His fine gift of humor made him one of the most gifted and convincing speakers in the North Carolina Baptist ranks. He was at home in any circle of friends at any time, anywhere.

Brother Leary, the son of a pioneer Baptist preacher, was a friend of Baptist preachers. The local pastor never had a better friend or a more wise counsellor.

We thank God for his life and for his service, not only to the Baptists in the Atlantic Association, but to the Baptist of the State and over the world.

A. P. STEPHENS,
B. W. SPILMAN,
J. P. HARRIS.
Associational Committee.

The Association at each annual meeting shall elect an executive-promotion committee composed of all pastors of the Association and one member from each of the several churches in the Association, said members from the churches shall be elected from the recommendation made by the church. However, if the church fails to make a recommendation, the Association shall elect some member from said church. The term of office of this executive-promotion committee shall extend through the ensuing year or until their successors have been elected. 13. At each annual session there shall be delivered, by appointment of the Association, an annual sermon, and an annual missionary sermon.

14. This constitution may be amended at any annual session by two thirds of the members present, provided notice of such proposed change has been given in open meeting at some previous meeting of the same session.

MILLS HOME

One of the most benevolent phases of the church work is that of our orphanages. Herein lies a field of opportunity where all may contribute to the work of the kingdom. For the orphanage rests upon the hearts of all the Baptists of the state.

Through the Mills Home Baptists cared for 1,019 children last year. There are at present 500 children at Mills Home. There are 137 cared for at Kennedy Home. There are about 200 supported by Mother's Aid. These last live at home with their mothers, and the necessities of living are supplied by the contributions of loyal-hearted Baptists of the state.

Our orphanages are supported by once-a-month offerings in Sunday schools, special Thanksgiving offerings and subscriptions to Charity and Children.

This paper is printed at the orphanage. The number of subscriptions now equals 28,000. The subscription price is $1 per year for single subscriptions, 60 cents in clubs of 10 or more. Let us urge that you send in your subscription now if you have not already done so.

The spiritual life of our orphanages deserves especial mention. Here children are trained in such a way as to prepare them for a life of service to Christ and of usefulness to humanity. There is located on the grounds a well-organized church with a well-equipped Sunday school which provides various classes. And every effort is made to surround them with every Christian influence.

During eight months of the year a two-session school is taught. Half of the children attend school in the morning and work in the afternoon. The remainder attend school in the afternoon and work in the morning. In this way the class room work and the industrial phase is equally divided.

Let us rally to the support of our adopted children. Let us plan for a more worthy Thanksgiving offering. And let us see that for one Sunday in each month we make a worthy offering to the orphanage. This let us do in the name of Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these, ye did it unto me."

Respectfully submitted,

C. A. LINEBERGER.

STATE MISSIONS

The foundation for State Missions was laid in the Baptist State Convention; was organized in Greenville with 14 members, March 26, 1830. The work has grown by leaps and bounds, under the blessings of God, as evidenced by the fact that in 1930 there were only 15,000 Baptists in North Carolina, white and colored, but there are now 440,000 white Baptists alone.

State Missions must necessarily be the foundation of all of our Christian enterprises. Christ said: "Preach the gospel to every creature, beginning at Jerusalem."

State Missions has been well defined as the work of bringing the whole gospel in touch with the whole life of the state. We shall not complete this task, therefore, until the leaven of Christianity has permeated the entire commonwealth; until all of her people have accepted Christ as Savior and Lord and until every aspect of life has been thoroughly imbued with Christian sentiment and dominated by Christian ideas and ideals.

As we are more closely related to and more vitally interested in mission work in eastern North Carolina, I bring a few facts that will reveal something of the largeness of the task which still confronts us,

The territory south of the Roanoke River lying along the coast and extending as far as Wilmington and even as far as the South Carolina line, and from 75 to 100 miles inland, has but few churches of Baptist faith. Let it be remembered that out of the few churches which we do find in this vast mission field comprising approximately 14 counties, the major part of them are weak and must be aided by the State Mission Board.

Between the Roanoke and Pamlico rivers approximately 40 miles distance and extending some 80 miles from the sound, even as far as Williamston, Bethel and Greenville, there are only five rural Baptist churches.

From the Pamlico to the Neuse River approximately 30 miles distance and 60 miles inland, as far as Greenville, Winterville, Ayden and Kinston there is not one rural Baptist church. Within this territory there is a good-sized town with splendid school facilities but it has no Baptist church.

From New Bern to Jacksonville and from Beaufort to Kinston there are not one-half dozen rural Baptist churches. The large territory marked out by the highways leading from Jacksonville to Wilmington, a distance of over 50 miles, and from Wilmington to Burgaw, and from Burgaw back to Jacksonville, there is but one rural Baptist church of any consequence.

"Say not ye there are yet four months and then cometh the harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes and look on the fields for they are white already unto harvest.' '

Let it be repeated that even in the face of this vast need and great challenge, that we are expending on State Mission enterprises only about one third of what we were expending a few years ago. In a changing state all of our churches must become more vital in the life of our people. They must be the powerhouses from which will radiate influences that will touch every phase of our common life. The power of the church to actually influence its members is in most instances in direct ratio to its interest in and support of missions.

A church that cannot vision its task at a distance is not likely to vision its task in its own community. If this principle be conceded even in part there are hundreds of our churches that need to be revitalized.

In connection with the above suggestion the following figures will reveal in part the problem and task to which we need to set ourselves with renewed interest and vigor.

In 1933 there were 737 churches of the 2 378 in the Baptist State Convention which made no contribution whatever to any Convention objects. In the same year there were 644 churches of the 2,378 in the state that contributed nothing to the orphanage. While there were in the same period 420 churches which made no contribution to either co-operative program or orphanage. It may be said that the revitalizing of the church is a problem that solely belongs to the local church. But a wise State Mission policy will, however, think in terms of every church and every phase of our work. For without doubt all the objects which we cherish and support both at home and abroad are indebted to the foundations laid in past years by State Missions.

What fuel is to a motor in giving it life, power and performance, missions have been to our denominations. Where this power and stamina has been lacking there has been no development in the activities of members or growth in numbers.

HOME MISSIONS

When the Southern Baptist Convention was organized in 1845 our fathers saw the need of two mission boards; one, a home mission board, to function in evangelization of the homeland, and the other, a foreign mission board, to function in the evangelization of lands beyond the seas. They recognized then, as we recognize today, that an agressive foreign mission policy can be maintained only by strong and agressive home mission program. A safe homeland alone, can go forth to save the world, and an evangelized homeland is the hope and the assurance of the world's evangelization. If apostolic faith perishes in the homeland, then missions in fields afar must fail for lack of support.

Through all the years since 1845 the Home Mission Board has been functioning as a mission agency for Southern Baptists in helping to bring in the kingdom in the homeland.

The board has during this period, employed in whole or in part independent of and in co-operation with state boards and other agencies a number of missionaries sufficient to equal the work of 40,862 missionaries working for one year. These missionaries have reported 785,135 baptisms. They have organized 8,570 churches. These 785,135 baptisms reported are equal to one out of every five of our present total membership, and the 8,570 churches organized are equal to one out of every three of our present total number of churches.

This is no little service but it is by no means all that the board has done. The board has done more than organize churches and baptize believers. It has co-operated with the state in helping to develop and grow strong state organizations; it has kept pace with the westward migration of our people, sending missionaries on with the first settlers and thereby capturing the frontiers for the Baptist faith. It has helped to support thousands of pastors in mission churches in the cities and has given more than a million dollars to help build church houses at strategic centers for struggling congregations; it has helped, through its system of mountain schools, to carry the "good news" to the 7,800,000 mountain fold, and through its department of enlistment, it sounded the first note of stewardship and started the movement that later developed into the co-operative effort of Southern Baptists.

During the past few years the Home Mission Board has been faced with the necessity of doing its work and meeting its obligations on a constantly decreasing income. It has, however, balanced its budget each year, lived within its income and paid an appreciable amount on the principle of its indebtedness.

The Board now has, counting the missionaries and the workers on all fields and in all departments, 202 missionaries. This is half as many as Southern Baptists have on foreign fields. For our Home Mission work we received last year $245,452.40, while the receipts for Foreign missions were $607,182.00. The Home Board also paid $89,000 on the principal of its debt. Should we not be encouraged over this showing in the administration of the Home Mission Board.

The work of the Home Mission Board is just as necessary today in the bringing in of the kingdom in the homeland as it has ever been. In fact the Home Mission task is larger, more difficult and more important than ever before. The work that ought to be done today is more vitally related to the whole task of the denomination than it has ever been at any period in our history.

The frontiers have changed but the work remains. There are now at least eleven fields of labor challenging us and calling the board with their needs. Some of these fields are now being partially occupied by the board but even in these fields the work should be greatly enlarged.

Let me name the fields open to Home Mission work: Evangelism, Enlistment and Stewardship, City missions to Foreigners, Missions to the Indians, Missions to the Jews, Missions to the Mountain folk, Missions to our brother in black, Missions in Cuba, Missions in Panama and Central America and a revitalizing enlistment and church building program of our country churches carried on in cooperation with the State Mission Boards in connection with our church building Loan Fund.

What a mighty opportunity we have in these fields of Kingdom work and how important the work to be done. The work calls for specially trained workers and requires freedom of operation so that workers may be shifted if necessary from one city to another or from one section of the country to another. Southwide tasks require a Southwide policy.

If the Gospel fails here at home how can we hope for it to succeed in lands afar. We must evangelize and marshal the evangelized forces in the Homeland for world conquests for Christ. The Home Mission Board is set for this very thing.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

A new day has dawned for Foreign Missions. Today bugle notes of victory are already sounding around the world. Forward is the clarion call.

Financially speaking the Foreign Mission Board has stayed within its budget. This is the firm resolve for all future. The debts have been reduced in a great way during the past few months. Since January 1, 1933 the Foreign Mission Board has paid more than one hundred thousand dollars on debts thus bringing it down one million one hundred fifteen thousand dollars to $950,000 in 16 months. The board is indeed grateful to Baptists everywhere for their part in helping to wipe out the debt.

The percentage increase in budget receipts from the first nine months of 1934 over the same period of 1933, is 14 1-2 percent. The gross increase for the same period is $146,000. The increase in the Lottie Moon Christmas offering to Foreign Missions for 1934 over the offering for 1933 is $46,000. From the Hundred Thousand Club the Foreign Mission Board has received $32,000 to date. All this was paid on the debt.

Because the Woman's Missionary Union exceeded its goal by $46,000, and because of special gifts from friends and churches, the Board was able to dedicate 15 new missionaries at the Southern Baptist Convention in May. All of these go out to replace fallen heroes of the cross. May other gaps soon be filled!

Indications of this sure response of Southern Baptists to God's call are observed in many other and divers ways besides gifts. More Baptists are reading and studying about missions, schools of Missions, Mission study classes, special Sunday School and church missionary rallies are being held monthly here and yonder throughout the South. More people are praying definitely by name for missionaries and their work, writing them letters and thinking about missions.

Loyally and faithfully the missionaries at home on furlough are giving their services free throughout the eight districts of the South. They are ever ready to direct schools of missions, teach classes, speak or do anything to promote, keener missionary spirit among any Baptist group.

From the fields of the 14 countries where Southern Baptists proclaim the Gospel, there comes news that thrills the soul. A spirit of revival is sweeping the fields. Turning from old things that do not satisfy, multitudes are seeking salvation, and the missionaries are greatly overpowered but rejoicing in it all. More churches are becoming self-supporting. Many are catching the missionary vision themselves and seeking to have a part also in evangelizing the world. Last year the 191,073 Baptists on the several fields gave $349,002.03 unto the Lord, while 4,066,140 Southern Baptists in the homeland gave only $4,951,011 to missions and benevolences in 1932.

But for all this work in these 14 countries Southern Baptists have only 394 missionaries. Seven years ago there were 544. These figures themselves tell a story of closed hospitals and schools, abandoned stations and forsaken native workers, overworked missionaries and lost opportunities. But the days of retreat have passed. The Foreign Mission work is facing forward and outward. Already great victories for Christ are being won.

Respectfully submitted,
VICTOR L. ANDREWS

W. M. U.

W. M. U. During this past year we have been confused with so many letters, (P. W. A.—C. W. A.—F. E. R. A.—H. O. L. C.— A. A. A. &) One might easily ask the question, just what do these letters W. M. U. mean? In reply Woman's Missionary Union, Christian women clasping the hands of our Young Women, our intermediate girls and boys, our junior girls and boys and our little folks, leading them up to a higher plain of living for Jesus.

The foundation upon which the W. M. U. is built is the Great Commission, linked with this, is our all time Watchword, Cor. 3:9. For we are labourers together with God:——ye are God's Building. So, day by day, year by year the W. M. U. (which include the young people of the church), work to help the Association, which in turn helps the State, which in turn helps the Southern Baptist W. M. U. carry to fulfillment the Great Commission.

We have a standard by which we work, certain Aims for which we strive, of these aims Prayer comes first, Enlistment, Study, Personal Service, Stewardship, Teaching our young people. The church or pastor, who, does not pray and work for a W. M. U. for their church, is losing one of the strongest rocks of their church's foundation.

We give God the praise for the work that has been done by the W. M. U. during the past year. There have been losses but the final totals show a gain. This gain looks good, and we are thankful for it, but as was said before, we have a standard to live up to. Reports from our organizations to our state officers is an important part of that Standard. I have not been given the figures as to how many of our societies report regularly to our officers, but do know there were only eight churches represented at our Associational meeting. Only nine societies who report that they have Young People's work, most of these only Sunbeams.

Three of these Socieites have all four Auxiliaries, Beaufort, Morehead City, Swansboro. New Bern Tabernacle reported they have just completed the organization of all four Auxliaries, next year we hope to hear great things from these, especially since we have drawn so many of our Associational leaders from that church, for the coming year.

Seven societies reported Mission Study Classes, five Auxiliaries doing likewise. The report for our Personal Service was not sent to me for this report. We know of two Unions who are doing directed Personal Service work, Beaufort and Morehead City, perhaps there are others, if there are not, one of the biggest factors for church growth is being lost for our Association. Personal Service represents Christ's love and ours joined in service for Him to man. It is presenting the Savior with our hards, our lips our lives. It is working in your own home church and community, as did Jesus when He was on earth, "Going about doing good." Never has the field been more ripe for this kind of service, It affords a great means of keeping alive within our hearts sympathy, helpfulness, kindness, charity, the spirit of service and love. We have one society, through their P. S. helping a ministerial student of their church, (in Wake Forest now.) This same Union last year spent almost $300.00 helping those less fortunate, in their community. The surest way to help folks "See Jesus Through You."

Through our Young People's leader, our Association put on the Stewardship Contest. Quite a number of our young people took part, this is a splendid way to teach tithing, not only of money but talents and time. Two societies sent Y. W. A.,s to Ridgecrest, this alone is of untold value to any church.

One W. M. U. reports 21 tithers, the same organization reported, three of their unit as Standard A-1 and the other two as B. The other one point for these will be reached during December which will make all of theirs A-1 for the calendar year. This will be the only Standard A-1 Union the Association has the record of owning. To God be given the credit and honor.

Prayer, unselfish prayer, is our aim for these next months especially. "Lord teach us to pray" not how or what but teach us to pray.

There has been a splendid gain in the financial report for our W. M. U. this year, as God has prospered us, so have we given.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. R. LINCOLN

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

When we as Southern Baptists begin to think of Christian Education in a large sense, our minds turn to the schools and colleges of Southern Baptists. We are indebted to Dr. E. P. Alldredge for much of the following information. Our statistical survey reveals that more Baptists are in state schools than are in our Baptist schools. The proportion ranges from 2 to 1 in some states to 14 to 1 in others. And the percentage of Baptists in state schools to those in Baptist schools grows from year to year.

Southern Baptists have four seminaries:

1. Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, Louisiana.
2. Baptist W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Kentucky.
3. Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.
4. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Seminary Hill, Texas.

Each seminary receives a percentage of the Southern Baptist Convention Funds.

According to the statistics for the year 1932, there are 29 Southern Baptist Senior Colleges in the 17 states of the Southern Baptist Convention, 3 of which number are in North Carolina, Chowan, Meredith, and Wake Foerst. Twenty-one of the 29 colleges are controlled by trustees elected by their Baptist State Conventions. Most of these colleges receive financial support from their Conventions. Chowan, Meredith, and Wake Forest, however, are temporarily receiving no support from the State Baptist Convention, due to the fact that payments on the college debts for permanent improvements use all the Convention funds available for education.

In 1931, there were 31 Junior College in the Southern Baptist Convention, but the next year, 1932, there were reported only 24 Junior Colleges. There must be some good reason for this great decrease. Two of these twenty-four Colleges are in North Carolina, Campbell College and Mars Hill College. I understand that our own Brother A. P. Stephens, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Morehead City is one of the Board of trustees of Campbell College, as well as one of the trustees of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary of Texas.

So much for our Southern Colleges. What about the Baptist colleges of North Carolina? In North Carolina we have five Baptist colleges: three Senior Colleges, Chowan at Murfreesboro, Meredith at Raleigh, and Wake Forest at Wake Forest; and two Junior Colleges, Campbell at Buie's Creek, and Mars Hill at Mars Hill. From the information at hand each of these colleges has increased the enrollment this year over that of last year. They are running at just about capacity. More money for larger equipment is needed by all of the colleges except Meredith. Wake Forest has passed the 1,000 enrollment mark this year. Just seven years ago there were around 700 students and I thought they were about all who could be cared for in an efficient and effective manner. Mr. E. B. Earnshaw, Bursar, said to the 1,000th pupil registering at Wake Forest this fall who was small of stature, "If you had been any larger, there wouldn't have been room for you." Some humor may have been intended by Mr. Earnshaw, but the fact remains that more and larger equipment is sadly needed by Wake Forest and others of our colleges.

What is to be done, then? Are we to send fewer of our young people to our Baptist schools? No. As we love the ideals for which our colleges stand, and as we want our children brought up in an atmosphere which recognizes Christ as Master, we are not to send fewer but rather more of them to our Baptist schools. On the other hand, we ought to be more liberal in the support of religious training, making the equipment of these schools as good or better than that of state schools. We shall in this way provide for our young people so that they may each be able to heed more easily the advice of the Apostle Paul to young Timothy: "Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed handling aright the word of truth."

Respectfully submitted,

SOCIAL SERVICE

We the Atlantic Baptist Association in session at Davis, N. C., Nov. 8th and 9th, wish to express whole hearted support of law enforcement, of the enactment of such laws as may be necessary for the protection of our homes and society in general, and to resist with all our vigor any and every effort leading to the repealing of our State Prohibition laws, therefore be it resolved:

1. That we appeal to our members and all citizens to abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages.

2. That we support the United Dry Forces now operating in our State.

3. That we appeal to the General Assembly of North Carolina, that will meet in Jan. 1935, that it retain and strengthen our laws prohibiting the sale and manufacture of intoxicants.

Respectfully submitted,

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Sunday school work throughout the South is making wonderful progress. Mr. J. N. Barnette in his book, Associational Sunday School Work tells us——

1. Southern Baptists have approximately 21,500 Sunday schools, but there aer about 3,000 of our churches without Sunday schools.

2. The Sunday school enrollment is 3 051,469, but Southern Baptists have approximately 35 per cent of the total white Sunday school enrollment in the South, where there are 31,000,000. On this basis, they are responsible for 11,000,000 white people, not to mention millions of possibilities.

3. Our Sunday schools in 1931 gained 113,727 in enrollment over the year before, but there are still 20,500,000 people who are not enrolled in any Sunday school.

4. Since 1920, our Southern Baptist Sunday schools have increased from approximately 2,000,000 to over 3,000,000, but many millions remain which are not hearing the Word of God taught.

In North Carolina, we have been making big strides in Sunday school work.

1. In 1931, our Sunday schools gained 8 616 over 1930, but hundreds of thousands are yet unreached for Christ.

2. In 1931, some 368,124 were enrolled in North Carolina Baptist Sunday schools, but for every one enlisted there are four unenlisted.

3. In September of this year, Mr. J. N. Barnette reported 48 churches in North Carolina without Sunday schools. What are these churches doing toward teaching their young people? Are they satisfied with letting them go the way of the world? Jesus said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me."

In the Atlantic Association, what are we doing? Two or three of our 33 churches do not have Sunday schools, and few of the Sunday schools we have are reaching half of their possibilities.

Three Fifth Sunday Rallies have been held this year; Piney Grove, Onslow, in April; Bear Creek, Onslow, in July; and Bayboro, Pamlico, in September. Dinner was served on the grounds. All those who attended these rallies were benefitted, but many of our churches were not worthily represented by their leaders.

When we think of what our Sunday schools are doing in the way of progress we rejoice, but may we not become too easily satisfied with what has already been done. Let us lift up our eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already unto harvest. Let us, then, go forward, recognizing the truth of our Lord's work: "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few," following His advice: "pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest." Luke 10:2.

B. Y. P. U.

The Sunday School is the church teaching. The W. M. U. has as its field the great work of informing and enlisting our people in the world task of missions. "The object of the B. Y. P. U. shall be the increased spirituality of the young Christians; their training in essential church activities; their edificaton in Scriptual knowledge; their instruction in Baptist doctrine and history; their enlistment in all forms of missionary endeavor through existing denominational organizations." The B. Y. P. U. answers the challenge of these days in giving our churches an army of trained workers for all our vast field of endeavor.

We are an evangelistic people and have made well nigh phenomenal advances along the lines of evangelism. It is well known that the great mass of our converts are among the young people and children of our Sunday Schools. They present to us tremendous possibilities and almost equally as great problems. What of the effect of their lives in our churches? Are they to swell our numbers merely or are they to increase our power proportionately? That depends upon their training and enlistment in service. The B. Y. P. U. seeks to answer that question by training our young people and making their lives tell in efficient service for our Lord.

We regret to note the declining interest in B. Y. P. U. work within the bounds of our Association. In the year of 1930 we had 21 B. Y. P. U. organizations in 13 churches. In 1931 there were 18 in 10 of our churches, and in 1933 the number had decreased to 11 organizations in five churches. We are sure that the number has not increased this year.

We urge every pastor in our Association to give hearty support, yea more leadership to our B. Y. P. U. work.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. GUTHRIE.

RESOLUTIONS

I. Whereas Dr. J. M. Parrott has been called to his heavenly reward and whereas Dr. Parrott labored long and faithfully in the ranks of Eastern North Carolina Baptitsts, therefore be it resolved:

1. That in his home going we have suffered a great loss in our Baptist ranks.

2. That we thank God for having given this good and honored man to the state and North Carolina Baptists.

3. That we the members of the Atlantic Baptist Association recognize and appreciate the outstanding services of our dear brother in the vineyard of our Lord.

4. That we extend to the members of our brother's family our best love and sympathy in their great bereavement.

6. That a copy of this resolution be printed in the minutes of the Association, a copy submitted to the Biblical Recorder, State and local papers, and a copy to the family of Dr. Parrott.

II. Whereas the good people of Davis and the Davis Church have so well provided for our physical needs in the two days of the annual meeting of the Atlantic Association therefore be it resolved: That we thank the church and the community for their abounding hospitality and warm-hearted welcome

REPORT ON ORPHANAGE

Among the objects of benevolences supported by North Carolina Baptists, none is nearer the hearts of our people than is our Orphanage.

This is as it should be. God, the Father, is interested in them in a special way. One of His names is "Father of the Fatherless". It is one of the marks of "pure religion" that it leads to the care for the fatherless and the widow.

Not only religion but enlightened self-interest lead us to activity in this field. He who would build the state of the church of the future must care for the children.

But notwithstanding the above facts, our care for our orphan children is far from adequate. Perhaps most of the pastors of the state have had the experience of the writer of this report. We have pleaded for children to be taken but have been told that the house is full and the "door is shut".

And not only do we need enlargement in equipment, but we need increase in funds to properly care for the children already being reached. Looking to this end, your committee would stress two things at the present:

(1)Let every Sunday School in the Association place added emphasis upon the once-a-month collection for the orphanage, that from the beginning has provided the main support for the work.

(2) Let us begin now to lay plans for our coming Thanksgiving service. Let us see to it that every church in the Association has such a service, and let us make it vital. Surely we have reason for an abounding spirit of thanksgiving in all our churches and in all our homes. Let us endeavor to have every member not only of our churches but of our congregations, express this spirit of thankfullness by a generous donation for our orphan children, and God will not fail to bless us in a still larger way.

Sincerely,
J. W. Morgan, Chairman of Com.

BAPTIST TRAINING UNION

What is a B. T. U.? It is a training service of a Baptist Church. It is a church developing and training its members for Christian leadership. In all the work of a B. T. U .the dominant idea is training—learning by doing—practicing in order to become efficient.

The need in our churches, that the B. T. U. aims to meet is that of efficient church members. The weakness and burden is inefficiency. A host of weak Christians who can't do anything for the Lord. Our churches are boxes of unlighted candles. They are capable of a great light to shine in a world darkened by sin. How can we kindle their latent powers. There must be some where in the plans of our church, a place to train young Christians, or we will always lack leaders and workers. The answer to this need is found in the B. T. U.

In the B. T. U.'s is the spirit of unselfishness. More than any other church service it "lives to die". It trains workers, not for itself, but for all lines of church work. It trains and transplants.

The B. T. U. projects itself into its members. We do not find the full result of B. T. U. activities in a report as to its membership, but in the stored up experience of thousands of Baptist young people. It is an invisible something, yet it is real. The B. T. U. is more than an organization. It is a great personal influence, alive in the hearts of Baptist youth. The B. T. U. builds itself into character and there we find its finished product.

Decision battles of a lifetime are won or lost in youth. It is easier to consecrate a life to Christ before the sins of the world has stopped the vigor of the soul. The B. T. U. moves against the devil in the days of youth. The devil would get the interest through worldly allurements; the B. T. U. seeks to compel the interest by concentration in definate Christian service. The conflict is for possession of the best part of any life. Victory or defeat depends upon the center of interest, for interest leads to attention and the things we attain weave themselves into the fabric of our being.

This year we are happy to report an increased interest in B. T. U. work, within our association.In 1933 there were eleven organizations in five churches. This year we have reported seventeen (17) organizations in nine (9) churches, with an enrollment of 361.

In the coming year we hope to have many more churches to organize B. T. U. Train Baptist young people to serve our Lord.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed rightly dividing the word of truth". 2 Tim. 2-15

WOMEN'S WORK

Atlantic Association

The Woman's Missionary Union was organized fifty years ago as an auxiliary of the Baptist State Convention. Since that time it has been a growing Auxiliary, and we have reason to believe that the life and work of our W. M. U. has the sanction of our heavenly Father who said, "Ye are my witnesses".

Sometimes when we think of the marvelous work the women are doing through the W. M. U. we feel like giving thanks for those good women who marshalled our forces and set things in motion years ago. Among them were Miss McIntosh (now Mrs. T. P. Bell), the first president of our W. M. U., Miss Annis Armstrong, the first secretary and Miss Fannie Heck whose task was no less difficult to readjust in an hour of crises and to establish our work on firmer basis. May we never forget these dear leaders.

The obligation resting upon each member of the W. M. U. today is to awaken interest in Missions, to constantly promote missionary education, to encourage participation in missions, to kindle missionary fervor in the hearts of other women and young people and to keep constantly glowing in our lives the fire of missionary zeal. These good things come only through earnest prayer. That is the only way we can lift the banner of the Cross; for if you remember, at the beginning of 1933 when our treasurers were showing constant declining receipts the W. M. U. changed its emphasis from gifts to prawer, and the result was that not only were souls saved but gifts began to pour in from every corner. When we trut in God victory always comes.

Another year has passed and today we come with glad hearts to merely remind you that we are still at work and that the passing year has had its measure of progress. Nine of our unions are A-1. This we are glad to say for to reach the points of the Standard labor was necessary and in working, confidence in God's ability has grown and linked with it certain faithfulness to reach higher aims. Some of our organizations which hardly ever get mention are reaching a Standard in God's sight. They are striving with all their power to spread the gospel. At one of our churches that I know of there is now a wide-awake Y. W. A. in function. The Manual has been taught this year. Three years ago a Y. W. A. was hardly known about among the young people there. Now with the help of the Y. W. A. magazine and other helpful information they are being filled with missionary zeal and a longing to do more personal service.

In thirty-two churches there are now nine G. A.'s, six Y. W. A.'s four R. A.'s nine S. B.'s, fourteen W. M. S.'s making a totai of forty-two W. M. U. organizations in our association We are very gad to say that each one reported regularly during the year. I am not able to state the exact number of Mission Study Classes that have been conducted this year but I do know of three that have been held by one of our good pastors and his wife at three of the churches in the eastern part of our association. It might be interesting to state that these churches had never enjoyed this privilege before. Our contributions have been worthy too. $2179.28 had been contributed at the end of the third quarter. Even though it has been hard to give in as large amountsas we would like to have given, a good spirit has been shown. This also reminds us that God is sanctioning our work.

While our W. M. U. is functioning gloriously uder the capable leadership of Mrs. J. L. Hodges we must remember that our task is by no means completed. Twenty two million souls are still out of Christ here in our own homeland. It is up to us to "Set up the banner" of our loving heavenly Father.

Mrs. D. R. Lewis

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Just what do we mean by "education"? Webster's Collegiate Dictionary says education is "the impartation or acquisition of knowledge, skill, or development of character, as by study or discipline." Then, what do we mean by "Christian education?" Many definitions have been given, so I may be permitted to formulate another. Christian education is the acquisition of knowledge pertaining to the religion of Christ, and the development of character which may be honoring to Christ. Your definition may be more comprehensive than this one, but the definition stated serves my purpose.

If we agree to use this definition of Christian education, let us notice two things about it. Christian education is the acquisition of knowledge pertaining to the religion of Christ—Christ's life, work, doctrines, warnings, promises, and commands are to have the central place in this kind of education. Some knowledge of the other great religions may be desireable, but to be Christian education there must of necessity be knowledge of Christ. Christ is the center around which one is to build his system of faith. The other part of the definition requires the development of character which may be honoring to Christ. Character is moulded through the repetition of acts—through thoughts, literature, and deeds. Undoubtedly, elevating thoughts, good literature, and deeds of kindness aid in the development of Christian character. All of them contribute to a Christian attitude toward life.

What have Missionary Baptists of the South, some four millions in number, done toward spreading Christian education? Each of the eighteen states within the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention is divided into associations to facilitate and accelerate the progress of the individual churches. In these associations there are churches, Sunday Schools, Woman's Missionary Unions, Baptist Training Unions, and Baptist Brotherhoods, their main object being the development of more Christians and better Christians.

In the Southern Baptist Convention report for 1934 there were 24,360 churches with 4,277,052 members; 22,072 Sunday schools with 3,104,411 people enrolled; 33,864 Baptist Training Unions with 649,-773 people enrolled; and 33,537 W. M. U. organizations with 571,702 people enrolled. Southern Baptists have four theological schools; twenty-nine Senior colleges; twenty-one Junior colleges; eighteen academies; twenty-three hospitals, and eighteen orphanages. All of these are agents working together for one common Lord, Jesus Christ, and each one fills a peculiar need.

Now, may we take a brief survey of some things North Carolina Baptists are doing to advance Christian education. In North Carolina there are 2,410 churches wiht 450,770 members; 2,384 Sunday schools with an enrollment of 384,647; 2,611 Baptist Training Unions with 60,053 members; 2,880 W. M. U. organizations with a membership of 51,192. There were 103 Daily Vacation Bible Schools held in the state in 1934. North Carolina Baptists have three Senior colleges: Wake Forest at Wake Forest, Meredith at Raleigh, and Chowan at Murfreesboro; and two Junior colleges: Mars Hill at Mars Hill, and Campbell at Buie's Creek. These five colleges are worthy of better and more generous support than they are now receiving. One would have to go far to find more devoted and consecrated faculties than are to be found in these institutions of ours. The student are in a more Christian atmosphere here than are those students of many other colleges. Christians, we demand more of a professor than that he be an educated man. We desire the spiritual development of our young people to progress as rapidly as their mental or intellectual development. In these schools of North Carolina Baptists we should be thankful that Christ is given the precedence over book learning. This does not imply that our colleges are inferior to any other colleges in the state in the intellectual field, but it does imply that they are superior to many others in their emphasis upon spiritual culture.

This other word in regard to our colleges is in order. Our colleges are handicapped because they are in need of more endowment en larged physical equipment, and increased teaching personnel. In these respects, Meredith is perhaps the best circumstanced. The others are filled to just about capacity. This quotation is taken fromt he 1934 report of Wake Forest College: "With our present teaching force and equipment, we have reached the limit of the numbers we can adequately care for. But we should not be downhearted; on the contrary, we should rejoice that our opportunity is so great. Surely the emergency is a clarion call to the Baptist hosts of North Carolina."

May we not be satisfied with what we have done and are doing, but rather let us launch out into still larger fields of service for our Master. The instruction and charge of the prophet Isaiah should fill us with a yearning for heights beyond which we have not yet attained: "Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; for thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left."

Respectfully submitted,
R. T. Willis, Jr.

STATE, HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS

(A)—STATE MISSIONS

The spirit and motive of missions, Foreign, Home and State are identical. The objectives, however, are slightly different.

In State Missions we include (1) Missionary Pastoral Assistance, (2) Student work, (3) B. T. U. and Sundeay School, (4) Church building, (5) Oteen Hospital, (6) Indians, and (7) Negroes.

The State Missions program is the foundation for Home Missions, and in order to reach the uttermost part of the world with the Gospel, we must have a strong home base.

(B)—HOME MISSIONS

The work of the Home Mission Board for the past year has been signally blessed of God. Gracious revivals and many souls won are reported from every field. Even Cuba and Mexico are very encouraging mission fields. Old frontiers are changing, new ones opening—Calling for our Home Mission Board to carry the old, old story.

(C)—FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Foreign Mission Board in 1935 voted to continue its program of retrenchment and economy which it began in 1933 until the debts are paid or greatly reduced. The Woman's Missionary Union through its Lottie Moon offering is making possible sending out new missionaries and has stopped the retreat in our work.

The 100,000 Club has brought new life to Foreign Missions, by reducing the indebtedness.

We have 388 missionaries who report a net gain of 21,733 souls last year.

HOSPITALS

Jesus went about all Gallilee—healing all manner of sickness and all manner of diseases among the people. He also said, "The works that I do shall ye do and greater work than these shall ye do because I go to my father."

Since the opening of the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem May 28, 1923 to July 15, 1935, 29,000 patients have entered for treatment. In the first half of the year 1935, 1,760 patients have been treated. At this rate the hospital will have 3,520 patients this year, or 31,260 patients days. Of this 11,882 will be full pay, 9,704 part pay, and 9,674 free.

From the foregoing, it is apparent that it costs a large amount of money to care for this increasing number of patients coming from practically every section of the state. The hospital must depend very largely on offerings from the churches and Sunday Schools to care for these hundreds and hundreds of patients who can not pay for treatment.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the State, in addition to their cash contributions, have sent to the hospital during the first six months of this year 3,635 articles of linen. These are much needed and much appreciated.

Mother's Day has been designated by the denomination as "Hospital Day". If only all churches would put on a well-planned Mothers' Day program, enough money could be provided to amply care for this vast host of God's poor who can not provide this service for themselves.

This work is a part of the program that Jesus carried on. What part will we have in it.

OLD MINISTERS' RELIEF

Through the Relief and Annuity Board the denomination is trying to provide support for the old ministers. Since this Board was organzed in 1918 it has accumulated about $4,250,000. It has paid in relief and annuity benefits $2,250,000. It is rendering benefits through the following departments:

Relief, Annuity, Service Annuity, Savings Annuity, Special Annuity, and Gifts Annuity.

Through the Social Security Act the goverment has entered the same field of service to the citizens of the United States. Shall we quit the field of service because the goverment has gone in it? There are some reasons why we should not.

First, it is Christian Service to our beloved brethren.

Second, not all retired ministers will be elligible to benefits from the government.

Third, most ministers will prefer to continue to live in the love and fellowship of their brethren.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. Henderson, Committee.

RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, we the Atlantic Baptist Association in a session at Davis, N. C. with 33 churches in our membership desire to cooperate with other Baptist Churches and Associations in the State; whereas, many of our churches are without Pastors in the State and many Pastors without churches; and whereas, we believe it necessary to take some steps in our Association whereby our local Churches may be more cautious in the Ordination of men to the ministry with no church in view:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED

FIRST, That this association appoint a standing council consisting of all Pastors in the association whose duty it will be to sit in session as occasion may demand and pass upon the qualifications, advantages and possibilities for Pastoral Work of any may desiring Ordination. Provided, said council is invited to do so by the local church of which applicant is a member.

LORD'S ACRE PLAN AND STEWARDSHIP

What is Lord's Acre Plan?

Planting, cultivatng and harvestng for the Lord.

1. It is not a new plan — Gen. — To give first fruits to God. 34:26.
2. For church and Sunday School to plant for the Lord. Eggs, Chickens, Turkeys, Cotton, etc.
3. This pledge is credited on thechurch pledge — Church expenses, Cooperative Program, Benevolence and Christian Education.
4. Its success:

1930 — 6 churches in North Carolina, now 200 in 27 counties. 27 States and in foreign countries.

Representing 9 denominations in North Carolina.

Reasons for Lord's Acre Plan:

1. For church support — most needy.
2. Develops Christian Character.

Some reasons Rev. Clarke, Presbyterian gives:

1. Overflow God's ctore house.
2. Develops each member of the church and Sunday School.
3. Gives God first place — not last, College left over..
4. Promotes daily meditation.
5. Trains old and young.
6. Cultivates love between members and Pastor.
7. Greatly increases interest and develops leaders.
8. Benefits landlords and tenants.
9. Convinces more members the need of pledging to the Lord.

Will it work? Yes.

WE MUST WORK IT!

Plant, Cultivate, Harvest, for our Lord. Plan harvest day.

STEWARDSHIP (Discipleship)

Old and New Testament teaching.

Ownership — God. Stewardship — Human.

"In Beginning God Created".

5 times God says what we must do!:

Have dominion—Replenish, never to own. Subdue—dress and keep garden.

God — Father. Son.

1. Created. 2. Redeemed. 3. Maintained.

"Thou art mine"! Ownership.

Jacob and God.

1. Be with me.
2. Keep me O' God.
3. To clothe and feed him.
4. Bring me back home inpeace.

"So that I come again to my fathers house in peace."

"It is more blessed to give than to receive". Acts 20:35

Strictly Paul.

These words — Christian by the sea.

Women gave not 75 but 4000.00 dormitory for 40 Japanese boys. Give of your best to the Master. Give of the strength of your youth.

TEMPERANCE AND MORALS

Temperance and morals are closely associated. The great scientists of our day say that strong dring weakens the mind and body. A weakened mind in a weakened body results in lowered moral standards; therefore, in order to maintain the highest moral standards we must be temperate in all things, which also means total abstinence from that which is evil.

Strong drink is an evil, which should be avoided altogether.

Since repeal of the 18th amendment, some of our large cities have reported an increase of 479 per cent in arrest of drunken drivers which is only an illustration of the results of "wide open" liquor.

What can we do about it?

We can

1. Vote against legalization of liquors, and all other vices.
2. Emphasize temperance teaching and preaching,.
3. Practice total abstinence.
4. Fight the law violators and evil forces prayerfully and persistently.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The world's greatest teacher, Jesus Christ, placed teaching the gospel next to preaching the gospel. He said "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." It is in obedience to his command that the churches maintain the Bible teaching agency, the Sunday School.

We believe the Sunday School is "by divine providence in our hands an institution with a wonderful history, magnificent achievments and untold possibilities." The army of thirty-three millions of members and three and a half million teachers and officers is the greatest army of religious workers in the world. Yet in America only one person in four is in Sunday School. Our observations and experiences lead us to conclude that one person in four is the average for our association. Let us try to raise our average this year.

The work of the Sunday school is Christian Education; and its duty is to teach people the truth. Jesus said "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." It has as its objective the leading of the lost to Jesus Christ, to help Christians to acquire valuable knowledge, develop right attitudes, make right choices, live the abundant life, develop Christian character and to secure an effective church membership committeed to the whole program of Christ for the whole world.

In presenting this report we urge renewed acceptance by the churches of the Sunday school as an instrument in the hands of Christian people to magnify preaching, to promote preaching attendance, enlist and train more people in teaching the Bible, keep Bible teaching under church control,magnify and emphasize the use of the Bible, secure universal study of the Bible, teach Baptist doctrines, win the lost for Christ, teach Missions, train and enlist in Missionary practice.

Respectfully submitted,
Grayden M. Paul, Committee.

MINUTES OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Auxiliary to the Atlantic Baptist Association

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union was called to order by the Superintendent, Mrs. J. L. Hodges, in the Pollocksville Baptist Church, Thursday, October 24th, 1935, at 10:00 A. M.

The session opened with prayer by Rev. J. W. Morgan of Beaufort. Mrs. W. H. Ringgold of Pollocksville led in devotional, using third chapter of Malachi as the scripture lesson.

Mrs. M. L. Mintz led in prayer after which the congregation sang, with Miss White at the jiano, "Take the Name of Jesus With You."

Mrs. J. F. Stegall, wife of the pastor at Pollocksville, gave the address of welcome in a sincere, cordial spirit and Mrs. J. W. Morgan of Beaufort responded in her usual gracious manner.

Recognition of visitors and pastors was next in order, after which a quartet—Mesdames Holmes, Davis, Coward and Carney all of New Bern—sang, "O, My Soul."

Reports were made by Group Leaders as follows:

Group 1—Mrs. J. S. Hudson of Pollocksville

Group 2—Mrs. L. B. Daniel, New Bern.

Group 3—Mrs. D. R. Lewis, Marshallberg.

Duet—Mesdames Holmes and Carney.

Short verbal reports were given by the delegates from twelve churches, of the "status quo" of the organization. All the reports were encouraging.

Superintendent's report was heard.

Solo by Mrs. R. W. Davis.

The report of the Personal Service chairman, Mrs. Mintz, was brought by Mrs. L. B. Daniel.

Mission Study Chairman, Mrs. J. P. Harris, brought an interesting report of that work and a helpful discussion on methods.

Hymn—"To the Work"—was sung by the congregation.

An inspiring address by Rev. Joseph L. Hodges, Jr., was enjoyed by all. His subject, "The Task and Youth," was eminently opportune. He flung out the challenge to parents for re-establishment of family altars; Christian teachers; Christian recreation and Christian Colleges; expressing his belief that, if this program is followed to an inevitably successful end, the young people of this generation would revolutionize our beloved Eastern North Carolina and set such standards of thought and living as would save our youth, honor our Christ, and redeem our nation.

The young minister made a sincere appeal to every one present for an up-to-the-minute, consecrated, progressive, wholehearted life for Christ and His kingdom.

This was followed by a touching prayer.

The various committees were named by the Secretary, Mrs. U. E. Swann. The session adjourned for luncheon; served bountifully by the hostess churches, Pollocksville and Piney Grove.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The devotional was led by Mrs. M. L. Mintz who used the 23rd Psalm. Hymn— "Fling Out the Banner." Prayer by Mrs.. Stegall.

An interesting talk on Royal Ambassador work was made by the R. A. chairman, Mrs. R. T. Willis, Jr., of Oriental.

Mrs. Stegall presented the plan to erect a marker at the grave of Blanche Barrus. The Union voted to do this and Mrs. U. E. Swann, Mrs. J. F. Stegall, Mrs. J. S. Hudson and Mrs. J. L. Hodges were named as the standing committee; Mrs. Hudson to receive the funds.

The establishment of a $500.00 scholarship was adopted.

a. Each group to accept stated amount of this;
b. Each group have separate treasurer for this fund;
c. A concerted effort to get a contribution from each member;
d. A report sent each quarter to Associational Superintendent of all funds.

Margaret Fund student was selected to be remembered at Christmas.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe, by the spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into this Covenant with one another as one body in Christ. We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, disscipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and spread of the Gospel throughout all nations. We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, back-biting and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating dirnks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the Kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love, to remember each other in prayer, to aid each other in sickness and distress, to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech, to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and principles of God's Word.

REPORTS

1. REPORT ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

Reading religious literature broadens, deepens, and develops the spirituality of the reader, but most of the literature we see in homes is certainly not religious, if not vicious.

The Bible ranks first in religious literature, and is the background, backbone, and life of all other religious literature worthy of the name.

We recommend (1) that our churches establish libraries where religious and other wholesome books, magazines, and papers shall be available for use. (2) That the Biblical Recorder, Chirty and Children, Home and Foreign Fields, Woman's Missionary Union, Sunday School and Baptist Training Union publications be given wider distribution and more careful reading in our association.

Respectfully Submitted,
MRS. J. F. STEGALL, Chm.

2. ORPHANAGE REPORT

Fifty one years ago the Baptist of North Carolina began the work of fathering the fatherless children. At that time their greatest assets were unfailing faith, but under the wise management of the four great leaders, and with the fine cooperation of all those fine Christian men and women who have had connections with the institution, it has grown until it now can boast of assets valued at more than one million dollars.

The present management is under the supervision of Mr. I. G. Greer General Superintendent, and Mr. R. D. Covington treasurer, and with their many co-workers cooperating in a fine Christian spirit the work is going forward in a great way.

The greatest care is taken in receiving children into the home. No child is received until an investigation is made, and if satisfactory arrangements can be made the child is left with its mother. But if for any cause it is thought that it is best for the child to be taken into the home it is taken. In that way those most deserving are admitted.

There are now more than six hundred being aided by the Orphanage. Some of these are with their mothers but receiving help through the mothers' aid. The large majority of these are in the two homes, at Thomasville and Kinston. These boys and girls are taught to work so that when they leave the home they can go out equipped sufficient to make a livelihood without becoming a burden on any one.

The management has had to face two very embarrassing situations for a long time. First, It has been a human impossibility for just one worker to investigate the many applications with any regularity, but this situation has been relieved somewhat recently by securing the help of Miss Mary Ella McCredie to assist in this very important work. Second, From fifty to one hundred applications come in every month and the manager has to say no, because of lack of room.

The cost in caring for this large number runs into the thousands; about one hundred and forty thousand a year, and the only method we have of raising this money is one Sunday's offering from the Sunday school per month and a thank offering around Thanksgiving. This has kept the wolf from the door for the past few years, but not much progress could be made. Personally I can not see why any Sunday School would not enjoy sending one offering a month to these children, but out of our twenty four hundred Sunday Schools, only about three hundred send in their once a month's offering regularly.

Will you representatives of your churches go back home and see that your Sunday School does this for the cause of humanity, and the kingdom of Christ? Let us put the Atlantic Association on top this next year.

Humbly submitted,

W. B. SPRINKLE, Committee.

3. REPORT ON THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

I. State Missions:

We, as Baptists, believe the Missionary urge is fundamental.

We rejoice to state that State Missions came to close of 1934 not only with no debt, but with a credit balance of $5,500. This was made possible by a reduced budget and increase in gifts.

Our work goes forward with one General Missionary and two assistants, with 70 Missionary Pastors serving in over 150 churches.

Some results of our work are: 1935

6,482 Sermons Preached.

164 Revivals.

1,390 Conversions.

We as N. C. Baptist contribute to Pastoral Assistance, Church Building Aid, Indian Work, Negro Work, In Oteen Mission, Pastors' Schools and Conferences, Pastors' Library, Sunday Schools and B. T. U. Work.

II. Home Missions:

We as Baptist believe in Evangelizing the Home-base.

During the past year 27 new missionaries have been appointed.

679 Churches served (12,000 S. S. Pupils).

3,822 Conversions.

We go out to witness as Home task to work among the Foreigners in our Land: Also to large masses of our own people in crowded city-centers; In Hospitals and Sanatoriums; In the Mountain sections; To Indians, Negroes and Mexicans in Arizona.

We need to take the Teachings of Jesus Christ seriously and to make a practical application of His Will in this great task.

III. Foreign Missions:

Into the Fabric of our work in 1935 have been woven joys and sorrows, successes and seeming failures; but ever, as we have labored among the tangled threads we have been conscious of the presence of the Master Weaver and have felt the power of His guiding hand.

We, as Baptist go into 15 Foreign Countries serving with 400 fine men and women as God's Servants.

91 years ago our Fathers met in Augusta, Ga. and launched the Foreign Missions enterprise of Southern Baptist. Through these years God has led us in a marvelous way.

The latest aim is to keep in close contact with the actual needs on the Field by periodic visit of our Secretary and Co-laborers to the various Fields.

We need to weave into the Fabric of our youth an education that is truly missionary.

Most of our work is done under a paralyzing debt. Debt means retreat and the volunteers cannot be sent out. We plan to pay the remainder of our debt of ($150,000) by the close of the year 1938.

We believe the missionary urge is just as imperative as the command of our Lord is to Baptize the believer; so may we go out with his message to all nations.

Respectfully submitted,
T. N. Cooper

4. BAPTIST TRAINING UNION

The B. T. U. is one of the greatest organizations of our church. It is the church striving to train its members. This is the main purpose of every B. T. U. We learn by doing and we become efficient by practicing. Inefficiency is a great burden and weakness to any organization, and if we believe this, we know that a band of ignorant weak christians can never accomplish great things in the Lord's vineyard. What has any church to look forward to if it is not planting in young lives a willingness and the ability to take over the affairs of the church?

The boys and girls in the B. T. U. are learning what real church membership means. They have to be unselfish because the B. T. U. lives to die. The church depends on workers trained in this Union and any church will be crippled without an active B. T. U. The Baptist young people cannot be called just an organization. A story is told of one who said he compared his organization to an apple. You can count the seeds in an apple, but you cannot count the apples in a seed. You can never tell what will come out of the B. T. U.

There is no time in all your life that is so important as in the days of your youth. It is so much easier to resist the devil if you are trained to be of real service to God.

Every year brings forth greater interest in B. T. U. work within our Atlantic Association. We trust that every church in our association that is not actively engaged in this work will go home and organize.

Study to show thyself approved unto God a workman that needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." 2 Tim 2:15.

Surely there is no one more pitiful than an ignorant Christian. We will be ashamed if we fail to learn God's Book and God's Plan for his message to be spread to the uttermost part of the world.

Respectfully Submitted,
MRS. L. B. DANIEL.

5. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Christian Education from our viewpoint is in reach of everyone, and any uninformed Baptist is left without any excuse. All that is required is a desire and enough inward urge to get up and try; thus I will name a few of our educational factors in our program of work:

1. The Sunday School, the teaching agency of the church, which deals with all from the cradle to the grave.

2. The B. T. U., the training service of the church, taking disciples and training them for discipleship.

3. The W. M. U. teaching missions through its five departments and what it means to be a disciple in deed and in truth.

4. The Biblical Recorder, Charity and Children, Home and Foreign Fields, and other religious literature should be in every Baptist home and read with care and boosted by all.

5. Our five schools, and they stand second to none, these schools founded and fostered by our own fathers stand out as the contribution of Baptists to the education of the world. In this list of schools are three senior colleges, Wake Forest, Meredith, and Chowan; two junior colleges, Campbell and Mars Hill. These five schools have broadened until they have covered the globe.

We commend all of these institutions to our people and ask that we continue our support both financial and through patronage.

M. L. MINTZ, Committee.

6. SOCIAL SERVICE

We believe that the Gospel of Christ has a twofold concern, one is the love of God as mediated through Christ, and the other is the love of man as revealed by Christ. The Christian experience is atonimous. It stands in its own individual right. It is also social. It lays obligations on individual Christians to act in a specified Christian manner.

Time and space only permits me to mention some of these social obligations resting on the Christian today. Formerly this report has dealt with hospital work and ministerial relief. These we will not forget. We desire to add a larger field of thought, which for convenience are listed numerically.

1. Our continued obligation to fight the immoralities in the moving picture industry and other commercial amusements. Tremendous strides have been made but we must not let up.

2. The care and readjustment of the 6,000 of our citizens that are coming out of our penal Institutions annually to make or find a place in society. Surely there is a Christian challenge there.

3. The failure of a large percentage of our people to value human life as exemplified in the reckless slaughter on our State Highways.

4. Our failure to magnify the sanctity of the home and marriage relation as seen in the ever growing divorce evil.

5. A vigilant fight for continued separation of church and state, that we may be able to keep unscrupulous politicians and fanatics from using the church to buy themselves into office and promote political propaganda.

We must not allow anything to dispute or falsify our independent experience of Christ in our relation to others. At the same time, we must employ the spiritual force of love, mutual aid and co-operative service, to the end that our common life shall be sanctified and enriched by the power of divine grace.

7. W. M. U. REPORT—1936

As we come for the seventh session of the Atlantic W. M. U., we remember that in the scriptures, seven is the perfect number. We wish that this years work was perfect: perfect in motive, perfect in spirit, perfect in effort, perfect in faith. Then the results would be perfect in our Father's sight. But it is far from perfect tho we are grateful for the measure of improvement seen in many phases of the work. There has been a steady increase in contributions for the past five years, advancing from a little over $1200.00 to more than $2500.00 (1936). Of course the money part of the work is the smallest part, but it gives some idea as to the growth. "The years write their records on men's hearts, as they do on trees; inner circles of growth which no eye can see." We feel that the hearts of our women have grown in inner circles of love and sympathy and service, these past years, as much or more than the gifts have grown. May each year again add an inner circle of growth to our hearts; may our minds grow in breadth and depth, our efforts grow in strength and our motives in purity; and above all may we grow in the grace of our Lord and Saviour, coming to know Him more and more each day, in the fellowship of His presence.

"Self satisfaction is deadly to the soul." So we take courage as we recall the many failures all along the way—following the advice of one who so expressively says, "Upon the wreck of thy yesterday, design thy structure of tomorrow. Lay strong corner stones of purpose and prepare great blocks of wisdom, cut from past despair. Shape mighty pillars of resolve, to set deep in the tear-wet mortar of regret. Believe in God—in thine own self believe; and all thou hast hoped for, thou shalt achieve." Faith in God has carried us over many difficulties and thru many dark ways. We remember that the work is His work; the plan, His plan and after doing, at His command, our dead level best, we leave it all to Him, knowing His is the power to bring all our efforts to full fruition.

More emphasis has been placed on the work among and with our young people this past year. Mrs. H. M. Hines, our splendid Associational Director has done much along this line. A good many young peoples' societies have been organized, and others revived, renovated and re-organized. We regret to report that some have disbanded. It is almost always true that when a church does not have the young peoples societies, it is because the W. M. S. fails to provide adequate leadership, cooperation, material or interest in the work and in her young people. There lies all around us in the Atlantic Association enough undiscovered and undeveloped talent and force in our young people to carry out effectively every phase of church work, and to make this the out-standing Association in the state. "Awake Thou that Sleepeth."—Eph. 5:14.16.

There has been a decided step forward in Mission Study this past year under the leadership of Mrs. J. P. Harris. More classes and more serious work has been done. This will bear fruit in coming days. Mission study is the romance of our W. M. U. plan of work. There are special books, suitable for every type and sort of mission society. Each society is asked to study at least two books each year.

Organized Personal Service has had a valiant advocate in our Associational leader, Mrs. M. L. Mintz. And she has 'stirred up the gift within us' by her untiring efforts to keep ever before us, this the very heart of our missionary enterprise. She has kept in touch with the work and her heart aglow with zeal to win the world to Christ; teaching us by precept and example that, "He that is wise, winneth souls."

The three Group Leaders have done splendid work also and the Group meetings are proving a blessing indeed to the work.

Having the Standard of Excellence raised this year makes it a bit more difficult of attainment. So far, no society has met every requirement but we hope that many will, by the time the annual reports come in.

Much local work has been done by the societies, all of which is fine and necessary in our church life, but it isn't counted on our W. M. U. reports in detail.

It is a matter of great regret to us that the funds for the Atlantic Associational Scholarship, has been so woefully neglected. We trust the Group Leaders and the Presidents of the societies are going to get right behind this, making possible the offering to some boy or girl in the Atlantic Association the privilege of a year at college.

The Blanch Barrus memorial fund has been met—the family took responsibility for most of this amount—and a marker will soon be put to her grave in Pollocksville.

We are especially grateful for the increased number of societies that observed the special seasons of prayer, as outlined by our S. B. C. for State, Home and Foreign Missions. Each is a time of refreshing in the Lord, if we will avail ourselves of this blessing of concerted, concentrated, continued prayer to God. The free programs for these three weeks of prayer, are interesting and helpful; they are sent to each President and Leader from the W. M. U. office in Raleigh, also a Year Book, which is invaluable to the user.

Stewardship is gaining its place in the hearts of our women, slowly but surely. We are coming to realize, "The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof". That we are 'handlers of His funds', repositories for His treasures'. The increased number of tithers attests to increase of our knowledge of, and interest in Stewardship of money. May we soon learn stewardship of life. The Psalmist said "Thy word have I hid in my heart". If we hide God's word in our hearts, it will manifest itself thru us, in willing sacrifice, happy, service and faithful devotion to Jesus Christ. We will do His will, as He said to us "Go ye, unto all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

As your Superintendent I humbly recommend to the Atlantic Association the following aims for the year 1937:

1. That we strive to get an active W. M. S. in every church of the association and at least one young peoples organization.
2. That we promote the new methods of stewardship education.
3. That each society try diligently to attain every point on the Standard of Excellence.
4. That we complete the Atlantic Association Scholarship fund.
5. That Bible study form a larger part of each program.
6. That individual prayer-life be deepened and broadened.
7. That every member of every society make an honest, faithful effort to win one soul to Christ.
8. That we take as our watchword, the verse selected by the W. M. U., of S. B. C, Zech. 4-6 and add also Col. 1-10 "To walk worthily of the Lord—bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God."

There has been reports at least one time this year, from 20 W. M. S., 2 new, total 22; 7 Y. W. A., 1 new, total 8; 9 G. A., 2 new, total 11; 4 R. A., total 4; 11 Sun Beams, 1 new, total 12.

MRS. J. L. HODGES, Supt.

8. STEWARDSHIP AND GODS ACRE PLAN

The doctrine of stewardship is like a golden thread that sews and binds the whole of Christian living. God has made us in His own image and has committed to us a life to live here on earth, not selfishly but to the honor and glory of His name. Therefore we are stewards of life. We are not our own we are bought with a price, the precious blood of Jesus. We are the gift of God to Jesus and should live to honor Him.

We are stewards of time: God has given us time in which to serve Him, with the injunction that one-seventh of our time belongs to Him. Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy. So we are responsible to God for the way we use our time.

We are stewards of talents: God wants His work on earth done by you and me, therefore He has endowed us with powers or talents capable of doing it. Shall we hinder the progress of Gods kingdom by failing to recognize that we are stewards of talents? How many of us are willing to say, and say it earnestly; "Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee."

We are also stewards of wealth: All wealth belongs to God. He has made us stewards of His wealth, and has instructed us as to how to use it. It is clearly taught in both the Old and New Testaments that we are to give a tithe and an offering to the Lord and that it is to be brought into the store house, or the church, on the first day of the week. It is not to be handed out as we may choose.

As the farmer has less money to contribute to the Lord during the year than the man who gets a salary, Gods acre plan has been devised to supplement his gifts. This plan simply means that the farmer sets apart an acre on his farm which he will plant, work, gather and give it to the Lord. The same thing may be applied to other things that are raised on the farm such as cattle, poultry and etc. These are all to be gathered and sold at harvest day gathering usually at the church and the proceeds go to the church for kingdom service. Obedience to this teaching of our Lord would solve all our financial problems and would send Missionaries with the gospel of Jesus Christ to all parts of the world.

Respectfully Submitted,

R. A. THOMPSON, for the committee.

9. TEMPERANCE AND MORALS

Since the repeal of the 18th Amendment we have only to look about us to see more of the evil and sad results of strong drink.

It has made our highways more dangerous for travel.

Our towns and country places of business are feared because of the disrespect and disregard for law and decency.

If we desire to build up morals we must get back to temperance, as it was needed and taught in Bible time. Few topics discussed in the Bible are described with more vivid phrases than the evil of strong drink.

The 23rd Proverb brings before us a picture of what strong drink leads to.

Possibly the hardest stroke the State has ever dealt is the contention that strong drink is an economic loss. How can any good come from its revenues, when its use brings woes, sorrows, and contention?

The church in the light of God's Word has the right to declare that strong drink is a moral ruin. So let us as leaders and teachers in our organized work, speak of the evil of strong drink every opportunity we have. And ask our pastors to speak of its evil often from pulpits.

Let us as an Association be found condemning this evil so long as we live.

Respectfully Submitted,

J. LEROY HENDERSON.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe, by the spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into this Covenant with one another as one body in Christ. We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and spread of the Gospel throughout all nations. We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, back biting and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the Kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love, to remember each other in prayer, to aid each other in sickness and distress, to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech, to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and principles of God's Work.

Report on Religious Literature—Vernal Canady, Piney Grove (Onslow).

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

We, your Committee, believe the Bible ranks first in all religious literature. And, that if our people would adopt the habit of daily Bible reading it would solve all of our problems. Therefore, we recommend that our pastors make a special appeal to their Churches to adopt daily Bible reading.

2. We believe our people should be informed, and in order to do this effectively they must read our Baptist papers, and since the Bible is the text book of all other Religious Literature.

We therefore insist that our people subscribe to and read our Baptist Literature. By so doing you will lighten the burdens of those who are carrying on the great program. It is appalling that out of four hundred and fifty thousand Baptists in North Carolina, only thirteen thousand, four hundred fifty of them subscribe to the Biblical Recorder.

Respectfully submitted,

V. N. CANADY, Committee.

Motion to adopt.

Mr. Canady spoke to report.

Rev. J. M. Page spoke representing the Biblical Recorder.

Report adopted.

8. Report on Orphanage by H. B. Dillahunt, Pollocksville.

REPORT ON ORPHANAGE

It is with joy and gratitude that we bring the annual report of the Baptist Orphanage to you after fifty-two years of loving service rendered to the fatherless children. It would indeed be a thrilling story if we had time to relate all the facts.

We have two homes for these children, at Thomasville and Kinston. Mr. I. G. Greer is general Supt. at Thomasville and J. C. Hough at Kinston. There are many cared for at home with their mothers.

These boys and girls are well trained for life's work. The boys help with the farming, dairying, the raising of poultry, do their own laundry and shoe repairing. The girls have their household duties and assist in caring for the smaller children. The aim of the orphanage is to make Christians and better citizens of the children.

Let me plead with you in Christ's name that you do your best, and remember that by your gifts these innocent lives will be nurtured and strengthened. Let us not forget as we come to the Thanksgiving season that there are more than six hundred children depending on us. Let us not fail them.

Respectfully submitted,

H. B. DILLAHUNT.

Motion to adopt.

Rev. J. C. Hough was introduced by Mr. Dillahunt. Mr. Hough introduced Dr. Spilman, who made announcements concerning the building of a library at the Kennedy Home.

Mr. Herman Canady was introduced and spoke about the progress of the Kennedy Home, Sunday ball games and Liquor stores were condemned as a menace.

Miss Lucy Daughty was introduced. She spoke concerning the home life of the children at the Home.

Mr. Hough brought greetings from the children of the Home, and spoke of the general spiritual value, and how it may be maintained. When a child comes to an institution, the physical and spiritual value are stressed. The regeneration; faith in Christ, most valuable.

Report adopted.

16. Report on Missions was read by Rev. J. L. Hodges.

REPORT ON MISSIONS

Our Missions work is divided into three departments; namely, State, Home and Foreign. This seems to accord logically with the commission given by Jesus; to witness unto Him in Jerusalem and all Judea, in Samaria and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

In State missions we seek to follow the example of our Lord, in that "The poor have the Gospel preached to them." This department of our work makes it possible for weak churches to have pastors of training and efficiency and who are in personal contact with dynamic leadership. Men who have breathed the atmosphere of culture and theological training, who are familiar with the workings and activity of our denomination.

The State Mission Board aids also in building churches in strategic centers; in teacher-training and young peoples work and in evangelizing both the Indians and Negroes of our state.

HOME MISSIONS

By and thru this agency, we operate in the name of Christ on a Southwide scale; doing really a world-wide work by preaching Christ to the foreigners of our land, many of whom return to their native land, carrying the story of the cross with them. Through Home Missions we seek also to bring Christ to the Indians, the Negroes, and under-privileged; also to the people of Cuba and Panama. The H. M. B. renders medical aid to great numbers; and maintains a department of evangelism unequaled by any other similar group in the world. The Board employs 327 missionaries now working in 850 stations. 35 of these missionaries were added during the past convention year. 2137 were baptized, and there were 3,633 professions. For the past 3 1-2 years no money has been borrowed for Home Mission work, and during the past year $108,313.00 was paid on the debt.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Thru this department of our work, Southern Baptists are sending the Gospel to the ends of the earth. For this high purpose, the F. M. B. had in 1927 a total of 544 missionaries enrolled. Since January, 1933, the board has appointed 90 new missionaries and re-appointed 28, making a total of 118 replacements.

In April, 1937, there were 56 emeritus missionaries on pensions and 415 missionaries in active service.

The F. M. B. has work in sixteen foreign countries. In these lands, however, there are 63 missionaries who are 60 years old and over. This fact speaks eloquently of needed recruits.

Never in the history of foreign missions has prayer been needed more than at this time. In war-torn China our missionaries face grave and imimnent danger. But they face it with a heroism worthy of the name they bear, for which we thank God and take courage.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. HODGES.

Discipleship the task of a Christian. A disciple must meet

23. Report on B. T. U., by Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle, Marshalberg.

B. T. U. REPORT

The B. T. U. of the Atlantic Association held its annual meeting with the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Sunday June 20. This was reported as the most interesting meeting ever held in this association; the topic used was "Greatness Through Service."

Miss Mary Mull, Morganton, N. C., employed by the State Mission Board, conducted a study course in methods at the Davis Baptist Church during June. Two classes were held resulting in the organization of two new unions and presenting 23 awards.

The Master's Baptist Training Camps found in our midst should be awakened and strengthened before 3835 so-called Christian soldiers of this regiment come to the stage of permanent unenlistment; thus never trained to use those God-given talents and forced to enter that eternal realm empty-handed. Viewing facts, though truly grateful for each individual effort during the past year, we must report a challenging situation for increased zeal. While some have increased in numbers others have decreased, leaving an average of one union less than we had last year. The enrollment of 20 unions is 399 with an average of 287 to be compared with this large number of members on our church rolls.

Are we satisfied? Let's accept the challenge.

Humbly submitted,

MRS. W. B. SPRINKLE.

Mrs. J. F. Stegall told something about the training in B. T. U.

Mrs. J. L. Hodges, New Bern Tabernacle, told about talent in the Intermediate Union. It is a training union rather than a display exhibit.

Rev. R. A. Thompson, New Bern First, told about their work at New Bern. One of the greatest needs is more study course work and getting older people interested in the B. T. U. work.

Mrs. Sprinkle made a very interesting discussion on B. T. U. work.

30. Social Service Report read by Rev. W. B. Sprinkle in absence of Rev. J. W. Morgan, Beaufort.

SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT

Perhaps this is the greatest question that faces us today, but we have this to encourage us; the movies are showing better and cleaner pictures, and mob violence is on the decline, yet there is much to discourage.

The home life is being destroyed by the easy way of getting a divorce. People are losing all sense of the sacredness of marriage. Every nation of note is crying "Peace, peace," but are preparing to kill. Drinking is increasing at the most rapid rate in our country's history. Death and destruction are following. Crime is in the spotlight. In general there is a let down in respect for law and order. And gambling is on the increase everywhere.

God has committed to the saints the only cure for sin. (Jude 3 Rom. 1:16). The gospel is the only cure, and when we leave that it makes no difference how hard we work to correct these evils by law we are going to be defeated. Sin cannot be corrected from outward force, but must be cured by an inward transformation. Therefore let us, as did Habakkuk, get back to our task and see what God will answer us, (2:1).

So then let us as Christians, First take up the practice of Jesus in dealing with sinful men. Love them sincerely, pray for them earnestly and work with them unceasingly.

Second, let us spend more time, and give more thought to the development of character in our children, by setting before them the right example, and protecting them from the influence that has a tendency toward evil, and providing for them the things that will contribute to character.

Humbly submitted,

W. B. SPRINKLE.

31. Report on Temperance and Morals. J. B. Lovelace, New Bern First, read report.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE AND MORALS

The repeal of the 18th amendment has not decreased drunkenness or bootlegging, but on the other hand in our own state, drunkenness has increased 50 and 70 per cent. Also drunken drivers on the highway have multiplied alarmingly, for where we encountered two before the repeal there are now three. Our jailor in New Bern states that his records show that drunkenness and drunken driving have increased 50 per cent since the A. B. C. stores have been opened, and this from the ages of 15 to 25. Are we of the Atlantic Association going to stand by and see the youth, the flower of the land, be destroyed by this demon alcohol? Are we satisfied with the repeal?

Here are a few things that the repeal has done for North Carolina and the United States:

It has increased the Keeley Institute patients 55 per cent.

Enrollment at National institutions for alcoholic diseases has broken all previous records since repeal.

Since repeal arrests for drunken drivers have increased in Washington 100 per cent; Los Angeles 479 per cent; Cincinnati 380 per cent; Philadelphia 300 per cent; Danville, Virginia 285 per cent.

In Boston, Mass., drunken women increased 75 per cent in 3 months after repeal.

After repeal, deaths from auto wrecks increased 77 per cent in the United States.

The year before legalized beer in Chicago, auto deaths decreased 162. The year following the repeal auto deaths increased 195.

Since repeal, bootleggers with large plants are making products and putting them out under labels with counterfeit stamp tax seals.

THE NATION IS AFTER THE REPEAL A BOOTLEGGER'S PARADISE.

It is now costing $632,000 per year more to fight bootlegging since the repeal than the average cost of enforcing the 18th Amendment.

Arrests for drunken drivers after repeal, increased 1,300 per cent in three months comparison in Rochester, N. Y.

Deaths from auto wrecks increased 500 per cent in Idaho since repeal.

Governor Hoey has well said that liquor is public enemy No. 1 for is it not dragging the youth of our land, both boys and girls, down in the muck and mire of sin and shame. With liquor on every hand, here, there and everywhere, it reaches out and takes its toll from the young and old, big and little, black and white, and drags them into its capacious maw.

Strong drink has caused and is causing at this time, both directly and indirectly more poverty, more human misery, more moral debauchery, more crime and more deaths than any other enemy of man.

Only a few days ago within the confines of our Association a drunken father committed the most appalling crime upon his 17-year old daughter. Yet, there are ministers who will not preach against liquor; there are Church members who drink liquor; and there are Deacons, and church leaders who vote for liquor measures and liquor men.

Let us as followers of the lowly Nazarene, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, awake and put on the whole armor of GOD and drive this demon from our land.

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. LOVELACE.

Rev. J. M. Page, Raleigh, spoke to Social Service and Temperance and Morals.

One county wet vote was stopped by a county-wide prayer group. Governor Hoey said, "Drink is public enemy No. 1." He who lines up with liquor is no Christian. Wake County boosted a tax reduction, but when the test came taxes were higher. Mr. Page urged that people get on their knees and find out what God wants done and do it. Tragedies told of some who have tried to deal in liquor and serve God. The no harm dram drinker usually comes to tragedy.

Report adopted.

32. Motion of J. P. Harris that Social Service and Temperance and Morals be combined, motion overruled.

33. W. M. U. Report, read by Mrs. L. B. Daniels, New Bern First, in absence of Mrs. J. C. Bell, Maysville.

W. M. U. REPORT

With joy and gratitude in my heart I bring the report from the women of the Atlantic Association. Our W. M. U. organizations that are functioning have shown a beautiful spirit of co-operation. The task has been new and hard for me, but the faith and encouragement of my co-laborers has been wonderful.

All reporting missionary societies and young peoples' organizations have done well, though some have excelled in their labors. We have 15 W. M. S., 4 Y. W. A., 7 G. A's., 2. R. A's., and 7 Sunbeams. A total of 35 organizations. Morehead City leads in number of societies, being the only Grade A Union in the Association. New Bern First and Pollocksville reached the standard of excellence. There are seventeen churches in the Association that do not report any organizations. This is a challenge to every pastor and any representative here to return to his church and encourage his people to organize a W. M. U.

Mission Study has greatly decreased. There have been only 16 classes held during the year. We have failed to study, to show ourselves approved of God. Surely we can't be as interested in missions as we could if we knew more. Surely there have been organizations that have studied our mission study books and have failed to report to our own chairman, Mrs. W. G. Dixon, of Oriental.

Mrs. M. L. Davis, of Beaufort, reports that all organized societies are engaged in directed personal service. Our women with a desire to please the Master have ministered to the sick, the poor, the broken-hearted, to those in prison and to the unsaved.

Our aim during the past year has been to organize more young people that they might serve God. If we fail to train up our children in the way that they should go, what can we look forward to? In August, under the direction of Mrs. W. T. Sanderlin, our young people had a rally in the First Church in New Bern. Miss Mary Currin State Young People's leader, and Mrs. Gordon Maddrey, Divisional Young People's leader, were there and made inspirational talks. The young people are our greatest challenge and I trust we can make a decided increase in organizations during the next year.

The Blanche Barrus marker was placed at her grave by her brother and the amount of money donated was given by the church as they thought best. Some was sent to foreign missions, her work; and some to the Blanche Barrus Memorial building in Winston-Salem.

Our committee for the Atlantic Association scholarship fund failed to report any progress. It seems that a wonderful possibility has been neglected.

Last year we gave to the Co-operative Program $2,485.73. Our aim this year is to increase this 5 per cent and I believe we will reach this aim.

Finally, fellow Christians, I admit that the report is not what it should be, but with a greater desire to please God, I am sure that our Associational W. M. U. work will go forward. May God help us to go forward and spread the gospel to the uttermost parts of the world.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. B. DANIEL.

Mrs. Daniels spoke to the report.

Bro. Lovell asked what have the men folk done? If men would do as women are doing, churches would be much better off.

Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle spoke concerning Young Peoples' work, and urged people to go back home and teach young people about Christ.

Mrs. J. L. Hodges told of the time when men really opposed women's work, and asked the co-operation of men in the woman's work.

Rev. J. L. Hodges suggested that we get men into program of missionary meetings, that they have more to do than give money.

Report adopted.

34. Christian Education report read by Rev. A. P. Stephens, Morehead City.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT

Southern Baptists are proud of their educational institutions. These Colleges, Universities and Seminaries, and schools serve the people, the churches, and the world in the name of the greatest teacher this world has ever known. Troughout the years the Master Teacher has blessed Southern Baptists in their efforts to educate their youth under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Southern Baptists' Schools and Colleges are valued at $64,000,000, including endowment. The endowment of these institutions is $23,-000,000. Last school year 22,000 young men and young women were enrolled in our Senior Colleges. In the southwide Junior Colleges and Academies there were 8,000 enrolled, making a total enrollment in these Christian schools of 30,000. Eternity only will reveal fully the contribution of these lighthouses to Baptists and the world.

North Carolina Baptists glory in our part in this great crusade for Christian Education. Our steps have been slow at times, but Godly men and women have forged ahead and sacrificed for our North Carolina Baptist Schools. Some have literally given their lives. Such names as Wingate, Taylor, Bostwick, Carlyle, Poteat, Stringfield, Vann, Campbell, and many others set our hearts to singing with thanksgiving to God for their vision and courage. Their steps were indeed ordered of the Lord. Some of these slipped away from us. We thought they were gone, but as the years pass, we find that they are still with us.

Two great Senior Colleges, Wake Forest and Meredith; three Junior Colleges, Campbell, Mars Hill and Chowan, make up our North Carolina quintet. It is well to remember that, even though not supported by the State Convention, Wingate and Boiling Springs Junior Colleges are Baptist and are closely affiliated with all our Baptist program. These schools rank with the best.

In the school year of 1935-1936 4,000 students were enrolled in the 5 colleges under the control of the Baptist State Convention. Think what these institutions mean to North Carolina Baptists and the world!

All of these colleges need to expand. They need, as a rule, great buildings programs. All are free of debt except Meredith College.

The debt on Meredith is being paid. It is estimated that $50,000 will be paid on the Meredith debt this Convention year. Wake Forest is in dire need of a great building program. Let's pay the debt on Meredith and set dear old Wake Forest free. Wake Forest's call is urgent and the need is immediate.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. STEPHENS.

Mr. Stephens spoke to the report, commending the high standard of the Baptist schools in N. C., whose students are of high rating.

M. L. Davis related that a large number of prominent men in the state are Wake Forest men.

Mrs. L. B. Daniels told about the Margarett fund student, Mr. Hamlet, who is at Wake Forest.

W. B. Sprinkle reminded us that President emeritus Dr. W. L. Poteat was stricken with paralysis the day before. A special prayer was offered by A. P. Stephens for Dr. Poteat.

Report adopted.

35. J. P. Harris asked in behalf of M. A. Huggins, State Secretary, that delegates take a chart for finance for each church.

36. Rev. Swinnie, who is assisting in meeting at Swansboro was recognized.

37. Inspirational address by Rev. R. A. Thompson, New Bern First, "Seeing God."

See God through the eye of the soul. We have seen God through faith. When we see God we see ourselves. When we see God we humble ourselves.

Unless we see God we will compromise with sin, will not have the boldness against sin.

AFTERNOON SESSION

39. Report on Sunday Schools. Report read by Rev. T. N. Cooper, in absence of Edgar Koonce.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Your committee believes the Sunday School is the Church obeying the command of the Master, "Go ye, and teach." It is the church teaching the word of God. Through evangelism and through teaching the program of the church, its objectives and its doctrine, the Sunday School can and ought to be the greatest single factor in building and strengthening the church aims.

1. Our aim must be, as we are directed by our Savior, to enlist every member of our Baptist churches in our Sunday School and ask our mothers and fathers to enlist their children in church attendance for all the services of the church.

2. To seek to educate our Baptist S. S. teachers in a thorough course and courses of study in Christian education and Christian life application.

Our State S. S. Secretary is Bro. L. L. Morgan.

Assistant part-time workers:

Mrs. C. D. Bain, of Dunn, N. C., approved elementary worker.

Mrs. A. V. Washburn, of Goldsboro, N. C., approved elementary worker, with Mrs. F. A. Bower, of Albemarle.

Mrs. Perry Crouch, of Raleigh, approved intermediate worker.

Mr. James Morgan, of Durham, approved young peoples' worker, and Mrs. M. D. Herndon, of Gastonia, approved extension worker.

These fine helpers to our capable Secretary, Bro. Morgan, are our workers to help us build better Sunday Schools.

In our State-wide S. S. Convention last January 21-23 at Charlotte, more than 2,000 of our N. C. S. S. leaders met in a fine meeting of fellowship and information.

Then the Associational officers went to Shelby for a two day Training Conference last Jan. 21-22. This was a great meeting in that many of our problems were brought to our attention for solution.

So in the near future we look forward to the privilege to attend our 1938 S. S. Convention, Jan. 21-22 (Place to be named).

In 1937, 180 Vacation Bible Schools were held.

This was a decided increase over 1935. 1937 is marked with progress in that 10,922 Teacher Training awards were issued over the number of 1936.

The aim for our General Board is to definitely continue the work of conducting Sunday School revivals.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. N. COOPER.

Rev. A. P. Stephens spoke of the deplorable condition in regards to report on blackboard; a loss of 200 is appalling.

Report adopted.

PROCEEDINGS

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Missionary Baptists of The Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina convened for their Fifty-Fifth Annual Session in the City of New Bern, N. C., October 27-28, 1938, with the First Baptist Church as host and Moderator M. Leslie Davis, of Beaufort, N. C., presiding. Twelve Pastors, three Ordained Ministers and 241 Church members representing 29 Churches of the Association, were registered as being in attendance.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

DEVOTIONAL ..... REV. J. LLOYD MAUNEY

The congregation united in singing "Holy-Holy-Holy" and Rev. J. L. Mauney read the Scripture for the devotional Matthew 18:11-20 and for his special text the twentieth verse

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them" presenting as one thought, that Jesus thus sets aside the requirement for social service and that those present this morning, gathering from the many Churches of the Association, have joined together as a Christian Body to praise their God.

ADOPTION PROGRAM

W. B. Sprinkle, as Chairman of the Program Committee, presented the program as printed and moved that the Religious Literature Report and the W. M. U. Report be changed to the afternoon session and substituting therefore, a talk on our "Homes" by General Superintendent I. G. Greer of Thomasville. Motion seconded, adopted. This change was made in order to afford Brother Greer ample time to return to Thomasville by 6:00 p. m.

OUR HOMES

The General Superintendent of our Orphanage work was presented and spoke earnestly and interestingly of what the Baptist Churches of North Carolina were doing for the fatherless and motherless at our Homes located at Thomasville and Kinston.

During the past 52 years over 4,000 children have been cared for and gone out into the world fully equipped for a useful Christian life.

Over 700 children are in the two Homes each year but there have been only two deaths during the past seven years and these two came to the Home sick and undernourished.

EARLY SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Our Moderator presented and read an article on the Sunday Schools of the Atlantic Association prior to the year 1900.

During the afternoon session this paper was again referred to and on motion made and duly seconded it was ordered printed in the minutes and a copy sent to the Biblical Recorder for their use if they so desire.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF THE ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION

—o—

Dr. David Benedict in his "Fifty Years Among the Baptists," says that Pawtucket in Rhode Island started the first Sunday School in America, begun by Samuel Slater in 1798. There was no "church or settled minister on the ground". The first Baptist Church was organized in that village in 1805.

Dr. Spilman in his excellent address made at the Centennial Convention at Greenville, N. C. in March, 1930, said that "Sunday Schools had been in operation in North Carolina in a haphazard way since about 1800". He further stated that during the first thirty years of their history they were independent of churches. Such was the Pawtucket school, though Dr. Benedict was vitally connected with it for many years, from a few years of its beginning.

The first Baptist Association organized in America was the Philadelphia Association in 1707; the second the Charleston in 1751; the third the Sandy Creek in N. C., in 1758 and the fourth the Kehukee in N. C., in 1769. For many years the Kehukee was thought to have been organized in 1765. The churches of our associational territory were included in the Kehukee until 1794 when they were dismissed to form a new association, the Neuse. Possibly all the churches now in existence that were then in the Neuse in 1794 and for some years later, are now Anti-missionary churches, these churches taking that side when the "split" came some over a hundred years ago. This is true as to the churches in Carteret County, namely, Newport, organized in 1778; Hadnocks Creek, organized about 1788, and North River, organized in 1794. I might say, however, that when the "split" came the Neuse remained a missionary association and the minority withdrew, while the Kehukee stood against the missionary cause and the minority withdrew.

The first data I have been able to secure from my limited material, as to the Sunday School work in this Association, is 1844. That year the Neuse and Goshen Associations combined forming the Union Association, which for many years was one of the outstanding associations in the state. But before I go into this phase, may I digress long enough to mention the early efforts of the Baptist State Convention in Sunday School work.

Among my Baptist Minutes, I have a copy of the State Convention of 1834, when it met at Cashie Meeting House in Bertie County, from which I will quote the "Report on Sabbath Schools" which report was signed by John Peele, Chairman: "Your committee feels deeply sensible of the negligence that has hitherto prevailed in our churches on the important subject of Sabbath Schools. While we believe that Sabbath Schools have been greatly blessed of the Lord, and that many of their pupils have been made the subjects of divine grace and useful and efficient members of our churches, we therefore think that we can not too highly recommend immediate attention to the subject, and that our active and intelligent brethren use suitable means to procure proper books, with such other facilities as may be in their power for the promotion and prosperity of a work, which we believe to be so intimately connected with the prosperity of Zion. Which we respectfully submit". J. Peele, Q. H. Trotman and J. Prichard were appointed a committee on Sabbath Schools at this session. So we see our State Convention took early cognizance of this important work.

In passing may say that Luther Rice was present at this session of 1834, and preached and took an active part in its deliberations. It was also reported that Samuel Ferebee, a revolutionary soldier, gave his pension one year, which amounted to $70.00, to Home Missions, (which is now State Missions), Foreign Missions and Education.

I will now go back to the associational meeting in 1844 and quote the following report on Sabbath Schools, made by I. Peterson. Chairman, as follows:  * "We would in conclusion recommend to our brethren generally, to organize without delay, Sabbath schools at every church and destitute neighborhood within the bounds of the Union Association, and that suitable books and teachers be procured, that this good cause may be revived". Another report on Sabbath Schools was made at this same session, recommending a plan for conducting Sabbath Schools. Plan 4 of these recommendations sound very modern ,namely: "We think that the Superintendent should be required to make an annual report to the church and congregation at which time there should be an address to awaken an increased interest in the cause of Sabbath Schools". Signed by J. J. Finch. Chairman.

At the Association in 1845, Elder W. P. Biddle made the following motion: "Resolved, That the ministers who serve our churches as Pastors, be earnestly and affectionately requested to organize Sabbath Schools in the churches they supply, and encourage the same by visiting them on the Sabbath morning they preach for the church, and also take pains in securing proper teachers and assist in procuring a supply of suitable books". As many of us know this great man was a power of strength in our State, as well as in our associational territory, for nearly half a century. He was one of the organizers of the State Convention and its second President. In 1817 he organized Harriets Chapel, now the First Baptist Church of Kinston. He was one of the founders of Wake Forest College, and of especial interest to me, was present at the organization of the Beaufort Baptist Church in April, 1851, and preached the sermon for the occasion and presided over its first conference.

You will notice in this paper that frequent mention is made of churches now in the Neuse Association. As these churches were a part and important part of the Union, Eastern, Atlantic and Neuse-Atlantic Associations for more than three-quarters of a century, that even a short sketch like this could hardly be made without mentioning them, as they helped make a great deal of the history we have under consideration.

In 1853, the Committee on Sabbath Schools in its report, after writing pessimistically about the situation, added the following: "Yet we will make one more effort, and ask each member of the Association, when they have returned home to their churchs, to raise five dollars, as soon as you conveniently can, and buy a Sunday School library—and call the children together, and go to work; so that when your church returns you to the next association, you may have the glorious news to tell, that the Lord has blessed your labors". I wonder if this appeal had any effect? Nothing in the minutes of 1854 suggest it.

In 1856, the report on Sabbath Schools said: "Resolved, That if our churches would do more, and the Association write less upon this subject, more good might be accomplished". Pretty good advice I think.

In 1863, when the minutes state that many of our churches were, "within the lines of the enemy", one of the churches reported a revival and said it commenced in Sunday School. Another reported that a Bible Class had been organized. Even Civil War could not hinder some of these worthy souls.

In 1867, the Association Committee, reported that 24 churches were without Sabbath Schools, and that there was "one colored Sabbath School of 90 scholars reported to your committee". At that time there were 58 churches in our association, (Eastern). It is impossible to tell how many of our present Atlantic Churches were without Sunday Schools, at that time.

In 1872, New Bern reported 142 in its Sunday School; Beaufort 56; Davis 95; Kinston 13; Union 55. There were probably other churches in our part of the association who did not report any that may have had schools.

In 1884, when 20 churches were dismissed by the Eastern Association to form the Atlantic Association, the following of the twenty, had reported that year Sunday Schools with members as follows: Antioch, (now Winterville) 64; Davis 60; Emmas' Chapel (now Richlands) 84; Falling Creek 67; Fort Barnwell 35; Goldsboro 133; Kinston 104; La Grange 75; Morehead City 103; Mt. Calvary (now extinct) 18; New Bern 159; Snow Hill 36; Smyrna 74; Union 32; Woodville 36. I know Beaufort had a school, but evidently failed to make report on this item . Possibly others did the same. Beaufort reported 54 the year before and 76 in 1885, the next year. Pollocksville also reported a Sunday School in 1885 with 40 members.

In 1886, Piney Grove in Onslow reported a Sunday School with 24 members. In 1888, Piney Grove in Jones also reported a school with 33 members. Also at this 1888 meeting, J. M. Wooten and J. C. Whitty, Committee, in their splendid Orphanage report, recommended "that each Sabbath School in the association set apart the first Sunday in each month as a day to take a collection for the orphans". They also recommended "all the churches to try to get each member to take Charity and Children. The paper is now twelve pages and has increased from 500 to over 2000 copies weekly and costs only one dollar". I think Beaufort then began doing this and is still "at it". Possibly others have done the same thing.

In 1888, Bayboro reported a Sunday School, with 36 members. The Superintendent was J. B. Turner, the father of our two prominent preachers, Eugene Turner for many years a Y. M. C. A., missionary in China and "Jim" Turner of Georgia, formerly of Hayes Barton Church in Raleigh. The Pastor was J. F. Love, who later became our noted Southern Baptist Missionary Statesman.

In 1891 the Association met in Beaufort. We find the Orphanage Committee, suggesting the monthly offering in Sunday Schools for the orphans. The committee on Sunday Schools recommended, "That we organize a Sunday School Association in our bounds similar to those already organized in the State and that a committee be appointed to designate the time and place, and prepare an order of exercise for such meeting". The Moderator appointed the Superintendents of the Baptist Sunday Schools of New Bern, Kinston, Beaufort, Morehead City, and Goldsboro, as follows: John L. McDaniel, J. A. McDaniel, John D. Davis, and A. S. Willis, respectively, except for Goldsboro which seemed to have three as follows: No. 1, H. L. Grant; No. 2, J. J. Robinson; and No. 3, T. D. Parker. At the next association in New Bern, the committee recommended again the organization of a Sunday School Association and the committee was D. McLeod, H. C. Moore, and J. E. Peterson.

In 1893, the committee recommended "that every Sunday School organize a Teachers' meeting". I do not find any account of the organization of an Associational S. S. Convention, but in the summer of 1895, when I was a boy, my father hired the Launch "Sadie", which was possibly the only power boat owned in the county and certainly the first one built there and at that time rather an innovation in "boating", and with our family and some others we went to Smyrna, (which was my first trip there), where a Sunday School meeting was in progress. (This I have in recent years been informed was a Sunday School Chautauqua). I remember that brother R. D. Carroll preached and he had a great deal to say about "doubting Thomas". He evidently made a good impression, as he was later called to that Field and for several years did a splendid work among these excellent people. I vividly remember the trip home in the late afternoon, with a good stiff breeze blowing and the rough water in Core Sound and how our little launch "rolled" in the rough water.

In 1896 there were 35 churches in the Atlantic Association, with 2389 members, two churches not reporting and they also reported 30 Sunday Schools with 2520 members. In 1897, there were 36 churches and 37 Sunday Schools, one mission school being reported. This is a little better than now as I believe we lack two or three schools of having 100 per cent.

In 1896 there were 35 churches in the Atlantic Association, with of the old Atlantic Association was held, before the division into the Atlantic and Neuse Associations. The committee on Sunday Schools recommended, "that Bro. B. W. Spilman be requested through the State Board to spend more of his efforts within our bounds as the field is certainly the most ready for results within the State". This last meeting of the old Atlantic, was my first associational meeting as a messenger. There were 46 churches with 2777 members, two not reporting, with 14 ministers. For all purposes $13,502.07 were reported. There were 33 Sunday Schools reporting 2352 enrollment. The largest school was Goldsboro First with 269; Morehead 164; New Bern, First 145; Beaufort 132; Kinston 130; New Bern Tabernacle 124. The Moderator was Rev. C. W. Blanchard; Clerk, H. C. Moore; Treasurer M. S. Webb and the preacher, Dr. John E. White.

In Nov. 1874, The Baptist Sunday School Convention, met in Raleigh. Our Association (Eastern) was represented by eleven delegates, four of these from two churches later in the Atlantic Association, namely, my father, John D. Davis, of Beaufort, and Dr. C. Durham, J. Newton Greene and Mrs. E. M. Walters from Goldsboro. There were reports from 116 Sunday Schools in the State, and only nine (9) reported more money expended for the school than Beaufort reported and one of these was Goldsboro.

Of the seventeen men who have served as North Carolina Baptist Sunday School Secretaries, three have been pastors in this Association: J. P. Montague at Beaufort, B. W. Spilman at Smyrna, Davis and Woodville and H. C. Moore at Morehead City and New Bern First. Dr. B. W. Spilman was ordained for the ministry at Beaufort in October 1892. One elected who declined to serve was Dr. J. F. Love, of Bayboro.

The Goldsboro S. S. was organized in 1852. Beaufort in 1857, and Hon. John Nichols was the first Supt. Later he moved to Raleigh and became a member of Congress, was Postmaster of Raleigh, Grand Master of Masons and one of the men who organized the Oxford Orphanage. I do not know how long the Beaufort school functioned because it was organized again in 1861, with Elisha Felton, Supt. He was a brother of Richard Felton, who with the father of Dr. T. E. Skinner, gave $5000.00 each to save Wake Forest from being sold for debt, prior to the Civil War. Beaufort started again in the latter part of 1868 or early 1869 and has been a going concern since that time. Morehead Sunday School was organized in 1883. Davis S. S. was organized about 1869 or 1870. Wish I knew the dates of all the other of our churches, prior to 1900.

I hope some person will bring this sketch down to date.

ASSOCIATIONAL SERMON ..... REV. W. B. SPRINKLE

The congregation sang "Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthroned" and Rev. W. B. Sprinkle read for his Scripture the whole of Psalm 85 and used for his theme the sixth verse

"Wilt thou not revive us again; that thy people may rejoice in thee?"

He brought out the need of reality in religion: that we are still in the dark and in uneasiness of spirit and in dire need of a great spiritual awakening and a closer comradeship with God.

Rev. B. F. Gehring closed this morning session with prayer.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

DEVOTIONAL ..... REV. G. CLAUDE TUTEN

All joined in singing "Sun Of My Soul, Thou Saviour Dear" and Rev. G. C. Tuten read the 14th chapter of John, the devotional closing with prayer.

ORPHANAGE REPORT ..... REV. G. C. HEDGEPETH

North Carolina Baptists operate two orphanage homes, the Mills Home at Thomasville and the Kennedy Home at Kinston.

The administrative office, with I. G. Greer, General Superintendent ,and R. D. Covington, Treasurer, is located at Thomasville. The Social Service department, under the supervision of Miss Hattie Edwards, is administered from the main office at Thomasville. J. C. Hough is Superintendent of the Kennedy Home, Kinston, R. F. D. 2. The Charity and Children, organ of the two orphanage homes, is edited by Rev. J. A. McMillan, Thomasville.

True to its charter issued some fifty-three years ago the Orphanage continues to "prepare poor and promising orphans for the duties of life."

Like all other Baptist institutions our two orphanage homes are dependent upon the Baptists of North Carolina for their support. This means that if the two orphanage homes are to fulfill their highest mission to orphan children who need our help the churches in the Atlantic Association should do their duty by them. Indeed, one of the needs is that every Sunday School in our association set apart one Sunday each month when a special offering is to be taken for our orphanage work.

"Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." James 1:27.

Respectfully submitted,

G. C. HEDGEPETH

The Rev. G. C. Hedgepeth presented and read his report and moved its adoption, which was duly seconded.

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE REPORT .... J. LEROY HENDERSON

Brother Henderson presented and read his report on religious literature as follows:

"Literature has had a predominant influence upon all ages, since the art of writing was discovered. History reveals that the characters of each historical age was molded by the trend of its literature.

The modern age, in which we are living, is no exception. Literature has been and is extremely instrumental in molding the character of our present age: Unfortunately there are two types of literature which constitute the entire reading matter of our people.

It may be classed as good and bad. The good, influences noble character and promotes a higher standard of living; while the bad influences all character, to a degrading and lower standard of living.

As we survey the literature of today, we find a big per cent worthless; yet there is in reach of us literature of the best type handed to us each day.

The most convenient and best is the Bible ,and to my mind, the Biblical Recorder, next.

Now let us form a habit of reading the same more, which will draw us closer to one another in a better spirit, help the Baptist Cause, and broaden our love for our Creator. May God help us to always choose the best literature.

Respectfully submitted,

J. LEROY HENDERSON

—————oOo—————

After reading Bro. Henderson moved the adoption of the report, which was duly seconded and the topic was opened for discussion.

Discussion—J. Leroy Henderson spoke additionally to this report and then presented Mr. R. F. Terrell, Circulation Manager of the Biblical Recorder, who presented various plans for subscriptions to the Recorder in our Churches.

Report Adopted.

W. M. U. REPORT ..... MRS. GEO. E. LOVELL

Mrs. Lovell presented and read the report as follows:

"Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name. Bring an offering and come into His courts." In this year of the Golden Jubilee of the Woman's Missionary Union, we would consider this report in the light of our Watchward for the year, and see whether anything we have done has brought "glory to His name."

The seasons of prayer have been generally observed by our societies, and this prayerful spirit on the part of the women and young people has led them to give more thought to the work of our Boards and their needs, and to catch and hold the vision of service in State, and Homeland and the far distant Fields of the World. Sixteen societies observed State Mission Day, fourteen observed Home Mission Week of Prayer, and thirteen observed the Foreign Mission Week of Prayer, bringing their gifts.

Enlisting new members and the organizing of new societies have kept officers and leaders very busy during this Jubilee Year. If individuals have been won to the Master's service and new societies of women and young people organized, it is because someone has walked more closely with the Master, and has passed on to others the inspiration of serving their own church and community, and then going into all the world. To Him be glory and honor for those so won.

In 1937 we had 49 organizations. This year we have 72. Two new missionary societies, twenty-one young people's societies were organized. Number of members 1253.

Giving information and inspiration to numbers of our members, mission study classes have been held. How better can we give the Lord glory than by studying His Book, then using our Mission Study Books to better understand the needs of Home and Foreign Mission Fields, and to learn something of our missionaries and the places where they also serve.

Number of classes held 25. Number enrolled 340.

Underneath the vast amount of Personal Service done this year, surely there lies ever present the thought of winning some lost soul to Christ. Never too busy with material things to think of the Master's work, the sick and sorrowing have been visited, the aged and infirm have been ministered unto, and the poor not forgotten. The women have brought their gifts of food and garments, fruit and flowers, Bibles and good literature. We hope these offerings have been acceptable to Him as we come into His courts.

We who have received so bountifully of the good things of life, and enjoy the benefits of living in a beautiful land, surely will say with the Psalmist, "I will pay my vows and I will offer the sacrifice of thanksgiving." So we have come this year "into His courts" bringing our tithes and offerings.

Our aim for the Jubilee Year, $2,301.06. To the end of the third quarter we have given $1540.95.

Special gifts, $50.00 Golden Certificates from all W. M. U.'s. $50.00 Golden Certificates from all Young People's societies. $50.00 Golden Certificates from W. M. U. of New Bern First Church.

We have also brought "into His courts" the lives of the young people of the Atlantic Association. Through the efficient leadership of Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle, our Association Y. P. Leader, rallies and programs, gracious entertainment and wholesome recreation, study and service have been given our young people, and their lives have been enriched and brought more closely to the Master whom they are seeking to serve.

Mrs. Sprinkle traveled 1494 miles, wrote 219 cards and letters, made 13 talks, visited 9 societies, and taught four study classes.

As we think of the vast amount of work entailed in carrying on the W. M. U. work in the Atlantic Association we would express to Mrs. L. D. Daniel, Superintendent, our appreciation of the untiring service she has rendered during this Jubilee Year. Her unselfish devotion to the numerous tasks has inspired all with whom she labored "In His Name."

We trust as we go into a new year's work that we will continue to "give the Lord the glory due unto His name" and that our offerings of time, and talents, and the money gifts will be acceptable to Him as we "come into His courts."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. GEO. E. LOVELL.

After reading Mrs. Lovell moved the adoption of the report which was duly seconded, and the subject opened for discussion.

Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle spoke most interestingly on the work done with the young people during the year past, and the eager and ready response by these young people to the call for study and service in their various organizations. Such was the response that we could not lay down but were under obligation to "carry on" in this work for the glory of God.

Report Adopted.

OUR LIVING MODERATORS

Only four of the Past Moderators of the Atlantic Association are now living and three being in attendance were presented to the Association. C. W. Blanchard through illness was unable to be with us.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, elected Moderator 50 years ago in 1888.
C. W. Blanchard, elected Moderator 40 years ago in 1898.
M. Leslie Davis, elected Moderator 30 years ago in 1908.
Dr. Z. V. Parker, elected Moderator 10 years ago in 1928.

Attention was called to the unusual fact that our living Moderators were elected in decade years co-incident with the present year of 1938.

Dr. Parker served us for two years after which our present Moderator was re-elected and has continued thus to serve.

On motion, duly seconded the Clerk was ordered to send telegram to Bro. Blanchard expressing our regret at his absence from this Session.

Telegram:

C. W. Blanchard:

We regret your inability to be with us and send our love and hope for your speedy recovery to usual health.

MISSION REPORT ..... MRS. R. A. THOMPSON

Mrs. Thompson presented and read her report on Missions as follows:

The enemies of Jesus gave him a name, as they supposed, of Opprobrium, "A Friend of Sinners". He did not reject the name but glorified it.

We have been given a name, "Missionary Baptist". We have not rejected the name; shall we not keep on proving that we are well named and glorify the name by our liberality and zeal in making disciples of all nations?

—o—

STATE MISSIONS

In its early history our State Mission work was largely confined to supplementing pastors' salaries and helping to build new churches.

This work has not been neglected but other features have been added. In addition to this we have the Sunday School work, especially in enlargement and teacher training; the B. T. U. and B. S. U. work and work among the Indians and Negroes. State Missions also seeks to minister to those who are sick in body and in soul in the following institutions: Oteen Hospital, Western North Carolina Sanatorium at Black Mountain, the State Sanatorium and Samarcand near Aberdeen.

Our two General Missionaries, Rev. M. O. Alxander and Rev. J. C. Pipes are doing a notable work.

HOME MISSIONS

Reports of revivals and outpourings of God's Spirit and blessing come from all fields of Home Mission endeavor.

The Board has in all departments of its work 332 missionaries working in 886 mission stations. During the past year 23 new missionaries have been put in the field; 22 mission chapels and pastors' homes built and over 100 new mission stations opened—besides the great number of tracts and Bibles distributed, fifty thousand people have been personally visited and talked to about their souls' salvation in addition to the 36,000 sermons and addresses that have been delivered.

The great challenge of Home Missions is, a call to love for the lost of every tribe and nation right here in our midst; to help the spiritually helpless who lie wounded on the side of the road that runs by the door of all our churches, which will tend to prove the reality of our mission passion and love for the peoples of other lands to which we are sending missionaries.

Three mission stations are now operated under H. M. B.. Two in New Orleans, one in Jacksonville, Florida.

The treasurer's report shows that $145,560.37 was paid on the principal of the debt in 1937. This is the largest amount paid in any year since 1929. The Board is operating on a cash basis; no money is borrowed for any purpose. This is the fifth year the Board has operated without borrowing money for current work. The Board has operated within its budget and the policy is that no new missionaries be appointed until money for salaries of such missionaries are in hand. It is the aim of the department of evangelism of the H. M. B. to do its part in bringing about a great Southwide revival.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Ninety years ago the F. M. B. was organized. During these years the F. M. B. has not seen more troublous times. There are wars and rumors of war in many parts of the world. In our fear and uncertainty we turn to our risen, enthroned Lord who still lives and rules and giudes in the affairs of men and nations.

For the calendar year of 1937 the Board received for its work from all sources the sum total of $1,077,996.34.

The goal set for the 1937 L. M. Offering was $190,000. To date a total of $290,000 has been received.

Most of our property in central, interior and north China missions is now in the hands of the Japanese military authorities and our missionaries are not allowed to inspect the property and ascertain the extent of the damage. In Shanghai alone we estimate our losses at close to a quarter of a million dollars. Damage done to property outside of Shanghai will be exceedingly heavy.

We would estimate that fifty missionaries have lost an average of one thousand dollars each in personal property and belongings.

Our African mission is eighty-eight years old. Chief among the many difficult problems confronting our African mission is the desperate need for missionary recruits.

As we look at the extent of our work in the sixteen foreign countries ,a careful survey convinces one that our line of operations on the foreign fields is indeed and in truth a far-flung battle line.

Let us by the mercies of God offer our bodies living sacrifices wholly acceptable unto God which is only our reasonable service and by so doing we will help spread the message of Salvation to the countless millions who know not the Lord.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. R. A. THOMPSON

October 27th, 1938
New Bern, North Carolina.

—o—

On reading, Mrs. Thompson moved the adoption of the report which was duly seconded and the matter opened for discussion.

Mr. Maloy A. Huggins, our General Secretary was recognized and spoke fully and interestingly on the far embracing work of our various mission boards. He spoke feelingly of the faith, zeal and courageous sacrifice of our missionaries, especially in the war torn lands, holding their lives up to us as an inspiration to greater love and interest in our Master's Great Commission.

All stood with thoughts of our missionaries and in silent prayer gave thanks to God that he had so called these noble men and women to His cause in far away lands, and added thanks that they were still carrying on in His name. Rev. R. A. Thompson closed these moments of silent prayers.

In Memoriam

"One sweetly solemn thought comes to me o'er and o'er
I am nearer home today than I've ever been before Nearer my Father's house where the many mansions be Nearer the great white throne, nearer the crystal sea."

In an Assembly like this how beautiful, indeed, is the sweetly solemn thought, that our friends in their passing away had gone Home, were indeed standing before the "Great White Throne" in the presence of Him who made possible the Eternal Life.

The secret of the perpetual memory of friends who have passed away was their sacrifice, their investment, their devotion. In the light of this great truth, we rejoice, to-day, that those who have ceased to be with us in the flesh, are with us in the glory of their spirits, and as we think of and call their names let those who knew them best open the door of their hearts and receive them again in memory. Thus may our souls become more enriched and the memory of their lives more sacred and revered.

In the creation by the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, happiness is not unattended by sorrow, and Christian Association is often imperfect because of the absence of a face hitherto familiar and the clasp of a hand that is no more.

Since last we met a number of our loved ones are missing and while they have gone to join the innumerable host, we here, in loving memory pause to place a garland of love and affection in our own memories, and with them so wreathed express, though not in words, but in spirit, to that Christian feeling that binds all people as brothers, not here alone but in the life beyond.

In doing this we call, to witness this our act of devotion, the spirits of our departed loved ones, who represent so many Christian Homes and Churches; May their spirits come as voiceless messengers to speak to us in language clear, and bid us to so live that when our summons comes, we might be united in that eternal Home and blend, with theirs, our voices in song and praise to our King and Lord.

INSPIRATIONAL ADDRESS ..... REV. B. F. GEHRING

The congregation joined in singing "I Gave My Life For Thee".

The plea of the inspirational address was that we all stir our hearts for greater service to our God.

The afternoon session closed with prayer by Rev. W. B. Sprinkle.

THURSDAY EVENING SESSION

DEVOTIONAL ..... REV. H. B. HINES

All joined in singing "Savior Like A Shepherd Lead Us" which was followed by prayer by Rev. J. L. Hodges. The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. H. B. Hines from II Corinthians 1-10 and for his thought part of the 9th verse

"My grace is sufficient for thee"

when things are going wrong and we are feeling blue, it is well that we be still and realize that God's grace is sufficient for all our needs.

B. T. U. REPORT ..... MRS. J. L. HODGES

(copy of report not received)

After reading the report, Mrs. Hodges moved its adoption, which was duly seconded.

MISSIONARY SERMON ..... REV. J. L. HODGES

Song by congregation "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er The Sun" followed by the reading of Isaiah 42:1-9 and for the text of his sermon the Rev. J. L. Hodges used part of the 4th verse "He will not fail".

Only of the coming Christ could the prophet have referred in such exalted phrasing. World evangelization is the eternal purpose of Jehovah and the program of the Church should be in accord with this eternal purpose. The agonizing prayer of Christ in Gethsemane "Not my will but thine" was an appeal for world evangelization and only by adopting such a purpose can we, as Christians, defend our faith.

The closing prayer was offered by Rev. J. L. Mauney.

SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT ..... REV. W. I. JOHNSON

Never before in the history of man has the problem of social life been so great. The modern world, which has well been called the Machine Age, with all its modern inventions of transportation and communication has extended the social question to National and International magnitude. All nations and races have forced their social influence upon our remotest communities and homes. The social freedom that our fore-fathers enjoyed has been lost forever in a tangible world that seeks to crush individuality and the souls of men, which is the climax of God's creation. We are drifting on the sea of society and being tossed to and fro, up and down, by every human force imaginable. The results are yet to be seen, yet the end seems to be inevitable chaos.

Governments no longer seek to serve the people but seek to become masters of the people. They have ignored our wills, destroyed our rights, and usurped our power. Our local ,state, and national legislators have defied our expressed wills, sold our freedom, and have become dictators instead of representatives. The foundations of Democracy are crumbling in the hands of the picked politicians who are selfish, defiant, petty dictators. They are a menace to the whole social order and present civilization. May we earnestly realize the most imperative need of today is for God's people to take their stand and speak, that liberty, justice, and freedom live forever in all phases of life.

Industrial relations have developed into a never ending volcanic eruption which has projected unnecessary antagonism between so called Capital and Labor. The problem has cast upon society millions who are idle, hopeless, and creating deplorable conditions which probably will never be eradicated.

The liquor traffic has developed a demoralizing situation among the entire public and has stamped its disgraceful blot, black as Hell itself, upon the social world. Have we yet awakened to the fact that those who sponsored the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and advocated control were blind as to the results it would produce? Now we know that A. B. C. means Always Bad Conditions.

One does not confess himself a pessimist who sees the present conditions sinking to the moral level of the Roman Empire 1900 years ago. As we survey facts predominating the world today, even our immediate environment, who has the audacity to challenge the following truths: corrupt politics and governments prevalent in every land; a distressing lack of integrity in business; economic status increasing human suffering; the presses putting forth millions of pages of corrupt literature; salacious moving pictures poisoning the minds of all people; legislatures flooding dry territory with hard liquor over the protest of its citizens; the most degrading forms of gambling, licensed and encouraged by civil government; domestic life being undermined and corrupted by easy marriage and divorce, making consecutive bigamy and polygamy respectable and promoting legalized adultery; all crime imaginable on the increase; the germ of social annihilation devouring the heart of society; churches ceasing to discipline ungodly characters; and the majority of people practicing Epicurism which destroys the beauty and holiness of life, the sacredness and purity of home, and the eternal revelation of God. Can we not see somewhat the same world that Jesus saw when He looked out on the mighty Roman Empire, which was inevitably plunging into the gigantic catastrophe, that buried the world into the Dark age for a thousand years, and said to His disciples, "Ye are the salt of the earth". The infallible truth that Jesus uttered then is even a reality today. God help us who are his disciples to save this world as well as the souls of men.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. S. B. Wilson moved the adoption of report, seconded by Rev. W. B. Sprinkle and report opened for discussion and remarks.

Rev. W. I. Johnson spoke additionally to his report. and then gave of the balance of his allotted time that Rev K. D. Stukenbrok might speak on our work at the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

Rev. K. D. Stukenbrok reviewed the work at the Hospital, giving figures as to the number taken care of, the equipment for service, the present necessary needs and above all that the healing of the sick and injured was not left entirely in the hands of doctors, surgeons and nurses, but that God was brought in to every case.

TEMPERANCE AND MORALS REPORT .... REV. T. N. COOPER

We insist upon good morals in private life, but we allow loose morals in public places. How may we expect good to come out of such conditions. In reality we have very little private life any more. Our days are spent with others in business and social life. To glance back even ten years we see a distinct let down in the morale of our people.

Our sinful social order means we have little faith in Salvation. The Prophet Jeremiah prayed for Salvation among the Nations. There are only a few prophets today. We make no serious effort to place the Christian Church at the center of modern life. Most of our people suggest that the church should have no voice in our social problems. To make a righteous nation we must have better men. We cannot build any structure without suitable material.

Our need today is for so-called Christians to act as they know. We must stress proper speech and conduct. We believe Christ stressed hearing and obeying in the present tense. Our morals are low; our honesty is gone. To correct our standing in the sight of God we must go back to His word for instruction. His church has an interest in all phases of modern life which employs men. May we stand firm for social justice, economic equality and political purity.

In Jeremiah's day the prophet, priest and king fell before God's finger of scorn. If the preacher is guilty of not being bold I believe we should take our medicine. I do believe if he cannot denounce sin in high and low places he should step down and out. God says all other achievements of men are futile if they are immoral and sinful. If God should come today I fear He would be like the prophet walking in day light with a lighted lantern, "I am looking for an honest man." Give us men who are pure, honest and sober and the nation will stand, but with men who are base, dishonest and drunk it will fall.

The government has failed us, for no person or child has protection from drink or low morals. Men and children take part in gambling.

Bishop Purcell of the Methodist Church says: "There is a tragic failure of legislation to promote sobriety or to reduce crime and accidents." "War is the greatest unsolved problem our generation will hand down to modern youth."

News and Observer, Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 21, 1938—Prison Population Increases:

"The state penal division reported yesterday that the population of various state prison units rose nearly 400 during September, 1938."

All of these figures are indictments against us. We cannot ignore the cry of humanity.

Too, we must oppose gambling, both public and private. Too many of our people are partners in the gambling wave in North Carolina. We take part, wholesale, in the "jack pot" racket which is our sin.

The church is challenged:

"The liquor traffic is not the only evil that is consuming our people. There are organized efforts to legalize lotteries and other forms of gambling. The promoters of this enterprise are using the same false arguments with which they destroyed national prohibition. If people are going to drink away their lives anyway, legalize the business and collect revenue from it. If people are going to gamble anyway, legalize lotteries and other gambling for revenue." The same way with all fashionable present day evils. If prostitution, legalize it, but can we debauch human souls for a pittance in revenue? We cannot use blood money for good!

"All of our people, young and old, should be informed regarding the hurtful effects of liquor. The home, the public schools, the colleges and universities, the newspapers, radio and all other means of presenting the truth regarding the hurtful effects of liquor should be utilized to present the truth to our people."—Cale K. Burgess.

Sufficient is it to say we need men and women with red blood to join in the crusade for home and humanity. Be always ready to oppose evil!

Respectfully submitted,
T. N.COOPER

After reading T. N. Cooper moved adoption of the report, seconded and report opened for discussion and remarks. J. M. Page, of Raleigh, representing the United Dry Forces spoke on the work of that organization in combating the extension of licensing liquor in the counties of our State.

Report Adopted.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT ..... REV. S. B. WILSON

Christian Education starts with the Cradle Roll in Sunday School, and includes Daily Vacation Bible School. Each Pastor should include these departments in his church program.

Secondary Schools lay the foundation for the College course. Boiling Springs and Wingate are two remaining schools fostered by our Churches, under Associational direction.

Mars Hill and Campbell are Junior Colleges that take the students up to the College proper. These Junior Colleges prepare the students for Wake Forest and Meredith, the forefront of the Educational system. Chowan comes along for her part of the work of education. These are our denominational schools in the State.

Our own denominational schools should be patronized by our own Baptist people. A son or daughter trained in one of our schools is worth more to the Baptist Denomination than one trained elsewhere. Our Baptist trained sons and daughters work in the Churches, Sunday Schools and B. T. U.'s where they are located. Lawyers, doctors, teachers and women and men of other professions are known as Baptists wherever they go.

It is worthwhile to give our sons and daughters Baptist training as well as education in a general way. Pastors should keep our schools before their churches and urge our young people to attend.

Work year in and year out for Christian Education.

Respectfully Submitted,
S. B. WILSON

Moved and seconded to adopt Report.

INSPIRATIONAL ADDRESS ..... REV. B. F. GEHRING

Mrs. Georgia Frost Barnes of Lucama was presented and rendered as a theme song "I Am Satisfied With Jesus",

He has done so much for me
Is that Master satisfied with me?

Rev. B. F. Gehring spoke on Pillars of the Church, referring to James, John and Cephas, and bringing to mind the names of many great Christian leaders from that day to this.

All cannot be great pillars, but in all construction many smaller pillars are needed to build a complete and solid structure. Each of us should be a pillar in strengthening God's great program.

Morning session closed with prayer.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

DEVOTIONAL ..... DR. Z. V. PARKER

The congregation sang "There's A Land That Is Fairer Than Day" and "What A Friend We have In Jesus".

Dr. Parker then read Acts 2:39 and Acts 4:31-32, using these verses as the theme of his devotional coupled with the words of Jesus, "If you will confess me before men, I will confess you before the Father."

The devotional period was closed with prayer.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT ..... IRVIN W. DAVIS

The Sunday School is the medium through which the local church teaches the Scripture. It is both a field and a force. In the Sunday School gather the largest number of unsaved persons to be found in any of the regular meetings of the Church. The conditions under which the teaching is done afford the best possible opportunity to reach the unsaved and to develop the saved in Christian character. We have 33 churches in our Association with a membership of 4,150. We have 31 Sunday Schools with a membership of 3,070. According to the law of average we should have 6,140 possibilities. Add that to our Sunday School membership and you will see that we have 9,210 possibilities for our Sunday School. When you take under consideration that a great many of our Sunday School members are children who are not old enough to belong to the Church, you can readily see that the Sunday School enrollment should be larger than the Church membership; however, we are approximately 1,000 behind.

Southern Baptists have enrolled more people in Sunday School in the past 20 years than all other denominations in the South combined, and yet there are ten and a half million more people in the South that will never be enrolled in Sunday School unless Baptists enroll them. There is no reason why all of the Churches whose members want efficient Sunday Schools may not have Sunday Schools of the first rank. We would urge all of our Sunday Schools to avail themselves of the opportunity for improvement offered through the Sunday School Department. Mr. L. L. Morgan, Raleigh, North Carolina, is the efficient Sunday School Secretary for the Baptists of North Carolina. Through his wise and aggressive leadership in Sunday School work, he has placed North Carolina far ahead of what it was and each year makes a steady and healthy growth in this work of the Church.

The great progress made by the Baptists of North Carolina for the past 20 years is due more to the splendid work done by our Sunday Schools than any other agency of our denomination.

Respectfully submitted,
IRVIN W. DAVIS

ASSOCIATIONAL BULLETIN

Whereas, one of our pastors has been getting out a monthly bulletin in the interest of the churches of the Atlantic Baptist Association, and

Whereas, it now appears that the time has come when if the bulletin is to be continued this body should be given the right to name the editor, and also, to direct plans for financing same, therefore be it

RESOLVED 1ST: That the moderator of this body appoint a committee to nominate an editor or publicity director for the bulletin for the next associational year,

RESOLVED 2ND: That all young people and adult Bible classes be asked to take up an offering for financing the bulletin some time during the next thirty (30) days, and that such funds as are raised be forwarded immediately to our associational treasurer who shall hold such funds in trust until needed from month to month.

RESOLVED 3RD: That we set our goal at $75.00, which sum would make possible (not counting postage) the printing and distribution of 1,000 copies of the bulletin among all our churches during the next twelve (12) months. It is understood, however, that should a smaller sum be realized than that needed or anticipated the number of bulletins printed be reduced so that the expenses of printing same shall be kept within the amount provided by the churches through freewill offerings for this purpose.

Respectfully submitted,
REV. R. COLE LEE,
MRS. U. E. SWANN,
MRS. IRENE SIMPSON.

Motion was presented that a committee, composed of M. Leslie Davis, Geo. E. Lovell, B. F. Gehring, R. Cole Lee study this question and devise means and ways whereby this bulletin can be continued.

Motion Adopted.

CLOSING INSPIRATIONAL

Mrs. Georgia Frost Barnes sang "Sunrise Tomorrow," and Rev. B. F. Gehring delivered his inspirational message.

This Fifty-Fifth Annual Session closed with prayer at 3:50 p. m. to meet in Morehead City, N. C., October 26-27, 1939.

PROCEEDINGS W. M. U. ANNUAL MEETING

The W. M. U. of the Atlantic Association held its annual meeting with Fort Barnwell Church, October 6, 1938.

Mrs. L. B. Daniel, superintendent, presiding, called the meeting to order at ten o'clock. "The Golden Vision of Service" was the theme for the day.

Following opening prayer by Rev. J. L. Hodges, the congregation sang the Jubilee Hymn, "Blow Ye Trumpets." The morning devotional, "Bring An Offering," led by Mrs. George Lovell, was urgent and earnest. Mrs. Oscar Simons, of Fort Barnwell, extended a gracious welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. R. T. Willis, of Oriental. Visitors and eight pastors were recognized. A girls' sextette from Kennedy Home sang impressively two selections.

Committees were appointed, and reports of presidents of societies were submitted, which were of much interest. Rev. C. K. Djang was introduced by Mrs. Daniel. His wonderful message held his hearers tense with interest. Following the morning session a bountiful lunch was served by the women of Fort Barnwell Church to a well attended meeting.

The afternoon session opened with singing "The Woman's Hymn," written by Miss Fannie E. S. Heck. Mrs. Cecil Hancock led a devotional, on "Vision of Service," using verses 1-19 of the 9th chapter of Acts, which was very inspiring. Special music was rendered by Mrs. J. R. Carvey, of New Bern, and Mrs. E. L. Weston, of Guilford College. The memorial service for those who have died during the past year was conducted by Mrs. J. F. Giddens, with a memorial poem by Mrs. John Lashley, a prayer by Mrs. W. H. Smoak, and a duet by Mrs. H. S. Gibbs and Mrs. A. T. Gillikin.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris, of Raeigh, Corresponding Secretary of State work, spoke also on "Vision of Service," and the round table discussion was very helpful.

Officers for the incoming year were re-elected.

The next meeting will be held at Davis, October 5, 1939.

Prayer by Mrs. Daniel closed the meeting.

MRS. R. W. DAVIS, Secretary.

PROCEEDINGS

The Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina, composed of Missionary Baptist Churches in the Counties of Carteret, Craven, Jones, Onslow, and Pamlico, convened in its Fifty-Sixth Annual Session in Morehead City, N. C., October 26-27, 1939, at the First Baptist Church, with Moderator M. Leslie Davis of Beaufort presiding. Ten pastors and 200 members from 31 churches of the Association were recorded as being present, along with 53 members of the host Church. No delegates were present from the Atlantic Church (O) or the Hobucken Church.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

DEVOTIONAL _____ REV. R. A. THOMPSON

The congregation joined in singing "Amazing Grace" and Rev. R. A. Thompson read Psalm 1, using as his text the first verse—"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly"—and closed the devotional period with prayer.

OPENING:

Moderator M. Leslie Davis officially called the session to order and recognized the following visitors: Rev. J. B. Willis of Hamlet, former pastor at Morehead City; Rev. M. O. Alexander, State Missionary; Rev. A. L. Benton of Swansboro, a new pastor in the Association; R. F. Terrell, Recorder representative; Mrs. Jennings of Nashville, Tenn.

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE _____ REV. H. B. HINES

Rev. H. B. Hines presented and read his report on the Biblical Recorder as follows:

On Jaunary 1, 1939, the Baptist State Convention assumed ownership of the Biblical Recorder. For more than a hundred years now the Recorder has sought to advance every Baptist cause and institution. The remarkable progress of Baptist growth and work in North Carolina is due in no small measure to the fact that Baptist people have been informed through the columns of the Recorder. Surely, under Convention ownership this will continue and, if possible, to a greater degree.

The present circulation of the Recorder is between twelve and thirteen thousand; and of this number about 3,000 are individual subscribers on the $2.00 individual rate, while about 9,000 are members of Recorder clubs in our churches at the $1.50 rate.

An intensive effort has been made and will be made to increase the circulation. It is hoped that there will be appointed and elected a leading man or woman in every association who will be Recorder representative; and in every church a Recorder representative whose duty it will be, along with the pastor, to form a Recorder club in the church. At present there are more than five hundred clubs. This is encouraging until one pauses to reflect that there are about 1,900 churches with no Recorder clubs at all.

Again, it appears that there are about 90,000 Baptist families in the State who never see the Recorder as against about 10,000 who do. Surely, we need to change this situation. If, however, it is changed there must be the closest cooperation between the Convention and the churches. It is earnestly requested that every association in the State that has not done so will at the fall meeing of 1939 elect an associational Recorder representative, and that this Recorder representative will cooperate with the office in Raleigh in securing the best man or woman in each of the churches as Recorder representative. In turn, this Recorder representative will undertake to build up a club of subscribers in each chuch.

In the meantime, Baptist people over the State may rest assured that every effort will be made to improve the quality of the paper to the end that the cause of Christ may be better served and that the challenge of every Baptist cause and institution shall be presented.

Respectfully submitted,
H. B. HINES.

Rev. B. F. Gehring moved the adoption of the report which was duly seconded. R. F. Terrell, Circulation Manager of the Biblical Recorder, spoke to the report, giving interesting facts as to our State paper and its future policies and hopes for a greatly increased subscription list in all churches.

Report Adopted.

Rev. D. J. Robinson, pastor of the Richlands Church, was recognized and presented as a new-comer to our Association.

W. M. U. _____ MRS. L. B. DANIEL

W. M. U. REPORT

Another year has passed and as we meet to consider the faithful efforts of our helpers and co-worders in the Atlantic Association, we are truly conscious of our watchword—"The love of Christ constraineth us." We have been urged by the love of Christ to work in His vineyard and carry His gospel to the uttermost parts of the world.

Our jubilee year was not only a memorable year but it was a memorial year. Our women established memorials to their Savior in love and gratitude. For we are reminded of what the angel said to the devout Cornelius, "Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God." Our women and our young people have been paying and praying, thus establishing memorials to the Savior.

Our gifts have not been as they should have been but we are thankful that our organizations have observed the seasons of prayer and have contributed to every phase of our work. Our gifts have steadily been increased. The associational aim for the year is $2,654.58 and for the three quarters, the women have reported $1,738.11. I trust and pray that we will reach this aim. I believe we will. God has been good and if we fail Him, what can we expect?

We have not stressed organization this year, but we have tried to hold up, strengthen and develop the many that were organized last year. We have attempted to deepen the spiritual interest of our W. M. S. Presidents and young peoples' leaders. There are 20 W. M. S. and 37 Y. P. organizations in the Atlantic Association that we have reported during the past year. If these were actively concerned about their own people surely they would be a great power in our association and in our state. Pray that God will fill our leaders with His spirit.

The personal service work has been carried on by Mrs. M. L. Davis of Beaufort. She has inspired the local leaders with the great aim of personal service, winning souls for Christ. She has attempted to have all members of W. M. S. and Y. P. organizations realize what real personal service is.

Mrs. W. G. Dixon of Oriental has given her best to mission study. How can our people be intelligent Christian stewards unless they know the work? There has been an increase in mission study classes, but we need to study more earnestly to show ourselves approved unto God.

Our young peoples' work has been ably led by my Christian friend and co-worker, Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle. She has worked untiringly for the Lord, and we are thankful to God for her efforts. She has been called to another field, but we know that God is good in providing us with a new worker to take up this important task. Mrs. H. M. Hines of Pollocksville will carry on and may we all pray for her as she lifts our young people up to the throne of grace.

Surely as we count the many efforts that our leaders have put forth, we lift up our hearts and are glad for a good harvest. Our annual meeting in Davis in October revealed this to us all.

A personal report shows that your superintendent has attended nine of the 12 quarterly meetings of the three groups. She has visited individual W. M. Societies when called on. She has written approximately 150 letters and cards and traveled 460 miles. She is thankful that God has let her work in His garden and earnestly asks that you all pray for her.

Submitted in His Honor
Supt. Atlantic Association.

After the reading of the report by Mrs. Daniel, it was moved and seconded that the report be accepted. Mrs. George E. Lovell responded to the report, closing with an expression of appreciation, in behalf of the women of the Atlantic Association, for the faithful, untiring and inspiring leadership of Mrs. Daniel during the year past.

Report Adopted.

Some Associational Facts

By M. Leslie Davis, Moderator, October 26th, 1939

We are assembled here in our annual meeting, with our Brethen of the Morehead City Church. This excellent church was onstituted in 1873, with ten members, and since that date our ssociation has met with them six times, namely 1885, 1896, 1900, 904, 1915 and 1923, and of course in this good year of 1939.

It occurred to me that some facts and comparisons of our associational work, grouped around the dates of our meetings here, would be of interest to us and I trust of some benefit in spurring us on to better work for the Kingdom in this part of the world.

1885: At the annual meeting of the Eastern Association in 1884, twenty (20) of its churches were dismissed for the purpose of organizing a new association, which was to cover the territory from around Goldsboro to East Carteret County. Shortly after this meeting an organization meeting was held at LeGrange and the new association was named "Atlantic." The first regular meeting of the association was held the next year with the Morehead City Church.

The Moderator was Rev. C. A. Jenkens of New Bern; Clerk. W. G. Britt of Goldsboro; Treasurer, F. W. Hancock of New Bern.

The Morehead delegates were: D. Bell, Edward Piner, T. C. Willis, C. F. Webb and J. T. Eaton; Visitors, John E. Ray, C. L. Smith (now the owner of Edwards & Broughton), and Prof. H. W. Reinhart of Liberty Asso.

Pastors: J. T. Albritton, C. S. Cashwell, A. J. Hires, C. A. Jenkens, W. T. Jones, T. J. Leary, C. J. Nelson, Jacob Utley and Theo. Whitfield.

Salary for the Pastors that year amounted to $2975.00, plus. New Bern paid the largest salary amounting to $800.000, and Beaufort and Morehead paid $125.00, each. (These were mission churches.) The total amount paid in that year was $7177.32, of which amount $712.62 was contributed for benevolences. The per capita was 52c for missions, etc., and $5.26 for all purposes. There were 13 Sunday Schools with total enrollment of 998 which during the year had contributed $260.74 for all purposes. Alvin Willis was Supt. of the Morehead school; New Bern reported 159, Beaufort 76, Fort Barnwell 35, Morehead 80, Pollocksville 40, Smyrna 80 and Woodville 45, as S. S. enrollment. Morehead reported 2 baptisms and 104 members. These faithful brethren were laying a foundation that has meant much to our section and denomination.

1896. Dr. R. H. Lewis was Moderator; John H. Eaton, Clerk; J. C. Whitty, Treasurer; Pastor of Morehead Church was Rev. John T. Jenkins. Among visitors: John E. White, John E. Ray and Dr. John Mitchell. Baptisms reported were 170, of which Morehead furnished 21. There were 2250 members: 36 churches; 15 pastors. Total contributions reported $9823.58, a per capita of $4.36, plus. All missions and benevolences $1049.55, or a per capita of 46c. Average Pastor's salary was $131.00 plus with 8 churches reporting nothing. There were only 8 churches with Missionary Societies, Morehead among them, with C. E. Lincoln, President and Miss Viola Fulford, Secty. Four Ladies Aid Societies and 3 Sunbeam Bands. All of these 15 organizations reported $356.92. Delegates from Morehead Church were: Rev. J. T. Jenkins. J. B. Davis, Seth Arthur, L. L. Leary, Jno. H. Eaton, Needham Willis, J. W. Davis, M. S. Webb, I. B. Willis and J. O. Wade.

1900. In 1899, the Atlantic Association was divided, forming two, one of them taking the name of Neuse and our part retaining the old name and in 1900 the Atlantic met here. It then had only 9 pastors, 24 churches, 1602 members with total contributions of $7307.46. W. J. Montford was Moderator, J. N. Tolar Clerk; M. S. Webb Treasurer and S. M. Brinson, Historian. Delegates from Morehead church were I. B. Willis, Jas. Willis, T. C. Willis, L. L. Leary, M. S. Webb, T. D. Webb, U. S. G. Bell, Mrs. W. T. Jones and Mrs. Julia W. Bell. Mrs. Jones, our good friend and active Christian worker is the only one of this group, now with us. Pastors in the Association were: Joseph Aden, D. F. Aman, R. D. Carroll, A. H. Harnly, H. C. Moore, J. B. Olive, C. B. Paul, A. W. Setzer and J. N. Tolar.

The Woman's meeting met at the Methodist Church on Friday afternoon. The women of the First Church, New Bern, reported $96.79 for the years work, and the Swansboro Society and Sunbeams reported $21.60. "Miss Lillie Webb read the associational letter from Miss Heck." "Miss Williams" (from Tabernacle), "gave us a very helpful talk on 'How to interest the members of the Society.'" "Mrs. Jones read an interesting paper." (I am sure it was Mrs. W. T. Jones referred to.) "The Vice President then gave a talk of the 'Prospect and Retrospect' of our Association work." "We now have five societies in our association, those at Swansboro and Morehead having been organized this year." "Rev. A. L. Stringfield" (should be O. L. Stringfield, I feel sure) "then addressed the Societies on the subject of 'Woman's Influence,' which was greatly enjoyed." Mrs. Hight C. Moore was President and Mrs. William Webb, Secretary."

1904. Moderator J. S. Canady; Clerk and Historian, B. H. Mathews; and A. T. Moore, Treasurer. New Pastors welcomed to the association, were R. P. Walker, Morehead City; W. H. Whitehead, Beaufort; and L. M. Holloway, Pamlico field. (I was in college with all of these men and all of them have passed away.) Atlantic Church at Atlantic was received. Of interest is the following Resolution read and passed: "Resolved, That we hereby record our especial pleasure and gratitude at the generosity of Bro. John C. Whitty of New Bern, who in memory of his lamented daughter has during the past year erected at our Thomasville Orphanage, "The Rowena Whitty Building" at a cost of $3000.00 and accommodating 40 orphan girls. It is a beautiful and useful memorial of a lovely Christian girl and in whose walls "she being dead yet speaketh" and will speak through the coming years." Rev. C. B. Paul and Benjamin Ward, pastors, had died during the year. Associational School was in a prosperous condition under management of Prof. Walter L. Beach and his excellent assistants." "H. C. Moore made a strong speech for the Sunday School work of North Carolina." "Prof. J. B. Carlyle delivered an address on North Carolina of the twentieth century." Morehead church contributed on Pastor's salary $750.00, but gave for colleges and schools, $856.18. New Bern First gave $1200.000 to its Pastor, and $613.91 for Benevolence, but of this last amount only $5.20 was given for colleges and schools. Rather unusual comparison. These two churches were the only ones in the association contributing anything for the colleges and schools, as reported.

1915. In 1907, the Neuse and Atlantic Associations had merged, forming the Neuse-Atlantic Association. In 1915, Morehead Church entertained this body which had become quite a strong body. There were 16 Pastors, 53 churches, with 4538 members and had contributed that year total contributions of $49,529.73. M. Leslie Davis was Moderator; S. M. Brinson (who three years later was elected to Congress), was Vice-Moderator, and F. C. Nye, Clerk-Treasurer. The following visitors were recognized: R. T. Vann, M. L. Kesler, Chas. E. Maddrey, John E. Ray, Hight C. Moore and Thad Jones. Ten new churches were received into the association at this meeting, making a total of 63 churches, the largest number in its history, before or since. There were 606 Baptisms, 499 received by letter and 21 restored. (What a wonderful year's work.) There were 53 Sunday Schools and 5 Mission schools, with an enrollment of 5395 or 857 more than church membership in the Association. Average for benevolences was $1.60 plus, for all purposes $10.91.

1923. In 1923 our association had become a real factor in Baptist life in our part of the State. There were 15 Pastors; 59 churches, 6704 members and total contributions of $104,103.29. Of this amount $30,693.88 was contributed for missions, orphans and other benevolences. Per capita for Benevolences was $4.57, plus, and for all purposes $15.52, plus. The per capita gifts from the Southern Baptist Convention that year was $2.86 and $7.17. Our association (though a mission association in large part) going far over the Southern Baptist average. We gave the Orphanage that year $5,285.85, or a per capita of nearly 79c for this object alone.

IN 1929 Association Divided

NOW. How about NOW? In 1929 our association divided again. We have now (using 1938 figurs) 12 Pastors, 33 churches and 4200 members, with total contributions of $34,022.96. Per capita for Benevolences $1.22, and for all purposes $8.09. The Southern Convention reporting $1.27 and $6.17 respectively. Some comparisons: In 1938, Vandemere church with 18 members gave more for Benevolences than the whole association gave for Home Missions in 1885. Richlands in 1938 with 146 members lacked less than $2.00 of contributing for Benevolences, as much as the Atlantic Association gave in 1885 for State and Associational Missions.

In 1938, Swansboro and Davis Churches, with a combined membership of 302 gave to their Pastors, more than the whole Atlantic Association, gave in 1885 for all missions and all other benevolences. Beaufort in 1939 (and I use this year because as Clerk I have just made up the letter for the association), gave for benevolences, nearly $200.00 more than the whole Atlantic Association gave for missions and benevolences in 1885.

By these comparisons it does seem to me that we should take courage and go on to better things. Since the depression our association along with everything else has had hard sledding, but we can do better and with the help of our Heavenly Father, let us do better.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION
October 26, 1939

On account of a funeral service in the Baptist Church the afternoon session of the Association was held in the auditorium of the Methodist Church.

DEVOTIONAL _____ REV. J. L. MAUNEY

The congregation joined in singing "Stand Up For Jesus" and Rev. J. L. Mauney used as his text John 13:3.

RECOGNITION

The Moderator recognized and presented J. C. Hough, Superintendent of the Kennedy Home, and Herman Can-ady, a Trustee of the Home. He also presented Mrs. Wilson of the Dover Baptist Church as the only woman Mayor in North Carolina.

ORPHANAGE REPORT ---------- MRS. U. E. SWANN

The Baptist Orphanage of North Carolina was founded in 1885 with Mr. J. H. Mills the first superintendent. During the fifty-four years of its existence there have been only four general superintendents: Mr. Mills, Mr. J. B. Boone, Mr. M. L. Kesler, and Mr. I. G. Greer. This fact shows how God's hand has led in the direction of this great work.

Our orphanage now operates two homes, the Mills Home at Thomasville, and the Kennedy Home at Kinston. Mr. I. G. Greer is general superintendent with Mr. J. C. Hough in charge of the Kennedy Home. The Social Service department is under the splendid supervision of Miss Hattie Edwards. At the persent time no child is received into the orphanage until the case is thoroughly diagnosed, and thus many applications are adjusted through the efficient work of Miss Edwards without receiving them into the home.

The boys and girls of our orphanages are healthy, happy, hard-working young Americans, and most of them will make good when they leave. Many are now holding places of usefulness and honor in the civic, economic and church life of their communities. "An orphans' home is a place where sometimes the least prospects furnish the greatest opportunity and the smallest investment brings the greatest returns."

These children have educational advantages that compare favorably with those offered by other schools in the state. The Kennedy Home children attend the LaGrange High School where they have the same privileges as the other children of the community. The Mills Home school is a unit of the Thomasville graded system. Standard work is done through the grades and high school.

The expense of caring for these boys and girls averages $452.14 per day, and the payment of these bills is the responsibility of the Baptists of North Carolina. To meet this responsibility we make the following recommendations:

1. A liberal Thanksgiving offering setting apart the income of one day for the orphanage by every man, woman and child in the Atlantic Association.
2. A monthly contribution taken and sent to the orphanage each month from every Sunday School in the Association.
3. A Charity and Children Club in every Sunday School in the Association.

The task and needs of our orphanage work grow with the years and our Sunday Schools and churches are asked to make larger investments to meet these demands, remembering that the orphanage is a channel through which men and women who want to do something in the name of Jesus may enrich their own spiritual lives. What shall the harvest be? You have the answer.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. U. E. SWANN.

It was moved and seconded that the report be adopted. and was then spoken to by Superintendent J. C. Hough.

Report Adopted.

MISSION REPORT ---------- REV. J. L. MAUNEY

We meet here under the name of Missionary Baptists. Our commission was given to us by Christ while here. Down through the years we have marched, holding high the banner of the cross, carrying it into all the world. We have not rejected the name of Missionary Baptists, but we continue to glory in it. Shall we not keep on proving that we are well named and glorify the name by our liberality and zeal in making disciples of all nations?

STATE MISSIONS

For a hundred years the objective of State Missions has been to win the people of North Carolina to Christ and then to the fellowship which the church provides. Our State Missions include many varied activities, namely:

1. Missionary Pastorial Assistance. "To the poor the Gospel is preached" in many needy places. Many of our strong churches are trophies of State Missions. To those churches unable to entirely support themselves our State Mission Board lends its aid and helps to supply Pastors.
2. Teaching and Training. In early days attention was almost solely on evangelism. Our membership has grown so rapidly that now workers are engaged with the Sunday School and the B. T. U., doing much in organized work with all of these organizations.
3. Church Building. All through the years and even now, churches in strategic centers are aided in building churches houses.
4. State Missions are also playing a very important part in the lives of our students at college, the Indians, and the Negroes.
5. The Hospitals and Sanatoriums seek to administer to those sick in body and soul in the following institutions:

   Oteen Hospital, Sanatorium at Black Mountain, The State Sanatorium and Samarcand near Aberdeen.

6. General Missionaries: M. O. Alexander and J. C. Pipes are doing a wonderful work in holding revivals, aiding churches in forming fields and in answering all calls for assistance.

HOME MISSIONS

We must begin our mission work at home if we are to be successful in our other mission work. Jesus began his work at Jerusalem and it was to reach to the uttermost parts of the world. His first objective however, was to make His approach from His homeland. If we are to give Jesus to all the hungry souls of the world we must draw from the powerful resources we have at hand. The Home Mission Board has functioned for ninety-four years in making missions real at home. During that period the Board has employed 44,000 missionaries for one year or one missionary for 44,000 years. There missionaries have baptized 865,000 people, which is equal to one out of every five of our total number of church members. They have organized 8,600 churches, this being equal to one out of every three of our total number of churches. The past year has been a glorious year of achievement for Home Missions. Many Missions and Chapels have been opened, Bibles and Tracts distributed, thousands of sermons preached, over 5,000 have been led to Christ, and over 3,000 have been received into the fellowship of the church.

The past year was one of the outstanding years also financially, for the Home Mission board, receipts being $513,841.80.

The Home Mission task is larger, more difficult and more important than ever before. Let the homeland become a leader in righteousness and it will do more toward the restoration of peace, happiness and prosperity among the nations of the world than it can ever do in economic and industrial fields.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The world today is filled with strife, war, and much unrest, and each day seems to add to the problems. Man will never solve his problems alone. The one and only hope of suffering and toiling humanity is the Gospel of Christ. Vast multitudes in pagan countries still wait for God's word. Doors once open to the Gospel are now closed, therefore haste and prayer and work is needed. Last year the Foreign Mission Board received for all purposes $1,130,-083.93, making a fine increase over all other years. Six years ago the Lottie Moon Offering was $129,000.00. The 1938 offering was $315,000.00, an increase of $186,000.00 in six years. The salaries of 125 missionaries are cared for out of this magnificent offering and the remainder goes for the support of the missionary training schools in many lands, for the building and repair of missionary homes, chapels, schools, etc. Our property losses in Japan's undeclared war has reached the huge figure of at least $600,000.00 and the end is not yet.

Dr. H. H. McMillan from Central China urges all Missionary Baptists not to be discouraged over the work in China. He says that the Chinese are being brought closer to God day by day, and even in this time of trial and trouble thousands upon thousands are crowding in the churches. He also believes that this movement will penetrate into the hearts of the Japanese and both nations in the near future will come to glorify Jesus. Reports from other Foreign Mission fields are also uplifting and promise wonderful havests for the Lord. Dr. Maddry and a party of workers bring glowing accounts of work in Africa.

We all look today with hungry hearts at the unsaved and untaught throughout the world and come to understand that we as missionary Baptists must help to bring Jesus into the souls of all.

Respectfully submitted,
J. LLOYD MAUNEY.

It was duly moved and seconded that this report be adopted and Rev. M. O. Alexander, our State Missionary, was presented and spoke to the report.

SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT _____ REV. B. F. GEHRING

Since the "War to end war" and to "make the world safe for democracy" there has been such a trend towards dictatorship until it now seems that human freedom is imperiled in almost every government in the world. Even in America we have gone a long way toward a regimentation of our people and towards a centralization of power which would rob our people of their fundamental freedom. We realize that this has come about through greed for pelf and power on the part of national political leaders who know not the "Prince of Peace;" and we mourn the fact that our Churches have been so slow to obey the marching orders of the "Prince of Peace" to carry the Gospel to the ends of the earth, being well assured that Lloyd George was right when he said, "For the world it is Christ or Chaos." We pledge ourselves anew to the task of making Christ known to all the world and to use our influence to the utmost to keep the United States out of all wars except to protect America from any foreign aggressors on our shores.

We look with chagrin upon the recklessness of our American life that results in rivers of human blood. In the year 1937 accidents were responsible for approximately 106,000 deaths in the United States; 375,000 were permanently disabled and 9,500,000 received temporary injuries that incapacitated the injured for their regular pursuits. During the sum of fifteen years in which the United States has been engaged in wars the number of American soldiers killed in action or who died of wounds was 244,357. During the recent fifteen years of peace the record of deaths on the highways of the United States is 441,912. Eighty per cent of the faults of drivers in this human slaughter is listed as: "Exceeding speed limits, on the wrong side of the road, did not have right of way and reckless driving." Statistics show that liquor had a considerable share in producing these results.

We recognize the duty of our citizens to give intelligent patriotic support to our government in all worthy enterprises and to do all in their power to keep the government from infringing upon the fundamental rights of the individual in all his civil and religious relations.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT __REV. W. T. WILLIS, Jr.

Dr. Hight C. Moore, Secretary, Southern Baptist Convention, states the following: "Christian education is education in a Christian atmosphere. There is such a thing as intellectual climate and no one can thrive in mind and heart any more than in body without the tonic of pure air. Christian education magnifies Christian ideals. It recognizes wisdom as the principal thing, places character and conduct above clothes and cash, and puts first things first declaring 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God.' Christian education requires specific Christian instruction. Some subjects have greater educating power than others and herein we accord primacy to those who touch and train heart and soul. Christian education means equipment for Christian usefulness. It capacitates for the greatest possible service to God and man."

In an article under the heading, "Should Christianity Become and Remain Educational?" Dr. J. B. Lawrence writes, "In his book on enduring investments, Roger Babson, the great statistician, says, 'The crying need of the hour is not more factories or materials, not more railroads or steamships, not more armies or navies, but rather more Christian education.' . . . Before we can have Christian education we must have an educational Christianity. Our people must write education in their creeds and make it a matter of faith . . . Education is a deliberate effort to instruct, direct, and train the individual." It is his conviction that Baptists should enter the field of education, equip, maintain and run their own schools for the distinct purpose of giving a Christian education of the character and kind that they want their boys and girls to have." Dr. Lawrence gives his reasons for this conviction:

1. "Christianity should become and remain educational because the nature of education is such that its highest purpose cannot be realized without the Christian impulse." For him, the true purpose of education is the purposeful instruction, training, and direction of beauty and perfection and power of which the individual is capable, and to direct this developed individual in the field of noble service

2. "Christianity should become and remain educational because the nature of its processes are such that these processes will not produce the desired result without the Christian motive." By the processes of education, Dr. Lawrence means the impartation of knowledge, the development and training of powers, and the direction of the developed life in the field of service. A real Christian college will strengthen Christian faith. The personalities of the professors will influence greatly the personalities of their pupils. Christian teachers will strengthen faith, while atheistic and agnostic teachers will destroy faith in their pupils. The spirit of the college has much to do with the character of the students.

Dr. George W. Paschal stated in an article not long ago several conclusions which he had reached after almost a half century of studying higher education in North Carolina:

1. "Our Baptist colleges of North Carolina, both senior colleges and junior colleges, must fight for their existence if they are to continue to survive.

2. "The time has come when the Baptists of North Carolina must either retreat or advance in their educational program.

3. "Money, much money, will be needed to sustain any acceptable educational program of higher education by North Carolina Baptists.

4. "The united support of the Baptists of North Carolina will be needed for a successful program of higher education."

Perhaps most of us know that North Carolina Baptists have two senior colleges: Wake Forest and Meredith, and five junior colleges: Mars Hill, Campbell, Chowan, Wingate, and Boiling Springs. All of them are fine colleges, and have done creditable work. A good percentage of the most responsible positions in the state are held by graduates of these schools. Thousands of our finest young people are enrolled in them this year, and are receiving training from Christian professors to fit them for more worthwhile lives. We have, and ought to have, a righteous pride in our colleges.

On the other hand, there is a less cheerful condition to be considered seriously. The Baptist colleges of North Carolina are laboring under an almost impossible handicap, a handicap which may well become impossible within the near future. While state institutions have been brought into one system, forming the Greater University of North Carolina, with one general board of trustees, with large appropriations from the State Treasury sufficient to meet their ever expanding program, and with the Federal Government continually providing new buildings and other improvements, our Baptist colleges have remained stationary, being unable to provide dormitories and classrooms and laboratories for more than a limited number of students. Because of a limited income, they are unable to provide enough teachers for any expanding curriculum of such courses as the present calls for. Instead of keeping abreast of other institutions of higher education, our colleges are being left behind, and more and more of our finest young men and women are finding it necessary to enter other colleges for the courses they wish to study.

Our colleges are headed by great and good men, the professors are of the best, the students are at least the equal of those in other schools, but there is grave danger that unless more liberal support is forthcoming, some of our colleges will have to close their doors. Can North Carolina Baptists afford to allow that to occur? If we cannot, then there must be a change before long. Our young people deserve the best in scholastic training as well as in Christian culture. They need the godly influence of consecrated professors such as may be had in our denominational colleges, but if they find that our schools cannot provide the courses they wish to study, they will certainly go elsewhere.

Of course, Christian education is not confined to our great colleges. Several other agencies have their part in this work; the home has the first opportunity to train children, to mould their minds in the right way; the church and its various organizations, the Sunday school, the W. M. U., the Baptist Training Union, all have a vital part in forming Christian character; our orphanage has been a blessing to thousands of children; the influence of good people has strengthened the moral and spiritual fibers of multiplied thousands; the study of God's Word in secret places of worship, and the prayers offered to the Maker of heaven and earth—all of these have much to offer in the way of Christian education.

Let us not become discouraged, but rather go forward in the strength of the Lord, rejoicing that it is our privilege to be children of the King. May we believe with all our heart these words of Whipple: "God is glorified, not by our groans, but by our thanksgivings; and all good thoughts and good actions claim a natural alliance with good cheer."

Respectfully submitted,
R. T. WILLIS, Jr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT _____ DR. Z. V. PARKER

Atlantic Baptist Association, 1939

The Sunday School meets on Sunday and I believe that is the reason it is called Sunday School, however, a Sunday School is not run on Sunday. It requires seven days to run a Sunday School. The meeting of the Sunday School Sunday morning is for the purpose of gathering the fruits, reaping the results of the other six days, done by the officers and teachers. Many of us Superintendents do not seem to understand this.

On Sunday morning we go to Sunday School seemingly expecting a large increase in our attendance over last Sunday, when we have not visited or solicited a single absentee or prospective pupil during the week by either officers or teachers.

On Sunday morning pupils of the 30 Sunday Schools in the Atlantic Association have a right to expect well prepared and taught lessons, but on the contrary many times they are disappointed because the teacher has failed to prepare the lesson properly.

On Sunday mornings teachers go to their schools seemingly expecting an outpouring of the Holy Spirits Power to be manifested in saving lost pupils, and to give us freedom of speech, to teach when we haven't done anything during the week in preparation of the lesson, no prayers has he made to ask his divine guidance.

Brother Superintendent, if you are only devoting one hour to your Sunday School Sunday mornings, let's stop wondering why we do not get the desired results. It is impossible. It takes seven days to run a Sunday School.

We do not necessarily have to quit our business, but you can give a little time to study, a little time to visit and some time to prayer. then a little to planning with your assistant.

As a whole we have made little material gains this year. According to statistics we have lost one Sunday School. We now have 30 schools, three churches of the 33 not having Sunday School.

We have gained about 150 in total enrollment and gained about 120 in average attendance.

	Total	Gain avg.
Our total enrollment last year	3030	...
Our average attendance last year	1613	...
Our total this year (enrollment)	3199	169
Our total average attendance	1773	160

Annual W. M. U. Meeting

The annual meeting of the W. M. U. of the Atlantic Association met with Davis Baptist Church Thursday, October 5, 1939, at 10:30 A. M., with Mrs. L. B. Daniel, Superintendent, presiding.

The session opened with song, "I Love To Tell the Story", W. M. U. hymn for the year, and prayer following by Mrs. Daniel.

Mrs. D. L. Lewis, of Marshallburg, led devotional taken from the Acts of the Apostles. Her remarks were heart-searching, urging that we continually be concerned about "lost souls".

A very gracious welcome was accorded by Mrs. Robert Willis, president of hostess society. Response by Mrs. Buckmaster, of Swansboro, was very inspiring.

Recognition of visitors, pastors and leaders was next in order, visitors being Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Bryan, from China; Mrs. J. S. Farmer of Raleigh, and Mrs. E. B. Beasley of Fountain, N. C., Divisional Supt. Rev. S. B. Wilson of Ft. Barnwell, Rev. B. H. Gehring of Beaufort, Rev. J. L. Mauney of Pollocksville, Rev. Mr. Stukebroke of New Bern. Presidents of Missionary Societies present 13, Sunbeam Leaders 3, Girls' Auxiliary 6, Y. W. A. 1, R. A. 5, Group Leaders 2.

After a trio from Oriental choir sang "Tell Me the Old, Old Story", Committees were appointed as follows:

Resolutions—Mrs. R. Cole Lee, Morehead City; Mrs. Sam Hudson, Pollocksville; Mrs. W. G. Dixon, Oriental.

Nominating Committee—Mrs. C. T. Gillikin, Morehead City; Mrs. Robert Willis, Davis; Mrs. J. L. Mauney, Pollocksville; Mrs. Carlyle Harker, New Bern; Mrs. Geo. Lovell, New Bern.

Time and Place—Mrs. H. M. Hines, Pollocksville; Mrs.

Chas. Hall, New Bern; Mrs. M. L. Piner, Morehead City.

Reports of Group Leaders were encouraging. Following Personal Service report by Mrs. M. L. Davis, a pageant rendered by members of the Morehead City Society was very enlightening and greatly enjoyed. Reports of Mission Study by Mrs. W. G. Dixon was interesting; likewise the joint report of Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle, past young people's leader, and Mrs. R. D. Barnhill. Mrs. Carlyle Harker, of New Bern, sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go", preceding address by Dr. R. T. Bryan of China, which was placed about "Optimistic Encouragement". Considering conditions in China, which is a different China today because of what Japan has done, there's a greater need for more missionaries. He urged the reading of Psalm 150, which is an exhortation to praise God, therefore advising Christians to make much of music. Missionaries are needed for all phases of the work. War has opened the door of China to Christ. Seeming defeat becomes a victory. Referring to Hebrews, 7th Chapter, 25th verse, Christ is still interceding for us. We must have optimism in Christianity.

Following benediction the session adjourned for lunch.

Afternoon Session

Song, "Softly and Tenderly" was used in opening the afternoon session. Isaiah, 52nd chapter, 7th verse, Mrs. Hines chose for devotional; questioning in telling the story of Jesus—are we making it a serious task? Her remarks were very inspiring and impressive.

Mrs. E. B. Beasley, of Fountain, N. C., Divisional Superintendent, brought greetings to the gathering and told of plans which have been made by the State and Divisional officers concerning work for the coming year.

Special music, a duet, "Strength for Today", by Mrs. R. T. Willis, Sr., and Mrs. C. T. Gillikin, of Morehead City, was followed by Memorial Service for four members who had died during the past year, and for Mrs. Edna R. Harris, of Raleigh, State Secretary of W. M. U., was held by Mrs. A. L. Dail and Mrs. R. W. Davis, of Tabernacle W. M. S., New Bern.

Mrs. J. S. Farmer, of Raleigh, N. C., presented the afternoon's inspirational address on "The Mission Work". Rev. K.

D. Stukenbrok, of New Bern, Missionary of First Baptist Church, recalled memories connected with Dr. Bryan's work in China.

Mrs. R. T. Bryan, wife of Dr. Bryan, returned missionary, paid tribute to the Baptist women of the Southern Baptist Convention who had made it possible for her to go to China for missionary work.

Reports were submitted. Resolutions; Time and Place—Swansboro was selected and the date chosen was Thursday, Oct. 6, 1940. Nominating Committee submitted the following list of officers to serve next year:

Mrs. L. B. Daniel, Supt. _____ New Bern, First Church
Mrs. J. F. Giddens, Asst. Supt. _____ Morehead City

Proceedings

The fifty-seventh annual sesison of the Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina convened in Pollocksville, N. C., October 24-25, 1940, with the Baptist Church of that town as host.

Moderator M. Leslie Davis of Beaufort presided over the sessions, with the Vice Moderator, R. A. Thompson of New Bern, and Clerk-Treasurer Geo. E. Lovell of No. Harlowe in attendance at each session.

There were present, besides the officers, eleven of our pastors, fourteen guest speakers or singers, ten visitors and 240 members of 29 of our 33 churches.

The annual church letter was received from all churches of the association showing a present membership of 4308, with 163 baptisms during the year past.

Our host church served a noon dinner each day to all in attendance, while several were entertained over Thursday night in the homes of local members.

We regret that a conflict in dates called many of our ladies to a meeting of the Rocky Mount Division of the W. M. U. in New Bern, thus materially decreasing our attendance.

Christian Education Report _____ Rev. D. J. Robinson

"Madame, thou errest: I say, there is no darkness but ignorance." These are the words of Shakespeare in his Twelfth Night. The church has long realized the wisdom of this premise of the Bard of Stratford, but it also senses a deeper truth that there can be ignorance of soul as well as ignorance of mind. The Psalmist gave us the key when he recorded, "The entrance of thy words giveth light, it giveth understanding to the simple." With this in mind our denomination has established Christian colleges as lighthouses, to send forth cultural and spiritual beams that shall flood the minds and souls of our youth and make them as cities set upon hills whose light cannot be hid.

The late Dr. W. L. Poteat, whom we all loved and honored, said to a graduating class, "Young gentlemen, I hope that your intellect and your faith may keep on good terms and walk through life in closest friendship. They will need each other. There will come times when faith will turn to intellect and say, "I thank you for the light you bring to me about the facts of the material universe' and there will be times when intellect will turn to faith and say, 'I need you now. I am in the presence of the spiritual and the supernatural. I can't walk alone here. You must help me, and I thank you for the light that you bring to the spiritual and supernatural.' " This is the true function of the Christian college and there is increasing evidence all are striving and succeeding in this high endeavor.

Our Christian colleges are filling a deep need in our civilization. There are three great relationships of life, namely, man's relationship to God, man's relationship to each other, and man's relationship to the material universe in which we live. It is only as we learn to give each one of these a proper place in life that we find the highest happiness and the most useful service. It is only when a proper balance of these relationships are found that personality can be fully developed. I think this is what Jesus meant on one occasion when he said, "Be ye perfect." If you will look up the full meaning of that word and the context you will see, I think, that Jesus was not talking about sinless perfection per se, but when the perfect balance is made then we will be pretty nearly rid of sin. Sin comes into life when one of these relationships is out of focus. It becomes the task of religious education to promote and secure this balance. It begins in the home and goes on out into life. The training of the intellect may become worse than nothing, if the proper attitudes of life have not been developed first. We must give to life the proper center. That is, we must see that life does not revolve around itself, but around Jesus and service, and it is only when we have this attitude can life become happy and useful. Jesus once said, "Life does not consist of the abundance of the things which a man hath." That would apply to the intellect as well as to the material universe. The accumulation of mere facts is not education in the Christian sense of that word.

We do not consider a man fit to teach in one of our Christian colleges merely because he has accumulated a great many facts. We know that these are necessary, but our first question should be what kind of soul has the person developed, for without the right kind of soul no man or woman is fit to teach youth anywhere, much less in a Christian college. Religion is caught more than it is taught.

We have at the head of our various colleges great and good men. We have a fine group of students, but there is a grave danger with the rising tide of educational facilities that are about us that we shall allow our colleges to become obsolete in the material equipment. Many students are turning elsewhere because we do not have material equipment. What we need is not some great Duke to give us millions, for that is the very thing that would defeat the purpose of our Christian colleges. We need the support of every man, woman, boy and girl in our churches. We are well able to take care of all our needs. When our people catch the spirit of our Master and feel that they are not come to be ministered unto but to minister to the needs of our world. When we come to God's method of financing our program, when each one will give each week as the Lord has prospered, then the money will be no problem, and I am persuaded that when we become faithful in this which Jesus said is the least realm of life, that we will move forward in a great way to many other things: For Jesus said that if we were unfaithful in the least we would also be unfaithful in the larger things of life. Let us arise to meet the need of our day and make our colleges Christian in fact as well as in name, and if we do then we must support them.

Respectfully submitted,

D. J. ROBINSON.

The Rev. D. J. Robinson read his report and moved its adoption, and motion seconded. Report adopted.

Sunday School Report ---------- D. B. Willis

Dr. Z. V. Parker, in beginning his report to the Association last year on Sunday schools stated, "The Sunday school meets on Sunday and I believe that is the reason it is called Sunday school; however, a Sunday school is not run on Sunday. It requires seven days to run a Sunday school."

Granting the correctness of the above statement, what are we doing in the seven days to make the Sunday school stronger?

For the year 1939 our total enrollment, exclusive of Extension Department and Cradle Roll, was 3,098. We had an average attendance of 1,757, or 57 per cent. Just a few more than half of our enrollment.

I offer below, for our consideration, a few suggestions, which if religiously followed I believe will greatly strengthen our work.

1. Devotional: Use of Bibles by all above Primary Department every Sunday.
2. Contact: Pray and visit. See absentees especially.
3. Attractive: Change appearance of meeting place often with flowers or some simple decoration.
4. Entertainment: A varied program with something special every Sunday. Encourage class socials.
5. Planning: Meeting of all workers at least once each month for suggestions and exchange of ideas.

There are no figures available for 1940 at this time but the minutes will show them. As early as possible secure a copy, compare with 1939, and regardless of what you find, may we all resolve to do better hence forth and forever.

Respectfully submitted,
D. B. WILLIS.

Religious Literature Report _____ Rev. A. L. Benton

The word religion is so indefinite and broad in its meaning. I wish, therefore, to substitute the word Christian. Religion refers to one's "Allegiance to a god or gods . . . any system of faith and worship; as, the religion of the Greeks, Hindus, and Mohammedans." Winstons Universal Reference Library.

Literature is the art of converting thoughts into words and expressing them with type or pen. Christian literature is the writing of Christian men and women who are striving to elevate the thoughts, words, and deeds of their readers. Someone has said something like this: "We are a part of all with which we come in contact." If this is true, we ought to feed our minds on the best Christian literature available.

We have a very commendable variety of periodicals.

THE BIBLICAL RECORDER—Our own state Baptist paper owned and operated by the Baptists of North Carolina. It is published weekly, or 51 copies a year, and the subscription price, single $2, or in church clubs $1.50 per year. The total subscription as of September 30,, 1940 was 13,387 and, of course, nearly all of them in North Carolina. According to our associational minutes, we received 204 copies of the Recorder last year. The same year, 1939, we reported 4,260 church members. If these members averaged five to the family there was 852 Baptist families, 204 receiving the Recorder and 648 families that did not get it.

THE CHARITY AND CHILDREN—Is also a weekly publication, owned by us and operated by our orphanage at Thomasville. Single subscriptions are $1 and clubs of ten or more to one address, 60 cents per year. We are glad to report 310 copies of CHARITY AND CHILDREN coming to a number of the churches of the Atlantic Association with a few other subscriptions, total not exceeding 360.

HOME MISSION—Is a publication of the Home Mission Board and a monthly magazine which brings challenging information from our Southern States for only 25 cents a year. The total subscription to North Carolina is 4,199 and 43,000 in all the states.

WOMANS MISSIONARY UNION PUBLICATIONS—Royal Service: A monthly publication, price 50 cents and 3,338 subscribers in North Carolina. WORLDS COMRADES, also a monthly publication for $1 per year, subscription list to North Carolina is 1,990. THE WINDOW is a monthly publication for $1, and coming to our state is 1,224 copies—totals for woman's publications, 11,552 copies.

THE COMMISSION—Is a monthly publication of our Foreign Mission Board which brings to us good news from the other side of the earth. The subscription price is 50 cents per year. North Carolina has the third largest suggested quota, Texas first; Virginia second. Our total subscription to THE COMMISSION in North Carolina is 1,325 or 10 percent of the subscriptions in the United States.

I heartily recommend every one of these for your reading.

Respectfully submitted,

A. L. BENTON.

STATE MISSIONS

The object of State Missions is to win the people of North Carolina to Christ and to an acknowledgment and demonstration of the Lordship of Jesus.

Under the splendid leadership of our General Secretary, Mr. M. A. Huggins, we have two general missionaries, Rev. M. O. Alexander and Rev. J. C. Pipes, who visit scores of churches during the year, teaching stewardship and missions, seeking to lead the people to adopt a progressive program in the support of all that Baptists are trying to do.

Our work among the Baptist Negroes in the State is carried on by Rev. W. C. Somerville, assisted by Rev. D. C. Clanton. These men are seeking to build in the Negro life of our State, Christian ideals.

There are many churches in our State where the people are unable to provie a living income for a pastor. These churches are aided by the State Board.

Rev. E. M. Harris is doing a great work in preaching to the girls at Samarcand. He also ministers to the patients at State Sanatorium. Rev. Guy Marlow is at work at Western North Carolina Sanitorium and Rev. Wayne Williams at Oteen, the veterans' hospital.

Mr. Crouch, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Brooks are in charge of the Sunday school and B. T. U. departments.

We must hurry on to get a peep at the work being done by Mr. Crouch, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Brooks in the Sunday school and B. T. U. departments. Let us spend a day with Mr. Morgan in one of the association-wide Sunday School Enlargement Campaigns. We will find that he has gathered around him some twenty-five of the choicest young people that can be secured and that each one is teaching and working in some needy church. Then we will spend a while with Mr. Brooks, who with a score or more of fine young people is reaching sometimes in a single week twenty-five churches in the interest of B. T. U. work. It may be in the East, in the West or in the Piedmont Carolina.

Mr. Crouch will wish us to go with him to the campuses of some of our colleges, as Chapel Hill, where there are some eight hundred Baptist students, or State College in Raleigh with some eight hundred students, and then the other state colleges with their hundreds of students. Mr. Crouch will tell you that with practically no help all possible is being done to provide a normal church life for these Baptist boys and girls who are away from home and the home church.

Our work among the Indians in Robeson County is being directed by Mr. and Mrs. Lunsford, Pembroke.

This work is all made possible through the gifts to the co-operative program and the offering in September through the W. M. U. and in October through the Sunday schools and the churches as a whole.

HOME MISSIONS

The strategic point of approach to the world-task is the homeland. Christ must conquer in the homeland if we expect to win victories for Him in lands afar. We must make the religion of Jesus triumphant at home if we would make it triumphant abroad.

The Home Mission Board is giving itself to the task of giving our Christ to our country. The Board believes that the heart and soul of missions is the making and baptizing of disciples. It is, therefore, majoring on preaching the gospel among the Indians, the foreigners, the Negroes, in the congested sections and centers of our land, and in Cuba and Panama.

The past year has been a year of glorious achievements for the Home Missions. The Lord has richly blessed our missionaries in every field. We now have 411 missionaries working in 863 mission stations. During the past year we have added 40 to our mission force, opened 93 new mission stations and acquired 14 pieces of property. During the year our missionaries have distributed 40,362 Bibles, Testaments, and portions of Scripture and 660,847 tracts. They have preached 34,008 sermons, led over 9,000 to make profession of faith in Christ and received into fellowship with the church 4,672.

During the past year we have seen the greatest ingathering of Jewish souls ever witnessed. From all parts of the Southland letters have been pouring in to Rev. Jacob Gartenhaus, field secretary, telling the joyful news of Jewish friends turning to Christ.

The past year has been one of the best financially, for many years for the Home Mission Board. Receipts were larger than for the year before. Marked progress has been made in the payment of the debt. The Board received from all sources in 1939, $544,-289.04. This is an increase over the receipts of the year before.

The treasurer's report shows that $159,585.15 was paid on the principal of the debt. A debt payment program has been mapped out which will liquidate all the debts of the Home Mission Board by 1945, provided the receipts do not fall below the receipts of 1939.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The war clouds which have been threatening for several years have burst sending their downpour of destruction and death upon defenseless populations. But even out of the wreckage and ruin, the Son of Righteousness is rising with healing in His wings.

The ForeignM ission Board now has 456 missionaries and 2,900 native workers in the 16 countries in which it is operating. Scattered throughout these fields there are 1,883 churches, of which 1,180 are self-supporting, and 3,269 outstations. The total membership of these churches is 236,265. During the past year 18,606 have come into the fellowship of the churches by baptism.

The indebtedness of the Board has been decreasing rather rapidly. Indeed, during the seven years of Dr. Maddrey's administration, it has been reduced from $1,110,000 to $245,000. It is firmly believed that the Board will be entirely free from debt when its one hundredth anniversary is observed in 1945.

Gifts from the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering have been growing through the years. the 1939 ingathering having reached the high mark of $330,424.70. As a result of these gifts, scores of missionaries have been sent out, missionary homes have been built, chapels and schools have been erected, hospitals have been repaired and enlarged. In other words, the Great Commission has been carried out through the generous outpouring of our Southern Baptist women.

From practically every part of the world there come reports concerning the progress of the Gospel.

Although Europe and the Near East are torn and bleeding, our missionaries are staying by the work and the Lord is blessing their labors.

Because of the unspeakable circumstances that the war has occasioned, British and other European Baptists have been forced to limit their missionary activity. Indeed, the time is at hand when more than 400 British Baptist missionaries are likely to be cut off from the mother society. Southern Baptists have their own burdens, but surely they will not deny the pitiful appeal for help that comes from across the ATLANTIC.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. THOMPSON.

along with plans now preparing for definite action looking toward a statewide referendum on the liquor question next year. A free will offering, for this cause, amounting to $5.22, was made.

Orphanage Report _____ Mrs. J. L. Hodges

The orphanage holds a very large place in the heart and thought of every North Carolina Baptist who realizes the importance of the work being done at our two orphanages and the supplemental "Home Aid." The orphanage is an asset to the Baptists, not a liability.

Surely no informed Baptist need be told of how fine a record the orphans make when they go out into the big world on their own. The records show that every child who has come under the influence, teaching and training of our orphanage personnel have proved themselves worthy products of a Christian institution.

In the fifty-five years of our orphanage work, Mr. Mills, Mr. Boone, Mr. Kesler, the much loved and greatly revered first three superintendents of our orphanage, have builded wisely and well, both materially as to the accommodations and appurtenances, and also otherwise, as to the character and accomplishments of the individual child. Our present superintendent, Mr. I. G. Greer, of Thomasville, and Mr. Hough, of the Kennedy Home, are continuing the same fine type of work.

We are proud of our orphanage; proud of its personnel, proud of its standards, proud of its products. We have seen children, underprivileged, unruly, rebellious, unkempt and uncared for; lawless and loveless, taken in by an orphanage and made into fine, upstanding young Christian citizens, transformed by the power of understanding love intelligently portrayed.

We are glad the orphanage feeds and clothes and houses our destitute children but gladder still that they teach and train them, but gladdest of all that they love them.

No individual, nor institution, has benefitted a person, no matter what else has been done, unless and until the sources of character and love have been stimulated to function better in that person's heart and life.

We are glad the orphanage disciplines the children. An undisciplined character is like a floating power bomb—a menace to all it comes in contact with, and destined to self destruction.

We are glad the orphanage teaches the children. They teach them, among many other things, cleanliness—clean bodies; clean surroundings; clean words; clean deeds; clean minds; clean thoughts. And they teach them to not only keep clean teeth but clean breaths.

(Parenthetically)—Halitosis hasn't a thing on nicotineitis. I often wonder how the teachers at the orphanage explain to the children there the inconsistency of some of our smoking, chewing, high smelling preachers and denominational leaders in contradistinction to the teachings to the orphanage children that the use of tobacco is not allowed because it is unclean, untidy, unhealthful and extravagant, and in violation of the finer meanings of the Scriptures.

I hope they don't have as much trouble and embarrassment over it as I did with my boy and other boys I've tried to teach. "What you do screams so loud in my ears I can't hear the whisper of what you say," is a truth even if a misquotation.

We are glad the orphanage children are taught the Bible; the one sure unchangeable foundation for our faith and Christian living. I have never known an orphanage product who doubted the Bible, nor one who was willing to tie up with aliens of the faith, even for so-called expediency. The reason we have fifth columnists in the Baptist ranks today is, in my opinion, because they do not know, or do not believe the Bible. I term, as a fifth columnist, one who would break down the protective separateness of Baptists. You can build a house or a structure of sorts successfully with one, or many, of divergent faith, but you can't build Christ's Church .

You can tie together two dissimilar things, but you can't unite them, not in any God-given unity. You can't make a tissue covered, ribbon tied Christmas present grow on a holly tree; you can only tie it on.

May I repeat that we are glad the orphanage teaches the children in her care, the Bible, and thus garrisons them against the popular flim-flam theories and isms of today.

We are glad the orphanage trains the children. They train them in the useful employments and also in the adorning accomplishments. They teach them to do the many tasks about the home, yard, garden, barn and farm. Cooking, dishwashing, house-cleaning and all such necessary activities are taught in proper relationship to comfortable and gracious living. They are given an introduction into real homemaking and community living. They are taught appreciation of the good and the beautiful in the world about them and also in their own inner life. They are trained in the social interchange of normal living and given a chance to meet life as it is everyday, and taught to meet its requirements in an adequate manner and Christian spirit; to solve its problems and salvage its prerequisites; to grasp life's gifts and discard its griefs; to avail themselves of its protections and avoid its pitfalls. They are trained, taught and led, by precept and example, to learn and love and laugh and lift. To value the giver above the gift. To use their tears to wash their eyes. To meet each day with a glad surprise. To grow more gentle as they grow more strong. To use each failure to help them along. To hold most dear the treasures of heart. To love God, each other, and do their part. In short, to be healthy, busy, contented, happy, normal Christian young folk.

God help us to faithfully fulifll our every obligation to them.

Respectfully submitted,

LEILA M. HODGES.

RESOLVED:

1. That this Association express its appreciation to the Pollocksville Baptist Church and its pastor for the cordial reception which they have given us and their thoughfulness in providing for our comfort and convenience during these meetings.
2. That we express our thanks to the Pollocksville school authorities for the kindness they have shown in granting to us the use of these buildings and grounds during these annual sessions.

SHORT SKETCHES OF THE LIVES OF THE MODERATORS OF THE ATLANTIC AND NEUSE-ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATIONS

By

M. LESLIE DAVIS, Moderator

In 1794, the territory south of the Tar River in North Carolina, reaching nearly to the southern boundary of the state, was "cut off" from the Kehukee Association, forming a new association called Neuse.

In the new association there were three churches in Carteret County, three in Craven County, one in Onslow County and one in Jones County, besides many others in other counties not now covered by the Atlantic Association.

In 1844, the Neuse and Goshen Associations combined, forming the Union Association. In 1865, the word Union being rather obnoxious name to our brethren, the name was changed to Eastern In 1884, the Eastern Association, meeting here in Pollocksville, dismissed twenty churches, ranging from Goldsboro to East Carteret, for the purpose of organizing a new association. So at LaGrange in October, 1884, the Atlantic Association was organized.

Since that date sixteen men have been moderators of the Atlantic and Neuse-Atlantic Associations. All are dead except three; namely, Dr. J. Y. Joyner, Dr. Z. V. Parker and this writer. It is concerning fifteen of these men that I wish to call your attention, as all of them were very worthy and active Baptists and were towers of strength in their communities and the association and many of them citizens whose influence in church and state went far beyond their home communities. I wish to put on record, at least, short accounts of their lives and activities. These fifteen men have been civic and religious leaders. Will you bear with me as I attempt in a small way to call your attention to them?

1884. W. G. BRINSON:

William George Brinson was born in Craven County. He was in the Confederate Army with the 10th N. C. Artillery, chiefly in this state, and was captured at Fort Fisher. In 1863 he was elected Clerk of the Superior Court of Craven County and served a while. He was married in 1866 to Miss Kittie E. Chestnut. Their children were James M. and Samuel M. Brinson, both being graduates of Wake Forest College.

Judge R. A. Nunn of New Bern says: "I recollect Mr. George Brinson very well. He was a great friend and associate of Hon.

Charles C. Clark and W. F. Rountree, both Baptists. He was in the fire insurance agency business in South Front Street with office on the first floor and in the summer time he and his friends sat out in front of the office and talked." He belonged to many fraternal orders. For many years he was a Justice of the Peace and for a while a County Commissioner. "With engaging manners and kind disposition he made many friends and was highly regarded and respected by the whole community," says Judge Nunn.

He departed this life in 1896, his widow surviving until 1907. Their son, James M. Brinson, a lawyer, moved west and died a few years ago. Samuel M. Brinson will be mentioned in a following sketch.

1885. C. A. JENKINS:

C. A. Jenkins was born in Yazoo City, Mississippi, in 1850. Soon after the Civil War he went to the University of Virginia and remained there until he had completed his education.

He married Lillie Shepherd Cocke in 1873, and after teaching in Virginia a year, became convinced that Baptists' doctrines were right, and left the Episcopal Church in which he had been reared and became not only a Baptist, but a Baptist preacher. His first charge was a small North Carolina church, his first pastorates being in Franklinton, Warsaw and Louisburg.

He owed for his education, and published "Baptist Doctrines," his first book, during the first pastorate. The book yielded him exactly enough to pay the debt.

This man of God, like Elijah, was a man of prayer, and there were many crises in his life when he brought down fire on Carmel by prayer. He was true to his convictions and uncompromising with principle. He believed in a very personal God, and the Bible from cover to cover. He was especially gifted in public prayer, and was often called upon by civic organizations for this service. His interpretation of the Scriptures was always given after careful study, and his preaching attracted old and young alike.

Other pastorates followed: Oxford, New Bern, Oxford again, Goldsboro, New Brunswick, New Jersey, Goldsboro again, Chapel Hill, Spray, Shelby, Mount Moriah, Graner, Wendell and Zebulon.

During these active years he wrote: "Pot Hooks," "What Made Me a Baptist," "The Bride's Return," and "Good Gumption." His last work, "Christ at the Phone," was published a short time before his death, which occurred at the age of seventy-seven on February 8th, 1927, at his home in Clayton.

On April 9th, 1923, his wife died at the age of 68.

There were eight children born of this union; only three are living. They are: Rev. Carter A. Jenkins of Louisville, Kentucky, who at an early age became a minister; Mrs. Harry Hobson of Hampton, Virginia; and Mrs. D. J. Thurston of Clayton, North Carolina.

(These facts were furnished by Brother Jenkins' daughter, Mrs. Thurston.)

1886 and 1887. DR. THEO. WHITFIELD.

Dr. Theodore Whitfield was born in Hinds County, Mississippi, on January 31st, 1834. He came of North Carolina Baptist stock. His great-uncle, Lewis Whitfield, preached at Pleasant Plains and was Moderator of the Kehukee Association in North Carolina for many years. His father, Benj. Whitfield, moved to Mississippi from North Carolina. Dr. Whitfield's mother was the granddaughter of Lemuel Hatch of Jones County, N. C., "a man of the highest social standing and a leader in the councils of the American Revolutionists." Her father, Benj. Hatch, moved from North Carolina to Alabama. It was from his mother that Dr. Whitfield inherited his aesthetic nature.

Dr. Whitfield returned to North Carolina for his college training, graduating at the University in 1854, third in his class. He returned to Mississippi expecting to be a planter like his father, but after two years decided to make his life worthwhile. He entered the ministry, taking his theological course at Newton, near Boston, where he graduated in 1858.

His first pastorate was at Danville, Ky., where he was ordained. He was pastor in Aberdeen, Miss., in 1861 and in 1863 he did work among the paroled prisoners at Demopolis, Ala. In 1864, he accepted call to Goldsboro, N. C. His wife was a great helper to him here during the trying times of the war, as well as through his life, and she "actually canvassed the Federal camps for money enough to buy a reed organ for the church."

He married Miss Annie E. Morehead, daughter of Hon. Jas. T. Morehead of Greensboro and niece of Gov. John M. Morehead, in 1859. He preached in Jackson and Meredian, Miss., and for one year taught at Mississippi College. In 1874 he accepted pastorate of Baptist Church at Charlotte, where he remained until 1882. Here a monumental work was done by him and his unusually talented wife. A new church was built. "Even then so strong was their inferiority complex, it was argued that Tryon Street was too prominent a street for a Baptist church and anyway they should 'wait till Tilden takes his seat' ". It was during this pastorate that my wife's mother (Mrs. T. N. Ivey, nee Dowd), with her mother, Mrs. James C. Dowd, were baptized by Dr. Whitfield. In 1883, Dr. Whitfield became pastor of Goldsboro for a second time. Then in 1886 he became pastor at New Bern and remained until the fall of 1887, when he went to Richmond as pastor of Fulton church in that city, which was to be his last pastorate.

It will be of interest to our women to know that when the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary of Southern Baptist Convention, was organized in 1888, that Mrs. Theo. Whitfield had the distinguished honor of presiding at the organization meeting. The last public meeting she attended was the Richmond Jubilate (W. M. U. 1914), where she was an honored guest speaking to the women then assembled, of some of her interesting reminiscences.

Dr. Whitfield died May 28, 1894, and his wife died November 12th, 1914.

Their daughter, Miss Emma Whitfield, a very talented woman, died in 1932. She was an outstanding artist, and among many of her pictures, she painted a portrait of Miss Fannie Heck. The only surviving child is Mr. Geo. H. Whitfield of Richmond, to whom I am indebted for the facts concerning his brilliant father and at one time an active statesman in our beloved association.

1888. DR. J. Y. JOYNER.

Dr. James Yadkin Joyner was born August 7th, 1862, in Davidson County, North Carolina, and is the son of the late John and Sallie A. (Wooten) Joyner. His grandather, John Joyner, was a planter in Pitt County, and a leading member of the Primitive Baptist Church and a lay preacher of the same. This active Primitive Baptist lost his membership in that church because he sent his sons to Wake Forest College and advocated missions and Sunday schools.

Dr. Joyner received his early education in the academy at LaGrange and graduated at the University of North Carolina in 1881, the youngest member of his class, being only 19 years of age. He taught school at LaGrange for 3 years and then went to Winston and assisted in the organization of the first graded school at that place, the Chairman of Board of Trustees being the famous Calvin H. Wiley, the State's first Superintendent of Public Schools. He later studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1886. He began the practice of law at Goldsboro, his partners being the latter Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Faircloth and Superior Court Justice W. R. Allen. He had a most active career in the Schools of the State and was professor and dean of North Carolina State College for Women, and in 1902 was appointed by Governor Aycock as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, which very important position he held until January, 1919.

In 1922 Dr. Joyner was elected president of Tobacco Growers Association and served in other important positions in the interest of farmers.

In December, 1887, Dr. Joyner married Miss Effie E. Rouse of Lenoir County, N. C., who was educated at Peace Institute. Two sons were born to this union, James Noah Joyner, now with the British Tobacco Co., and W. T. Joyner, a prominent attorney of Raleigh, N. C.

Dr. Joyner has been a loyal and active Baptist, true to his church and denomination and now living at his old home in La-Grange, where he was elected Moderator of our Association in 1888.

There have been few men who have had more to do with the advance of education in North Carolina than our friend, Dr. Joyner.

Our association is proud to number him among the men who have helped in the on-going of our denomination in the state.

1889, 1890, 1891, 1892 and 1893. REV. J. T. ALBRITTON.

Rev. John Thomas Albritton was born January 26th, 1836. He was the son of Matthew and Many Albritton. He had a twin brother, Jesse Tignor Albritton. He was placed in school at 5 years of age and his first teacher was Miss Sallie Ann Jones of Greenville, N. C. Later he studied in Wm. B. Richardson's school in Goldsboro. At 15 years of age he went to work in the office of "New Era," a weekly paper edited by Mr. Robinson, where he received some valuable training in publication work.

He was converted in September, 1856, the pastor of his church being Dr. David C. Coulling of Goldsboro church. Straightway he began to preach.

He attended Wake Forest College one year, 1857. His favorite studies were Latin, Greek and mathematics. Later he became principal of Hookerton Male Academy, 1857-58.

He was ordained to full work of the gospel ministry in Goldsboro Baptist Church on February 18th, 1859, and for two years travelled in South Carolina, Florida and Alabama as a missionary colporteur. In 1861 he returned to North Carolina, when on June 17th, 1861, he was married to Miss Dorcas Norman, who was his faithful companion for 45 years, she dying July 1st, 1906, at the age of 65 years.

In 1861 he became pastor of four churches in Washington County, N. C., and served them up to 1864, when he returned to his rural home, near Mt. Olive, where he preached and taught school. He was pastor of the following churches in his long ministry: Falling Creek, Wayne Co.; Mt. Calvary, Bear Marsh, Selma, Island Creek, Dobsons' Chapel, all in Duplin County; Concord, Rose Hill, Corinth, Piney Grove, Smithfield, and in Kenansville in 1882-83.

Brother Albritton died December 3rd, 1906. There were born to Rev. J. T. Albritton and wife, twelve children, six surviving at his death: Mrs. W. S. Boyd, J. O. Albritton, J. T. Albritton, Mrs. Sallie A. Britt, W. S. Albritton and Geo. Warren Albritton, the latter dying December 2nd, 1930.

On suggestion of Dr. W. R. Cullom of Wake Forest, the six living children endowed the chair of Bible at Wake Forest College, bearing their father's name, $25,000.00 being paid by the family and $25,000.00 being paid by the Eastern Association, where he labored so long and faithfully. By this gift from his children and beloved association, the work he loved so much can be carried on by others. The chair was established about 1918.

Bro. Albritton died in his old home near Mt. Olive, at the age of 70.

1894. REV. RUFUS FORD.

Rev. Rufus Ford was from Marion, South Carolina. Attended Wake Forest College from 1873 to 1878, graduating in 1878. He was college debater in the year of his graduation.

He was ordained to the gospel ministry August 13th, 1878. Studied at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. In 1879 he accepted call to Baptist churches in Marlborough County, South Carolina, and served until 1891. He went to New Bern as pastor in 1891 and served for several years. He was Moderator of the Atlantic Association in 1894, when the association met at Antioch chuuch, now Winterville.

Brother Ford was a very interesting writer and all of us who through the years read the Biblical Recorder, will remember the many fine and spiritual articles printed in our paper from his pen.

The writer regrets that he has not been able to get in touch with the son of Brother Ford, so that he could say more about this very consecrated man, who did much work in our association as well as in other churches, especially in South Carolina. I feel sure that his life and its activities have been published in papers, especially in South Carolina, where he lived so long.

1895, 1896 and 1897. DR. R. H. LEWIS.

Richard Henry Lewis, M. D., was born near Rocky Mount, Edgecomb County, N. C., December 21st, 1832, and he died May 15th, 1917, in Kinston. He was the son of John Wesley Lewis and Catherine Ann (Battle) Lewis, and descended from Exum Lewis, Colonel of Edgecombe County Militia in the Revolutionary War.

Dr. Lewis was graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1852, with B. A. degree and 1855 with M. A. degree. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1856, with M. D. degree. He practiced medicine in North Carolina and Virginia for 14 years.

In 1860 and 1861 he organized a company of troops known as Rocky Mount Light Infantry and known in Confederate Army as Co. K, 15th North Carolina troops. He was captain of the company but forced to resign after a few months service, on account of ill health.

In 1869, he became co-principal of St. John's College, Oxford, N. C., now Masonic Orphanage, and for 38 years continued his teaching work in Henderson, Wake and Lenoir counties. Served six years as president of Kinston College and three years as president of Judson College. During two meetings of the North Carolina Teachers Assembly of 1884 and 1885, he presided over that body. For four years he was chairman of Lenoir County Board of Education. For 44 years he was a representative of the teaching force of the state.

Dr. Lewis married Eleanor Mildred Betts of Halifax County, Va. She died May 17th, 1915. Their children were as follows: Katherine, who became Mrs. George Lane Patrick; Colonel William Figures Lewis, Medical Corps, U. S. Army, now retired; Elisha Betts Lewis and Frank Cox Lewis, who was a Spanish War veteran and died in December, 1918.

Dr. Lewis served as clerk and deacon of Kinston Baptist Church. He often wrote for the Biblical Recorder and Charity and Children.

At the time of his death he was the oldest living graduate of the University of North Carolina and of the University of Pennsylvania.

1898 and 1899. Rev. C. W. BLANCHARD.

Rev. Charles W. Blanchard, son of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Blanchard, was born in Wake County, North Carolina. He attended public schools of Fuquay Springs and later Oakwood Academy and Holly Springs Institute. With a wife and three children he entered Wake Forest College in the fall of 1888, serving several county churches while pursuing his studies at college. He graduated at Wake Forest and served as financial agent of the college from December, 1894, to June, 1897.

He was converted at the age of 13 and baptized into the fellowship of Pleasant Grove church, where he remained a member until several years after he had served it as pastor. He married Miss Virginia F. Johnson in December, 1881. He was called to the ministry in 1886.

He was principal of Morrisville Institute, 1891-92. Before serving as Financial Agent of the college he was pastor, East Durham, Cary and Green Level churches. His first pastorate of Kinston church began June 1897 and closed January 1902, then beginning work as General Missionary of Neuse Association. After his second pastorate at Kinston, he was pastor at Emma's Chapel (now Richlands), LaGrange, Maysville, Pollocksville, and Oriental, serving not all of these churches at the same time but covering a period of several years. Bro. Blanchard was also Editor of the Biblical Recorder.

Bro. Blanchard was Chm. of the Executive Committee of the Atlantic Association for three years and also Chairman of the Executive Committee of Neuse-Atlantic for three years. Two years he was Moderator of the Atlantic Association.

I often spoke of Bro. Blanchard as the "Old War Horse". And really he was a power of strength for the Baptist cause in these parts. He did much in indoctrinating the churches over which he pastored and was very active in helping our association go forward. I am afraid that many of our people do not realize what this man of God was worth to the cause of Christ in eastern North Carolina, especially in the two associations where he labored with us. Eternity alone can tell what this man did among us. I still miss him in the ranks of those who for so long wrought well among us. It was at this associational meeting that part of the churches were dismissed, later forming the Neuse Association.

1900. W. J. MONTFORD.

William Joseph Montford, son of Edward Ward and Louisa Howard Montford, was born near Jacksonville, Onslow County, North Carolina, April 14th, 1839. He graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, at a youthful age, and practiced his profession during his long life.

He married Miss Abbie Brown of Kenansville, N. C., and to them were born five children, thret of them reaching maturity, namely, Edward Ward Montford, William Joseph, Jr., and Lena Montford Gilman. Upon the death of his first wife, he married Miss Maggie Hyman of New Bern, N. C., who died in 1931.

Dr. Montford with his family lived at Ward's Mill, in Onslow County, and they were loyal members of Aenon Chapel church, of which they were among the first members. Dr. Montford was a deacon for many years. He was also very active in his Masonic lodge. He practiced medicine from his graduation until a year or two of his death, which occurred on March 29th, 1917.

He was greatly beloved by his neighbors and friends. He was the first treasurer of the Atlantic Association in 1884, as well as its moderator in 1900. It is men of the type of Dr. Montford that are the backbone of our churches and communities in their uplifting and development.

1901. S. M. BRINSON.

Samuel Mitchell Brinson was born in New Bern, N. C., March 20th, 1870. He received his elementary and high school training in New Bern, and graduated at Wake Forest College in 1891. Taught school one year, and then read law at the University of North Carolina in 1895 and received his license from the Supreme Court in February, 1896. He practiced law until March, 1902, when he was elected superintendent of public instruction of Craven County, in which position he served most successfully until March 4th, 1919, when began his first term as Representative of the Third North Carolina District in the Sixty-sixth Congress to which he had been elected in November, 1918. He was re-elected in 1920, and, died before the end of his second term, on April 13th, 1922.

He married Miss Ruth M. Scales of Salisbury, N. C., on January 16th, 1901, who died January 19th, 1919, a short time before he was sworn in as a Congressman. They had one daughter, Mary Steele Brinson.

Sam Brinson (affectionately called by his friends) was one of Nature's noblemen. He was an orator, educator, statesman and, best of all, a Christian gentleman. Rarely do you see a finer type of man.

He did a wonderful work with the schools of Craven County, and his influence and activity for public education will be long felt in the good county of Craven. He was chairman of the executive committee of the association in 1906; deacon, Sunday school superintenednt, and other responsible positions in our First Church in New Bern. He was one lawyer who found time to attend his associational meetings and take an active and interested part in its deliberations and work. Our denomination and association lost a valuable helper in the going of Brother Brinson.

1902 and 1903. REV. A. W. SETZER.

Rev. Andrew Wilson Setzer, son of Franklin and Martha Wilson Setzer, was born in Catawba County, North Carolina, June 17th, 1872. He received his education in the schools of his county and Wake Forest College. During his pastorates he served Greenville Memorial, Morehead City, Burlington and Maiden. Among country churches he was pastor of Cherryville Field-Leonard's Fork, Mt. Vernon and Amity churches, and also other churches.

Bro. Setzer was married twice. His first wife was Mrs. Mary Lucas White of Raleigh. Of this union three children were born, Lois, Elizabeth and Inez, the first two living. His second wife was Susie Felton of Beaufort. Her father was Deacon Richard Felton, who for over fifty years was an active member of the Beaufort church. From this union five children were born: Eunice, Byron, Laura Hill, Helen and Richard, all of whom are living.

Mr. Setzer died November 22nd, 1922, and his widow and some of the children are living in Maiden, N. C.

While pastor in Morehead City, he was principal of the Atlantic Institute, the associational school. Bro. Setzer preached the sermon at that association in New Bern Tabernacle in 1899, and he was moderator of the association in the 1902 meeting at Bayboro and in 1903 at its meeting in Piney Grove church in Onslow. He was not an old man but had crowded in a lot of good work for the Kingdom during these years.

1904, 1905 and 1906. J. S. CANADY, SR.

Jesse Spates Canady, Sr., was born at Sneads Ferry, Onslow County, North Carolina. He married Annie Elizabeth King and to this union were born six children, three of whom are now living: William A. Canady of Fayetteville, N. C.; Mrs. W. T. Mercer (Mary E.) of Wilmington, N. C., and Mrs. E. H. Heady (Ruth O.) of Smyrna, N. C. Those deceased are: Mrs. Wm. B. Pittman (Minnie), J. S. Canady, Jr., and Pauline Canady.

Brother Canady was a druggist and spent most of his life as such.

While he was living in Wilmington, on August 6th, 1894, the South Side Church was organized, a mission of the First Baptist Church. There were 19 charter members and among them were Mr. and Mrs. Canady and their daughter, Mrs. Mercer. He was at that time a deacon of the First Church. He was chairman of the board of deacons and superintendent of Sunday school of South Side Church. Before he left Wilmington he saw this church grow into a large, progressive and outstanding church of our denomination.

He moved to Swansboro, where he continued his activities in the church there, being a deacon and choir leader. His wife too was very active, teaching the Young Men's Bible Class.

Bro. Canady was a strong Baptsit, believing in the fundamentals and standing by the verities of the Scriptures. Men of this sort are valuable citizens and mean much to any community. He wrought well and his influence goes on to bless the world. He was moderator for three years.

1907 and 1908. DR. J. M. PARROTT.

In New Bern in November, 1907, the Neuse Association convened with the Tabernacle church and the Atlantic Association met with the First Church. At that time the two associations merged, forming the Neuse-Atlantic Association, and Dr. James Marion Parrott was elected its first Moderator, and served for two years. Dr. Parrott, son of James Parrott and Elizabeth Waters Parrott, was born on the Parrott plantation, six miles from Kinston, N. C., on January 7th, 1874. After the death of his father his father's family moved to Kinston, to secure better educational advantages. He attended the old Graded School and the Kinston College, under the direction of Dr. R. H. Lewis, who later was one of the moderators of the Atlantic Association, whose sketch has already been read. Dr. Parrott attended Wake Forest College from 1888 to 1891.

He studied medicine in Kinston under a preceptor for a while, then spent one year in medicine at the University of Maryland, and two years at Tulane University, where he graduated with high honors. He served one year in hospitals at New Orleans and interned at Charity Hospital, Edinburgh, Scotland. He took the medical examination in 1895, passing with the very high average of 96.

In 1899 as a smallpox and yellow fever specialist of the U. S. Army he took charge of the First Division Hospital at Havana, Cuba.

He had a great experience officially in the North Carolina Medical Society, being elected president of the same in 1914. He was on the State Board of Medical Examiners for 6 years. A director of the State Hospital for the Insane, and the author of numerous articles of scientific value, which have been published in medical journals. He was head of County Board of Education, and a member of State Board of Nurse Examiners for 10 years. The culmination of his great work as a medical expert was as secretary of State Board of Health and State Health Officer from 1931 to his untimely death on November 7th, 1934. For many years he was a trustee of Wake Forest College, being also president of this body.

Dr. Parrott was long a leader in the First Baptist Church of Kinston, taught in the Sunday school for many years, was chairman of the building committee when their beautiful and commodious church was built, active in raising money for building Lenoir County Building at Kennedy Memorial Home.

In 1907, Dr. Parrott married Miss Lottie Tull of Kinston, the daughter of Dr. Henry Tull and wife, Myrtie (Wooten) Tull. Two children, Myrtie Elizabeth Parrott and James Marion Parrott, were born to this union.

Dr. Parrott was a very versatile man, not only a great surgeon and physician and health propagandist, but an orator of the first rank. In the minutes of 1907 is printed a most comprehensive address on Christian education, a subject he was greatly interested in and delivered at that time as Moderator's Address. Church and State lost a valuable helper in his going. He was indeed my friend and I valued his friendship that I know he had for me.

1909 to 1927. M. LESLIE DAVIS Was Moderator.
1928 and 1929. DR. Z. V. PARKER.

Dr. Zebulon Vance Parker, son of John Council Parker and his wife, Zilphia McIllwain (Hardy) Parker, was born at Olivers, Jones County, North Carolina, on June 15th, 1878. Dr. Parker's father was born August 8th, 1844, and his mother, May 1st, 1851 Both were born and reared in Greene County, N. C., and to this union were born nine sons.

Dr. Parker attended the public or free schools, then Trenton Academy for 5 years, two years at Piedmont High School, near Shelby, and three years at the Southern Dental College at Atlanta, Ga., receiving at the latter institution the D.D.S. degree in 1903.

Bro. Parker has been a valuable citizen in New Bern and Craven County. For fifteen years he was vice-chairman of the Board of Education of the New Bern city schools.

In the First Baptist Church of New Bern he has served in every capacity and has been a lay evangelist for 18 years, preaching and holding meetings not only in Craven County but many other counties.

Dr. Parker on December 20th, 1906, married Miss Sarah Nell Douglas, who was born at Indian Springs, Ga., on September 30th, 1882. They have three daughters, Elsie Margaret, Winifred McIllwain and Joy Francis Parker.

An enthusiastic Christian gentleman is Dr. Parker and a power for good in our association. For two years he served as moderator, these being the last of the Neuse-Atlantic Association, a division being consummated in Falling Creek church in November, 1929, and later the Atlantic and Neuse Associations being formed.

1930 and 1931. L. L. LEARY.

Luther Lewis Leary was born in Harlowe, Carteret County, N. C., August 17th, 1871. His father was Rev. T. J. Leary, most useful minister in Eastern North Carolina for many years. His mother was Mollie (Bunch) Leary and into his parent's home were born four sons and three daughters. His brother, Thomas M. Leary, was also a minister and taught for a while in Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, dying in the spring of his senior year at Wake Forest College.

Luther Leary attended the public schools of the county and entered Wakefield Academy when about nineteen years of age.

He worked in the store of his brother-in-law, John Whitty, of Pollocksville, and there are probably some few here today who remember this youthful clerk. His next work was clerking in Morehead City, in the store of John H. Eaton, this writer's uncle by marriage. In 1896 he opened in Morehead City a business for himself, and from then on he made a great success as a merchant and businessman and for many years and until his death he was one of the most successful businessmen in Carteret County.

On August 25th, 1897, Mr. Leary was married to Miss Nora Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Willis of Morehead City. To this union were born three daughters and one son: Bernice, who married Arthur F. Joyner of Farmville, N. C.; Lucille, who married Hon. H. S. Gibbs of Morehead City; Ruth and Bernard, the boy being named for Dr. Spilman, his lifelong friend and associate in many denominational activities.

Most of Brother Leary's life was spent in Morehead City and the Baptist church there had no more loyal member than he. He was deacon for many years, superintendent of the Sunday school, teacher, treasurer, and withal a Bible student. As Dr. Spilman said, "conditions in the boyhood days made it practically impossible for Luther Leary to go to college and obtain there a college education, but he was one of the best educated men of his generation."

In 1919 Luther Leary was elected a member of the Board of Trustees of the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage and served until his death August 23rd, 1932. A most energetic and helpful worker on this important board.

Any community is blessed who has in it a Christian gentleman like Luther Lewis Leary.

I wish all of you could read Dr. Spilman's address on the life of Bro. Leary which was delivered at Kennedy Memorial Home October 9th, 1932. From this address I secured a great deal of what I have written about our brother, Luther Lewis Leary.

1932 to 1940. M. LESLIE DAVIS, Moderator.

The writer regrets exceedingly that time and space prohibit a more worthy sketch of these brethren, and I beg this association's pardon for using so much of its time, but I feel it worth while to call to our attention these men who have wrought so well in our Master's Kingdom.

I am indebted to many of my friends for help in preparing this paper but will not take the time to enumerate them. I am sure they were as glad to help me as I have been in getting the help.

———o———

A motion was presented by D. B. Willis, seconded by S. B. Wilson: "We request that Dr. Z. V. Parker of New Bern prepare a biographical sketch of our present Moderator, M. Leslie Davis, and that same be added to and become a part of the fine historical sketch of the lives of our past Moderators, as just presented by M. Leslie Davis." Unanimously carried.

(This addenda not prepared as these minutes go to printer.)

Memorial _____ Dr. Z. V. Parker

The congregation joined in singing "The Home over There."

Dr. Parker then called the names, by churches, of those deceased members during the past year, after which Miss Marguerite Stewart sang "Garden of Gethsemane."

After words of eulogy by Dr. Parker, the memorial service closed with prayer.

W. M. U. Report _____ Mrs. L. B. Daniel

Mrs. Daniel spoke, without reading her written report, on the aims and accomplishments of the W. M. U. during the past year.

It was moved, seconded and carried that her written report be accepted, adopted and made a part of these minutes.

"Always Abounding . . . In the Work of the Lord"

Now that the associational year of our W. M. U. work is finished and another year has been recorded, I like to think of the churches that have abounded in the work of the Lord. The records that have been made by the missionary societies of the Atlantic Association show what we have done. As I study these records and reports I am thankful that God hase given me the privilege of working in this part of His world, and I am truly sorry that I have not done more for Him.

Our purpose during the year has been—Be ye Steadfast, unmovable, always Abounding in the work of the Lord. This alone has required the time and thought of the women that have helped me carry on this work that we are all so interested in here today. How necessary it is that we, as Christian workers, be steadfast in a troubled world as it is today.

Our aim has been to increase in the knowledge of our Master's will. If we know what He wants us to do and do not do it, how miserable we must be. Some of the societies in the Atlantic Association have not yet realized their task, and that is one reason why our records are not what they should be. God help us to see our duty and do it.

We have tried to reach the standard of excellence in our association by following, as closely as possible, the requirements set by our executive committee. In gifts, mission study, personal service, and other objects. We have shown an increase in all of these phases of the work. We are proud of our standard W. M. U.—Morehead City.

Comparing this year's figures with last year it is interesting to see that our efforts have not been in vain.

1. In 1939 we gave to all objects $2,301.06
   In 1940 we gave to all objects 2,795.92

This shows an increase of nearly $500.

2. In 1939 we had a membership of 996
In 1940 we had a membership of 1200
This shows an increase of 204 (young people included.)
3. In 1939 we reported 98 tithers.
In 1940 we reported 83 tithers.

This is the weak link in our chain of work. If we do not give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name; if we do not bring unto Him a worthy offering, His work cannot be carried on as it should be.

4. We have increased more in mission study than in any other phase of the work, and this is encouraging. I feel that as we learn we are inspired to pray and to work.

5. In all of our personal service we have had back of every deed the aim to win a soul. How many we have helped we do not know, but we do feel that this is something that we cannot afford to neglect. We hear Jesus say: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Think of the privilege of ministering to Jesus. I really thank Him for the privilege.

The superintendent has visited and assisted in 5 group meetings, written 76 letters, 6 postal cards, and has traveled 625 miles.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. L. B. DANIEL.

Social Service Report ---------- Rev. S. B. Wilson

Social service as it is in the world today.

Love, loyalty and cooperation of groups; religious, educational, labor and political groups. Militarism means the army and navy, that might makes right. The weak must obey the strong.

Imperialism means conquest for power. War upon the weak disclaims any knowledge of God. Take what you can, the undefended must suffer and be submissive.

Dictatorship. Since the World War dictatorships have developed. Minority leaders who have vowed to destroy all that the World War number one set up. Each, all power vested in one.

Agnosticism. Disclaims all knowledge of God. A disowning of God.

Oligarchy. This means power in the hands of the few.

Plutocracy means power owing to riches.

All of the above are embodied in the word totalitarianism, defined by Mr. Gill as a government regime which robs the individual of inborn rights. It is one man ruling all. It is tyranny, despotism, autocracy, the major sins of history. Injustice, pride, love of luxury and love of power are the main themes of the above ideals. There are four totalitarian nations today, namely: Germany, Italy, Russia and Japan. Hitler and Naziism, Mussolini and Fascism, Stalin and Communism, Japan and extreme nationalism. The suppression of all the rights of the individual, for which in all ages saints, martyrs and patriots have died. If continued this system will destroy all worth of personality. Without freedom no individual or people can grow and have value for the world's good. Totalitarian dictators are anti-Christ, in that they are against everything that Christ stood for, and for which he died. The issue is between right and might, between moral law and force, between civilization and the jungle, between God and the realm of evil.

There is no need to say peace when there is no peace. The frowns of the dictators have destroyed all that the World War No. 1 set up. The attack is now upon the liberty that remains in the Western Hemisphere. The movement of war launched by the dictators will run its course. It will spend itself, it will come to naught. In the past history, good movements have kept on gaining in momentum and power and continue to the present day. Bad movements have weakened and have spent themselves.

Young men and women are answering the call to serve their country and their God. The offering is sacrificial. Each will do a bit. It required a united effort to accomplish the best results.

The United States of America in part now sees its crime. Some of our men and women sold scrap iron to Japan and bought silk stockings. China was destroyed. This scrap iron was used to destroy China. The United States of America is party to this crime. As a result our Nation faces three deadly enemies, namely: Japan, Germany and Italy. We have cried peace but the enemies to Christianity have waged war.

In the minds of the minority of the world's people the social order has been influenced to go off at a tangent. Militarism has carried the world into war. The social belief that might makes right is misleading. Too much power in the hands of a few people is dangerous. Most of men with too much power abuse that power.

Three hundred homes in North Carolina were broken up last year by strong drink. Seven hundred orphans were cast off from these homes upon the mercy of the world by the manufacture and sale of liquors in North Carolina, both legal and illegal. In most every community undernourished and neglected children are to be seen. What will we do about it? Will we arise as a strong denomination, and as a Christian force, and in the name of the Lord put this liquor traffic down? Prohibition is coming back.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. WILSON.

Report Adopted.

TEMPERANCE

TOTAL ABSTINENCE:

There is no longer any place for the word "temperance" in the discussion of the drink evil. Only one term can be properly used and that is TOTAL ABSTINENCE. In the light of facts brought out by modern science as to the poison content of alcohol, it would seem that all sensible people would avoid it as they avoid the most deadly reptile.

From the moral point of view the man of the world thinks he has ground for argument, but for the church member or any professing Christian, there can be no argument. The duty of total abstinence applies not only to the use of hard liquors, but, with equal force, to beer and any beverage with a large alcoholic content. Foes of the liquor traffic no longer have to confine their efforts on moral grounds, but should win upon a purely humanitarian or physical basis. Proof after proof has been piled up by the wisest scientists and physicians of the dreadful narcotic poisons that act with such deadly effect upon the morals, mind and body of the drinkers.

There is hope that the pendulum of public intelligence and sentiment has turned toward a better day. Our people are at least beginning to realize how greatly they were deceived by the liquor forces in the campaign, of a few years ago, to destroy prohibition. It is encouraging that the result of almost every referendum, held within the past two years, has resulted in a victory for the moral forces. The fearless stand taken by many of our Superior Court judges, in recent months, has brought hope and cheer to the foes of liquor. These judges and their assisting officers are hereby highly commended for this contribution to the wider good of humanity. If every community had such honest and courageous officers, the liquor problem would be reduced to a minimum. All members of our churches are urged to uphold the hands and efforts of good officers of the law and to use their influence in creating public sentiment in favor of total abstinence and impartial enforcement of law.

The mighty, and once effective, argument that "People will buy liquor whether sold by the Government or blind tiger, therefore the Government might as well sell and receive some revenue," is losing its force, for thinking people have now realized that the ABC store amounts to but little except simply another place where liquor can be bought. To some people it seems a little more respectable to buy at such government selling places. This has resulted in greatly increased consumption. While the ABC stores show some book profit, we are realizing more and more that there can be no real profit realized from a business so corrupt and debasing as the liquor or beer business.

TEMPERANCE IN WAR SPIRIT:

The war spirit has gripped the world. Under these conditions it is difficult for the Christian to maintain his equilibrium in thought, word and action. We cannot, as militant Christians, concur in the views of the extreme pacifist, neither can we follow the extreme war party. Our church members should strive to avoid these extremes and, through prayer for the oppressed, render every possible assistance to the suffering. What should be our attitude toward the oppressor? In following the example and spirit of our Master, may we not also pray for him? Our world will never have a lasting peace until it shall be founded upon the principles given to us by the Prince of Peace. Can we not as Christians have faith enough to believe that, through our prayers and our own lives of justice and good will toward our fellow man, somehow, sometime win the forces of evil to the way of truth and righteousness? Let us pray constantly, humbling ourselves before our God, that, in the fulness of His wisdom, in some way, the world may come to know that God lives and looks with compassion and love upon a sin cursed world that is suffering so grievously from its own sin.

GAMBLING:

We deplore the spirit of gambling that is so prevalent even among church members. Again we commend a number of our judges and other officers in taking a firm stand against slot machines and other forms of gambling.

PROFANITY:

Another growing evil in which many of our church members engage is the senseless habit of using profanity. If we could realize that we shall surely have to give an account of every idle and profane word that proceeds from our lips, especially when God's name is taken in vain, would we not be more temperate in our speech? "A soft answer turns away wrath." There is no soft answer in the vocabulary of profanity. Every profane epithet is a sign of weakness and really weakens the capacity of any Christian.

Respectfully submitted,
U. E. SWANN, Committee.
